

Join Us In The New Year With Our New Traditions (Chiddush - חידוש)

Our High Holiday theme this year, New Traditions, has many possible meanings for our Temple. This is especially true in this year of COVID-19. Reform Judaism has always prided itself on looking back to the traditions of centuries past and adapting them to the needs of the current time. As we become further removed from the beginnings of a tradition, we must view it through the lens of the world of today and not be slaves to the past.

As we enter 5781 and the second year of our consolidation of 2 tradition-rich legacy temples, we must continue to develop New Traditions based upon what works best for all of us. What works best for TOE, ACRC for any particular practice may be the TOE way, the CRT way, some combination of the two, or a completely new way. We must look at everything with a fresh eye and do what makes the most sense for us in our current circumstances.

Unfortunately, those current circumstances include the COVID-19 pandemic. The Hebrew word for New Traditions, Chiddush, also means innovation. We have had to innovate and improvise during these last 6 months to constantly bring the Temple into our homes. In some ways, we are better for it. Despite being compelled to do so many things by streaming and zoom, we have been able to identify, retain and find new ways to accentuate what is most important to us - the connections to our Temple and each other.

With the start of a New Year, let us resolve to keep innovating and keep finding New Traditions. Who knows? The new tradition of 5781 may be the tried and true tradition 50 or 100 years from now.

President's Message:

I hope that everyone managed to enjoy the summer despite the limitations on activities caused by COVID-19. Our Temple spent the summer meeting the challenges caused by these limitations and the Board and I will work tirelessly to adapt our Temple to whatever the "new normal" turns out to be.

With the invaluable assistance of our COVID-19 Task Force and the protocols it developed, we have carefully and safely opened our Temple to in-person events, while continuing to hold other events virtually. We are one of the few temples where congregants in limited numbers can safely attend Friday night services, while other members stream the services from home. Rabbi Judy, Cantor David and Ed have done yeoman's work to make our services meaningful both to those in attendance and those at home. Our esteemed Director of Education, Deborah Tract ran several events at the Temple this summer for children of all ages. N.O.W. (formerly known as Sisterhood) and the Men's Club did the same. There have also been a multitude of streamed and zoomed events, such as the Cantor's amazing concert and Rabbi Judy's Torah studies and Lunch N Learn sessions and Round Table Rap discussions.

Our High Holidays' theme will be "New Traditions" (Chiddush חידוש). We cannot be slaves to the past, but must adapt them to the here and now. We must explore the best way for TOE,ACRC to do things. In some instances, they might be the TOE way. In others they might be the CRT way. Perhaps they will be some combination of what the two legacy temples did. Or, they might be a completely new way of doing them. The goal is to do them in a way that works best for us. The silver lining of the COVID cloud is that we have already been forced to think of new ways to do things and we have thrived.

As you have seen from various communications you received, we are planning High Holiday Services that will look and feel different. In line with "New Traditions", I urge you to embrace the differences and enjoy each and every service. As of the writing of this article, the plan is to permit attendance in the sanctuary and ballroom for each service up to a maximum of 110. The physical layout of the bima will be different. Some people with honors will be in Temple doing them from different spots in the sanctuary than you are used to seeing. The Rabbi and Cantor will be announcing names of those with honors who have chosen to stay safe at home. The services will be shorter and there will be only one, not two, service on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur mornings.

While we continue to strive to keep our Temple as accessible as possible, we urge anyone who is in a high-risk category or is otherwise feeling unwell to consider the safety of others and please stay home, even if you are scheduled to attend a particular service. Every service will be streamed but the services for Rosh Hashanah eve, Rosh Hashanah first day morning, Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur morning will be password protected, with each service having its own different password. BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR AN E-MAIL WITH THE PASSWORDS SHORTLY BEFORE EACH OF THESE PARTICULAR SERVICES.

We will get through this pandemic by continuing to do what we have done since it began: staying connected to the Temple and each other. Above all, please stay safe.

Rabbi's Corner:

When I received the memo to submit this article, the subject was, "It's Shofar time". I thought, of course it is since it is a few weeks before Rosh Hashanah. I was thinking of the actual Shofar, not our newsletter.

The Shofar is traditionally blown during the month of Elul, just before Rosh Hashanah to prepare us for this holy season of the Days of Awe. We take a personal inventory (Heshbon HaNefesh) and seek forgiveness from those we might have wronged. Then we turn to God to forgive what humans cannot or will not.

This year, I urge you to take these preparations to heart, as the High Holiday Services will be different than any before.

As you have heard, all services will be live streamed and while we will be holding in person services, they will be limited in time and in number of participants. That is one way to keep everyone safe. Our Safety Committee is diligently pursuing further effective methods of keeping us all healthy and free of COVID-19.

Everyone attending services in person or viewing the live stream will be treated to the best worship experience we can provide. By being in our beautiful Sanctuary, we are preserving the dignity and majesty of these holidays. We are mindful that praying together with masks on or in front of a small screen is not what we are used to and are therefore keeping our services to about 75 minutes each. There will be less repetition of prayers and more focus on the core themes of God's rule, the birthday of the world, repentance and forgiveness. Content remains the same, presentation will be according to safety guidelines.

I want you to make your decision about attendance during the holidays based on the best medical advice you have. You are all precious to me and to our Temple family. I want your celebration to be meaningful whether in Temple or at home.

In the days leading up to Rosh Hashanah, look to the Psalms, particularly Psalm 27. You may choose to recite it or meditate upon a phrase from this passage. I am fond of verse 4, "One thing I ask of the Eternal, only that do I seek: to live in the house of Adonai all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the Eternal, to frequent God's temple." Contemplate gazing upon God's beauty in our world. How can we make God's beauty apparent to others?

You may also want to prepare your home, particularly if you will be watching services from your couch or office. Make the location of your screen a makom tefilla, a place of prayer. Clear away work or leisure time distractions. Get some holiday flowers, as we do for the sanctuary. Find a Mizrach or a Shiviti, artwork that can be displayed on the eastern wall to help focus your prayer. Mizrach means east, the direction towards Jerusalem, Shiviti comes from the Psalm 16:8 "Shiviti Adonai l'negdi tamid" meaning I have placed the Eternal before me always.

May these Days of Awe be especially meaningful to you and your family. Despite the differences from previous years, may this holiday season be especially sweet. Mike, Micah and Leora join me in wishing you a Shanah Tovah U'Metukah, a good and very sweet New Year!

Rabbi Judy

Sweet, Happy & Healthy New Year

Cantor's Message:

Shalom and Chag Sameach! What a year we have had so far. As I sat down to begin writing this month's Shofar article, it really hit me how different things have become. We all know they are different for obvious reasons but every year when the High Holidays come along, I try and reflect on how my life has been the last year. How I have hopefully changed the things I set out to change within myself, as our traditions ask us to do.

Never have I had to consider the type of year we have had, especially the last four months. I certainly have been able to grow and change as I planned but I also learned new things about myself that I do not believe I would have ever learned had it not been for the way we are living today.

I found and felt anxieties I had never felt before. The constant feeling of uncertainty and lack of control over not just my life but a sense of it in the whole world. I experienced, for a short while, fears that I do not believe I have ever even thought about. Such overwhelming and frightening situations that none of us could ever have imagined.

Then after I took a deep breath, as I have had to endlessly of late, I realized how I got through it. I leaned on those around me in my family as well as, and even more importantly, our Temple family. It was early on that I saw the endless support and care of our Temple community. Congregants and family members of congregants who were affected by Covid, were continuously taken care of and checked in on. This action by our Temple helped me to calm down. It helped me to understand and not forget that we are all part of an incredible community, one that cares and will always be there for us and our families.

The High Holidays are now upon us. We will experience them as we never have before. Some things we always looked forward to, like being in a packed temple sanctuary, will for the first time not be so.

Sitting, singing and praying with family and friends that we sometimes only see a few times a year will not be the same.

And the list goes on. This does not mean we cannot experience the holidays as we always have internally! We now have to focus even more on our intention and what we want to change and how we will allow ourselves to be affected by the holidays. It will not be easy but at the same time, change is not necessarily bad. This year can be the time when we all let go a little. Perhaps it is time to judge less and accept more. Let go of the anger and resentment that we all carry. Understand that we do not know what is going to happen and how precious life is, as well as how fast it goes.

Make these holidays and this year about your transformation into the more free, happy and peaceful person you always wanted to be.

After seeing and experiencing the last four months, I would say that, more than ever, it is time to try and make the world a better place, by becoming a "better" self.

From my entire family, we wish you all a chag sameach, a prosperous and HEALTHY New Year!

Cantor Katz

Your Temple Is Here for YOU!

Whether it be a panel discussion with two famous authors, live rock music in the parking lot, or a magic show, our Temple is the place to be. As we are all trying to adjust our lives to this new normal and following safety protocols, life continues. Therefore, to keep us all entertained, emotionally connected or even just intellectually stimulated we are trying to keep you involved. The membership/publicity committee would like to be there for you in both good and bad times. Please let us know how we can help. If you have not filled out/updated your membership information, it is never too late.

Sadly, this year we have canceled our Shabbat Under the Stars BBQ and hope to have it next year. Since it is our 13th year, we will be planning a special Bat/Bar Mitzvah of the event with all sorts of ways for you to participate. It will be another time to see your friends, neighbors and fellow congregants in hopefully a large gathering providing we are up to that then.

Please read your emails, snail mail and Facebook posts to keep abreast of our happenings. We are in the process of updating our website and other methods of communication. Let us know what we can do to stay in touch with you.

Religious School:

Shalom Friends,

The summer of 2020 has certainly been one that will go down in history! As I write this article, all of us are wondering what the 2020/2021 school year will look like! The past few months have been spent creating a new vision for reopening our Religious School in a safe, productive way.

As many of you know, our synagogue is fortunate to have a strong, dedicated COVID Safety Task Force. Steve Finkelstein, Chair, and his knowledgeable committee of people that are doctors or in the science, medical businesses and property management fields, have taken charge to create fundamental protocols to assure the safety of our Temple family.

Discussions about Religious School have produced strategic guidelines for a safe reopening. Consequently, all students returning to TOE,ACRC will be provided with a safe, clean, healthy environment to learn, reconnect and enjoy a sense of normalcy.

Soon, you will receive information about a "Drive By" at the Temple to pick up your child's school materials. Each student will be provided with his or her own book bag filled with books and school supplies. Please keep your child's RS supplies separate from their public-school possessions to avoid any disruption to our safety protocols.

We know there will be bumps along the way, but together, as always, we will persevere with patience, understanding and a willingness to accept the things we cannot change.

Our Clergy, teachers and staff join me in welcoming all our students back to the 2020/2021 school year. We are so excited, that in August, with all safety measures in place, we were able to bring some fun-filled family entertainment for everyone to enjoy. Magic Jeff honored us with his magical tricks and his sense of humor on the west side of our Temple's lawn!

The following week, we welcomed entertainer and puppeteer Janice Buckner for her first of many-to-come appearances at TOE,ACRC. The puppets, guitar and songs brought smiles of content to our children's faces. In fact, when I commented about happy children, a child asked, "how do you know we are smiling, we are wearing masks", my reply was simple, "by your eyes that are filled with happiness to be all together again."

Pandemic, quarantine, mandatory mask wearing will not stop or hinder what we, as a strong, vibrant community can do together for our sacred community. We are committed to continuing to teach and provide the in-depth curriculum of Jewish knowledge and teaching you have known, with minimal change. Our children are facing a new normal, in fact, they are experiencing things that we never had to endure or would have never imagined would transpire. Our kids are resilient; they will pave the way for all of us, as they adapt to change with confidence and sensitivity.

On behalf of my husband, Larry, and our children, wishing you and your family a Shanah Tovah U'metuka, Happy and Sweet New Year. May all of you be blessed with a year of health, peacefulness, and jubilation.

B'Shalom,

Deborah E. Tract, Director of Education

N.O.W.

Patience is a virtue. Patience is something we need when we stand on a long line waiting to get into the grocery store or in earlier times waiting in line to get tickets to your favorite concert. Patience is what you give your child as he/she learns to tie his/her shoes. Patience is something we need as we wait for the arrival of the anticipated coronavirus vaccine. Patience is what I ask of you as we navigate our new world by bringing you social events, fundraisers and meetings while adhering to social distancing rules. Patience is something we'll need in order to exist and live in peace and harmony.

N.O.W...Here's the News!

This year I will be running N.O.W. as a solo president. I thank Jeanie for helping with the transition as TOE and CRT came together as one last year. Don't worry Jeanie will still be around to help when she can! In the meantime, she will be missed at the helm.

We had our first meeting on July 1st and tossed around a bevy of ideas for events and fundraisers while being cognizant of social distancing rules. If you joined us at the July 30th Parking Lot Summertime Get Together you are able to see first-hand just how well we made this happen! So many were eager to see friendly faces in 3D rather than on screen time. Please feel free to join us anytime in the near future even if it is just for a meeting. It will certainly be a story for you to tell in many years to come on how you helped your temple all the while doing so from a distance! I also thank Francine Miller for running 2 more successful book club discussions. Please keep an eye out for the next book which is always picked at the discussion. Don't forget to "like" us on Facebook and click Notifications so you do not miss any of the up-to-the-minute news and happenings of the temple.

Below is a general calendar of dates coordinated with fundraisers, meetings and events.

Please note all meetings will start at 7:30 PM. If we need to start a meeting/event earlier you will be notified in weekly email blasts calling your attention to the change. All meetings and events will follow proper social distancing guidelines whether on or off the premise.

All meetings will be outdoors until the weather no longer allows. At that time all meetings will resume on zoom.

Note that there are a lot of POSSIBLE events tentatively scheduled. EVERYTHING is subject to change. I ask that you all be as flexible as possible.

I absolutely welcome any and all ideas. If I can make them happen I will!

It's a new year and a new day. Let us embrace what we have been given. From my family to yours I wish you a most blessed New Year and all good things to come in 5781.

Men's Club

The Men's Club has been able to meet for our monthly meeting via Zoom throughout the pandemic. The August meeting, scheduled for August 4th was canceled and rescheduled for August 11th due to the storm, that left some of us without power for days. The Men's Club also met a few times in-person on Sunday mornings at the "Matthew D. Lynch" park next to the Jericho Library. Both the virtual and real meetings have worked out very well, allowing the guys to keep in touch and share pandemic war stories.

The co-presidents participated in the annual "Calendar Meeting" and scheduled some events for the coming year. Of course, every event or activity is subject to change due to the ongoing pandemic.

First, we plan to meet for lunch and football on the first NFL Sunday of the season at the "Main Event" in Plainview. The date is Sunday, September 13th and the time is High Noon. The venue has plenty of outdoor seating and should allow for appropriate social distancing.

The next event is the annual Sukkah Installation, that is scheduled for Sunday morning September 27th at 9:00 AM. Preceding that, we will have to inspect the sukkah parts for problems and prepare by obtaining any needed hardware. Again, all of this depends on whether a sukkah will be installed this year because of safety concerns.

The Men's Club also scheduled a "Movie Night" Saturday, October 10th at 7:00 PM in the Temple's parking lot. Weather could be an additional factor at that time of year but there was not an earlier date available because of when the holidays fall.

The Men's Club Shabbat Service is scheduled for Friday night November 13th. This event is a make-up from last year's canceled event and would be the first such service held in a long time at our Temple.

Our condolences again to Ira Warshawsky and his family on the loss of his wife, Flory. On a happier note, other Men's Club members including Temple President Neil Miller and Men's Club Treasurer Paul Adler have recovered from their illnesses over the past few months.

Finally, the Men's Club is currently working on creating a workable constitution/by-laws.

If it is not too early, Happy Holidays! Also, stay healthy!

Torah Notes:

September 5, 2020 Ki Tavo: Deut. 26 – 29:8

The portion describes the end of Moses' review of the law and a brief summary from the time of Abraham's wanderings from country to country, his descendants' slavery in Egypt, God's redemption of his enslaved people and his bringing them to the Promised Land. The laws of tithing and the written codification of the laws are all specified.

September 12, 2020 Nitzavim-VaYelech. Deut. 29:9 –30:20

The people of Israel are all assembled before Moses and ready to enter a covenant with God. He warns everyone against nourishing evil in their hearts, hoping to escape in the general righteousness of the throng. He describes how sinful individuals will be punished, but adds words of mercy, proclaiming the choice of life over death.

September 26, 2020 Ha'azinu: Deut. 32:1 – 32:52

Moses ends his service of a lifetime dedicated to God and the people Israel with a hymn of joy on the banks of the Jordan, in view of the Promised Land.

"To save one life is to save the world."

During the last 6 ½ months we have all had the opportunity to learn something new. Whether or not you took advantage of that opportunity is another story! Time, new found time, led some of us to learn the art of photography, to learn the skill of painting and others perhaps learned a new language. Time for others ran out.

Let me pull on your heartstrings for a moment. I have a friend that is very near and dear to me. We met nearly 23 years ago when our children were in kindergarten. We have shared in joyous and sorrowful occasions, holidays, many weekend dinners, walks around the neighborhood and traveled the globe with them. We had time to do those things. Now my friend and your fellow congregant of Temple Or Elohim, A Community Reform Congregation, Stew Aronowitz needs help finding a kidney so that he can gain back time!

In Rabbi Judy's words,

Brett Ashley is my favorite cousin which is truly not fair to my other cousins whom I love. But, Brett and I, close in age, shared childhood memories that were special to me. To look at us you would not know we were related, Brett is tall, had dark curly hair as a boy and I was a short, dirty blonde just like my grandma and his grandpa who were siblings. Funny that I grew up to be a rabbi, because Brett was the star of our Hebrew School class. His beautiful voice led him to be chosen to learn to daven the mussaf service and each month he led the adult congregation in the year after his Bar Mitzvah. I was so proud. Years later, Brett found his voice again, this time with his wonderful life partner, Nina. Together they entertained at nursing homes and for Alzheimer's day programs.

Sadly, a septic infection robbed Brett of many of these opportunities because now he must be tethered to a dialysis machine 3 times a week. While that time is life sustaining, it is also lost time for Brett in his mission to use his musical talents for good in his community. I can't let my cousin Brett lose more time. I am still so proud of him and I want to be able to see him flourish after years of hard work.

Together, along with a committee comprised of temple members, we have been involved in raising awareness/educating the public and possibly finding a live kidney donor for each, Stew and Brett. Personally, I have never been a selfish person but...Selfishly, I want to travel again with Stew (and Jeanette). Selfishly, I want to see Stew walk his daughter down the aisle at her wedding. Selfishly, I want to have Stew sit at our holiday table as he has done for the past 15 years. Selfishly, I ask that you please review the recording or contact Renewal and find out a bit more about LIVE Kidney Donation. Perhaps you'll be a match for someone someday!

Thank you for reading. For more information email info@renewal.org and specify that the info you are looking for is for Stew or Brett.

A fundraiser that is a WIN, WIN, WIN for ALL!

EAT. DRINK. SAVE. DONATE! For those of you who participate in social media, particularly, Facebook or watch channel 12 news, you might be familiar with the FOODIE CARD. It is a card that when purchased allows a 10% discount off your bill. This is WIN #1! The card costs $30.00 for a year's membership and a portion of the monies received is donated to Island Harvest and City Harvest to provide meals for the hungry. This is WIN #2! Through a NEW program the FOODIE CARD will now donate $5.00 back to our organization for EVERY card WE sell! This is WIN #3! I am telling you up front that occasionally they run specials and you can purchase the FOODIE CARD through them, but we will NOT receive the donation in return. SO please support our efforts!

Attached in this newsletter are flyers that pertain to the FOODIE CARD and the restaurants that presently participate. This list is an ever-growing list and best to check their website (www.foodiecard.com) for new restaurants that have been added. This makes for a great gift whether for Mother's Day, Father's Day and birthday or even if you simply want to save money. I purchased this card when it was first introduced and have saved 3 times my investment! (Yes, we eat out a lot!). Consider this for all your gift giving needs! Just download the application flyer and fill out a form for each recipient. Send a check or checks made payable to Foodie Card (or you can provide your credit card information that will be sent to Foodie Card) to either the office at 18 Tobie Lane attention: N.O.W. Foodie Card or mail directly to me: Robin Grossman 15 Garden Place, Jericho, NY 11753.

Any other questions please call Robin at 516.681.9070.
