LUIS ORTIZ

SALES ASSOCIATE, REALTOR®

PERSONAL PROFILE

I am a sales associate at Berkshire Hathaway Fox and Roach. I diligently follow real estate market values and trends to provide up to date information about the housing market to attain the highest possible price for your home. I work primarily in Camden, Burlington, Gloucester and Philadelphia Counties. I have experience with a variety of transactions including traditional home sales, short sales, bank owned, properties investments, and first time home buyer programs. My most rewarding experience working with clients is teaching. Knowledge is power, and having the opportunity to empower you to help you find the perfect home or get the highest possible selling price for your home motivates me to provide a continued experience of excellence while in my care. Incorporating/respecting your preferences and values in addition to educating you about the process of buying and selling a home.
