Conflict of Interest (Multiple Studio Policy)

Any dancer enrolled with In the Key of Dance Studio shall not have any other contractual agreements and enrollments with multiple studios. Parents must figure out their reasoning & best option of choice. The dancer is the ultimate one that is cared for and should not have to choose between performances and missed classes due to conflict of scheduling , cost, confused with training styles etc..

Intellectual Property Policy

Choreography, Logo, Studio Name, and Studio Policies remain intellectual property and may not be reproduced or sold by any student, parent, or staff.

Honor/Ethics Code

It is dishonorable and prohibited to profit financially from any production or activity related to the studio, i.e duplicate tickets for entry or create/recreate studio merchandise (with or without studio name, logo, or logo) to sell/side hustle to patrons or dancers for profit or self-gain. This act could cause extreme disorder and automatic dismissal.

Communication

Injury & No Call No Show

Injury's are taken very seriously, if a dancer is injured, they are encouraged to sit and take notes to not only avoid further injury but to not miss what training transpired during class.

Parents must communicate absences to minimize impact to the class. Missing classes could affect your dancer and their peers. Students that are no call no show contenders will be considered "dropped" from that class. This spot will be opened for others to enroll.

Fundraisers:

Funds earned from fundraising events must be spent for the purpose it was intended. This includes all fundraising activities! Please note that funds that are raised for the intent of dance activities shall not be refunded. Participation in any and all fundraising activities is strictly voluntary.

Make-up Classes:

If classes are cancelled due to inclement weather, class cancellations, or any other emergency reasons from the studio, those classes will be made up. We do not offer make-up classes for classes missed. Monthly tuition payments are not reimbursed for missed classes as their spot is still being held in their absence.

Attire

In the Key of Dance has a strict uniform policy regarding dance attire. NO leg warmers during instruction, no sweat pants, shorts (unless authorized), head coverings, multi-colored leotards, or jackets allowed. All students are to be properly dressed, neat, and clean for class at all times. Students (no matter of age or size) must not walk around in public (outside of the studio/theater) dressed only in leotards and tights! Students in ALL levels are to enter and leave the building in a complete cover-up: dress, jeans, tee-shirt, shorts, and street shoes (not dance shoes).

Jewelry

Jewelry is dangerous while dancing, and should not be worn in class. Students are encouraged to leave all jewelry, such as bracelets, watches (smart watches as well), rings, & necklaces off and preferably left home while receiving dance instruction. In the Key of Dance takes NO responsibility for any lost or stolen items (including electronics). Only stud earrings are allowed in class.

Nails

Nails must be trimmed for all students. Long and/or fake nails has posed safety hazards to oneself and other students during instruction. Clear nail polish only on fingers and toes are permitted during performances, photo shoots, and productions. Nude (must match nail bed) polish is okay. No nail designs and accessories.

Tights

In the Key of Dance requires that all female students wear skin tone transitional tights (due to other genre's that may require bare feet). This will prevent a break in the visual "line" from the top of their head to the tip of their toes. Ballet shoes should be skin tone as well.

Hair

Hair must be neat and pulled back out of the face in a bun, puff, or ponytail for all classes. Braids are not preferred but okay for class as long as it can fit in a secured bun or ponytail that is shoulder length. This prevents the distraction of slapping of the hair in face of oneself and others during instruction.

Female students must wear their hair swept back and up in a secured high bun for all major performances. Braids are not preferred but accepted for local outside community performances and dance engagements as long as the thickness of the braids allot a SECURED high bun THAT DOES NOT MOVE!!! No Exceptions.

Male students must wear their hair neat. Long hair must be secured back away from the face with little to no facial hair.

Panties should not be worn. Tights are the replacement of panties and must be worn at all times. If panties must be worn in any given month, the color should be skin tone or black, no designs, should not be seen, or distract the lines.

Students that are not properly dressed will be dismissed from class.

Leotards

In the Key of Dance is committed to providing a safe and supportive community that fosters a lifelong love for the arts. In order to guarantee that all of our dancers are able to best pursue their passion or recreational fun, IKD will not tolerate bullying in any form: physical, emotional, social, verbal, or written (electronically or in-person). As such, we have implemented a Zero Tolerance Bullying Policy applicable to our students, dance families, staff, and employees. This behavior is described as bullying if it physically or emotionally harms a dancer, targets a dancer for any actual or perceived characteristic, or creates a hostile environment in the dance studio.

We understand that the under reporting of bullying is the biggest hindrance to stopping further harassment. We have developed a form to file in case of bullying and the information should be sent directly to the studio's email address. A course of action will then be decided.

Since our goal is to empower people and embrace individuality. One documented bullying event will have repercussions-which could include immediate termination of enrollment for Bullying.

Please note, as per the policy above, IKD recognized that bullying does not just occur between students. Parents or guardians, who harass or speak ill of a student, another parent, or IKD staff member, will have repercussions, which may include suspension or termination of the student and possible legal action for the adult if their actions turn an incident into a physical altercation. There will be no refunds for such actions!

At IKD, respect and compassion are two of our core values. All dancers have the right to learn and develop their art in a positive, respectful environment.
