

Adventures in short-term rentals #1

Don't worry, you'll have a complaint line.

The Zoning & Regulatory Subcommittee has sent the Town Council short-term rental regulations that change residential zoning.

They allow Investors to flip homes in every residential district into makeshift hotels, open for business 365 days a year through Airbnb, Vrbo, or similar services, large parties and events okay.

And when Bluto and Flounder show up next door? Just call the answering service the Town is offering you. That'll work.

Get involved or get used to it.
