

Creepy. Airbnb now offers discounts on bugs that listen in on “home” renters.

After five people were shot dead at a Halloween house party, the Airbnb PR machine talked “party bans” and “rapid response teams.” Right. Okay.

Now, Airbnb has negotiated big discounts on internet-connected listening devices Minut (pictured above) as well as NoiseAware sensors and Roomonitor. Some Airbnb hosts already use hidden cameras (that’s super creepy).

We’ll see how Airbnb’s plan to bug houses cuts down on out-of-control parties, mayhem, and filming adult movies (yeah, that happens too, just Google it).

Get involved or get used to it.
