

If zoning doesn't matter anymore, how about "Wash Your Car In My Driveway"

How much could you make short-term renting your driveway in 30-minute increments? Drive-thrus charge $15-$20. Even on the low end, and your driveway could net you $7,500 per month — while you (wait for it...) do absolutely nothing!

Yes, the soap mixes with grime and grease in a toxic stew. But all that hose water will probably send it flowing to a nearby storm drain.

Barnstable's Zoning & Regulatory Committee sent the Town Council a short-term rental proposal that says investors can buy homes and run makeshift hotels 365 days a year. Your driveway should be cool.

Get involved or get used to it.
