PLAINTIFF'S MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR DEFAULT
SUMMARY JUDGMENT, WRIT OF MANDAMUS, AND OTHER RELIEF including
Admissible Victim Statement (2) 4000 stories

Introduction

Plaintiff, Christina Clement, HH Empress Queen Christina Clement respectfully submits this memorandum to highlight the egregious delays and apparent misconduct in the handling of this case, which have resulted in the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights. This memorandum seeks to address why the default summary judgment, writ of mandamus, and other reliefs have not been granted per rule of law and argues that the case appears to be handled under the color of law, thus warranting immediate judicial intervention under Title 53 State of Loc Nation Framework of the United States Code. The various Maroon treaties and ancestral participation in every war America was involved in provides the right to invoke protective laws for majority

I. Failure to Grant Default Summary Judgment/ Injunctive Relief

A. Defendants' Failure to Respond

Under Rule 55 (a)(b)(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, when a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to plead or otherwise defend, and that failure is shown by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk must enter the party's default. In this case, the Defendants have failed to respond within the time frame prescribed by the Court. In efforts to preserve the rule of law, the government and judges must adhere to the law without bias and prejudice. Has this been the case? Apart from various emails, phone calls to the defendants. An affidavit of service was entered into the courts showing various certified mailed receipts including mailings via amazon. I have also entered into the court proof that the mailings were refused. Case 1:24-cv-00479-RC Document 4 Filed 04/30/24 Page 1 of 6

B. Plaintiff's Entitlement to Default Judgment, Motion for Judgement

Plaintiff filed a motion for default judgment pursuant to Rule 55(b), demonstrating that the Defendants' failure to respond warrants a judgment by default. Despite this, the Court has not issued the default judgment. This inaction contradicts established legal procedures and infringes upon the Plaintiff's right to a timely resolution. Case 1:24 CV 00479-RC; File 25; File 14; file 11, File 10 and File 5

Rule 55 (a) (b) 2 (b) (C):

2 (a)(b) In Conducting the accounting of default judgement for max relief of the following:

- Restitution: $500 Quadrillion+. See exhibit B Response to Executive Order 2024-1 Population size is gathered from over 175+ identifying names within the census ie; mulatto, afro American, African American, afro Chinese, afro Mexican' native, aboriginal, loc Nationites and Rastafarians, mixed, Jamaican, Haitian, Diaspora African, Pan African, Afro Europeans, Afro Brazilians, Afro Caribbean, Afro Latinos, Indigenous Peoples of Asia, et al, Indigenous peoples of Latin America; Māori; First nations, et al totaling 1.4 trillion.

Given:

- Per person amount = $357,143

- Population = 1.4 trillion people

Total Fund = Per person amount \times Population

$$\text{Total Fund} = $357,143 \times 1,400,000,000,000$$

$$\text{Total Fund} = $499,999,999,999,840,000$$

Therefore, to maintain the per person amount of $357,143 for a population of 1.4 trillion people, the total fund required would be approximately $499.999 quadrillion (nearly $500 quadrillion).

I. Writ of Mandamus

A. Legal Standard for Writ of Mandamus

A writ of mandamus is an extraordinary remedy that compels a government official to perform a duty owed to the petitioner. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1651, the All Writs Act, federal courts have the authority to issue such writs. To obtain mandamus relief, a petitioner must demonstrate that: (1) they have a clear right to the relief sought; (2) the respondent has a clear duty to perform the act in question; and (3) no other adequate remedy is available. Ev v United States 7 m.j. 331

B. Entitlement to Mandamus Relief

Plaintiff has a clear right to a timely judicial decision on the motions filed. The Court has a duty to rule on these motions. The ongoing delay without reasonable justification effectively denies Plaintiff the ability to pursue other adequate remedies, thus mandating the issuance of a writ of mandamus to compel judicial action.

III. Violations of Constitutional Rights Under the Color of Law

A. Definition and Implications of Color of Law

Acts performed under the color of law involve the misuse of power possessed by virtue of law and made possible only because the wrongdoer is clothed with the authority of the state. These acts can result in significant violations of individual rights protected by the Constitution. Would you agree this delay is in direct conflict with the protections of the 4th amendment? And the new State of Loc Nation legal framework, Title 53 for equality for both Minority and majority parties. Case 1:24-cv-00479-RC Document 24 Filed 06/16/24 Page 1 of 11

B. Evidence of Handling Under the Color of Law

The handling of this case suggests potential bias and misuse of judicial authority. The failure to grant default judgment and writ of mandamus, despite clear procedural entitlements, indicates that the case is being improperly managed. This mismanagement under the color of law violates Plaintiff's due process and equal protection rights under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. As well as Title 53 under the State of Loc Nation majority party equal protection of law. Case 1:24-cv-00479-RC Document 24 Filed 06/16/24 Page 1 of 11

IV. Admissible Victim Statements

A. Excerpts from Victim Statements

Attached as Exhibit A are selected excerpts from victim impact statements recorded by over 4,000 individuals affected by Lynching, injustices, et al. These statements detail the profound harm and injustice suffered due to delays and mishandling of this case, underscoring the urgent need for judicial intervention and the overdue urgency of State of Loc Nation Majority party framework under Title 53. Case 1:24-cv-00479-RC Document 24 Filed 06/16/24 Page 1 of 11

B. Relevance to Plaintiff's Claims

The victim statements provide compelling evidence of the real-world consequences of the Defendants' actions, reinforcing Plaintiff's arguments regarding the urgency and necessity of granting default summary judgment, issuing a writ of mandamus, and rectifying the procedural violations alleged.

V. Enactment of Majority Laws Under Title 53; Case 1:24-cv-00479-RC Document 24 Filed 06/16/24 Page 1 of 11; Case 1:24-cv-00479-RC Document 26 Filed 06/20/24 Page 1

Is there a constitutional law for adding protections for majority party against the tyranny of the minority? No, the federalist papers #10 James Madison discusses the dangers of factionalism, yet the house and senate was chartered? The constitution does not directly address majority parties protections from the tyranny of the minority. In fact the very protections the constitution was created for has become the very monster to the afro, indigenous, aboriginal, loc nationites, and native communities by not practicing what it preaches. So how do one obtain relief while following the rule of law when the interpreters do not follow those same rules? Madisons suggestion of a diverse and extended republic can better protect against tyranny. I enact Title 53, State of Loc Nations legal framework to govern the majority from the tyranny of the minority, off of this gesture. According to Federalist NO 51 This enactment of State of Loc Nations Legal framework would in fact make an actual checks and balances and separation of powers to prevent the minority branch of government from being so powerful which resulted in millions of victim's stories to date. Which the constitutions original intent was and is to protect from any faction. Which the court is welcome to review the overwhelming amount of cases in discovery that have proven the lack of State of Loc Nation framework proved the fears of the forefathers to be accurate but just by the hands of the ones to be protected. It never pointed the protected would be the violator.

With the submission of State of Loc Nations population the given 435+ electors will balance both house in efforts to have a smooth transition of laws enacted and charters chartered. The scale of justice will finally be balanced and the we the people will now include all people.

A. Legal Framework of Title 53; Case 1:24-cv-00479-RC Document 24 Filed 06/16/24 Page 1 of

Title 53 of the United States Code will govern Majority Party and provide minority party a clear lawful guidance

B. Application to This Case

The principles enshrined in Title 53 underscore the importance of lawful conduct and the protection of individual rights. The Court's failure to act per established rules and procedures necessitates invoking these broader protections to ensure justice is served.

Enforcement of 26th amendment

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court:

1. Grant the motion for default summary judgment.
2. Issue a writ of mandamus compelling the Court to rule on the pending motions and provide timely judicial action.
3. Recognize the mishandling of this case under the color of law and take appropriate remedial measures to safeguard Plaintiff's constitutional rights. So I don't miss pivotal dates of the 2024 Presidential election, including but not limited to the June 27th Presidential debate and the election in November 2024. MAYOR BRANDON JOHNSON SIGNS HISTORIC EXECUTIVE ORDER
TO LAUNCH BLACK REPARATIONS TASK FORCE AND AGENDA

Task Force will conduct a comprehensive study and examination of all policies that have harmed Black Chicagoans from the slavery era to present day and make a series of recommendations that will serve as appropriate remedies.

CHICAGO – Ahead of Juneteenth, Mayor Brandon Johnson signed Executive Order 2024-1, establishing a Reparations Task Force to develop a Black Reparations Agenda. This Task Force is an example of the Administration's dedication to co-governance, and in partnership with members of the Aldermanic Black Caucus, the Mayor's offices of Equity and Racial Justice and Business, Economic and Neighborhood Development, and other key City departments, will conduct a comprehensive study and examination of all policies that have harmed Black Chicagoans from the slavery era to present day and make a series of recommendations that will serve as appropriate remedies.

"Today's Executive Order is not just a public declaration; it is a pledge to shape the future of our city by confronting the legacy of inequity that has plagued Chicago for far too long," said Mayor Brandon Johnson. "In partnership with the Chicago City Council Black Caucus and our dedicated allies, we are continuing to build on the bedrock of my administration to move forward in reconciliation through targeted investments aimed at rectifying decades of deliberate disinvestment in Black neighborhoods and communities.

"These decisive actions move us beyond words and are a testament to my administration taking on the responsibility of this work. Thank you to all for your unwavering dedication that has brought us to this pivotal moment toward a more just and equitable Chicago for all."

Within the Executive Order, Mayor Johnson acknowledges the legacy of chattel slavery and Jim Crow laws as incompatible with the values and principles recognized in the City of Chicago's Equity Statement of Principles – a city where there is fair and just access to opportunity and resources that provide everyone with the ability to thrive – and issues an apology on behalf of the City of Chicago for the historical wrongs committed against Black Chicagoans and their ancestors who have and continue to bear injustices.

“As an Alderwoman, I have remained steadfast in our city making progress wherever possible on reparations, and I am proud that we are taking concrete action rather than just engaging in discourse,” said 16th Ward Alderwoman Stephanie D. Coleman. “Today is a major step forward, and I am thankful to the Johnson Administration for its continued support and commitment to addressing the deep wounds inflicted by centuries of injustice against the Black community. We will not be ashamed of who we are, and what we have overcome.”

The legacy of slavery and its aftermath echoes, even today, and the executive order names the cumulative impact the legal institution of slavery, Jim Crow laws, and other discriminatory practices upheld by public and private institutions has had on Black Chicagoans, which include disparities in life expectancy, unemployment, homeownership rates, home value, incarceration, and more.

Executive Order 2024-1 will establish a Task Force to support the strategy, implementation, and engagement of a Chicago Black Reparations Agenda. In partnership with the City of Chicago and Aldermanic Black Caucus, the Task Force will carry out the following:

- Create a City of Chicago definition and framework for reparations.
- Develop educational tools to build capacity within the City of Chicago and the public for reparations
- Identify core issue areas for redress and reparative action – for example, housing, economic development, health, education, community safety, mass incarceration and over-policing, and more.
- Conduct a comprehensive study and examination of all policies that have harmed Black Chicagoans from slavery era to present day.
- Hold public hearings and a broader community engagement strategy to gather testimonials and personal narratives from Black people with lived experience of their harm.
- Makes a series of recommendations that will serve as appropriate remedies and restitution for past injustices and present harm consistent with international standards.
- Recommends appropriate ways to educate the Chicago public on the report.
- Identifies connections to existing City of Chicago reparative policies and programs.

This declaration follows Mayor Johnson’s $500,000 investment towards studying Reparations and Restoration committed in the City’s 2024 fiscal year budget.

These conflicts highlight the global presence and contributions of black individuals in military operations and peacekeeping efforts around the world.

Yet, we still have to fight in court and by law enforcement to be respected? There is no constitutional laws that protect the “majority” from the tyrant minority thus resulting in an exhaustive number of years of injustices. See Claims and other motions in Case 1:24 cv 00479 Clement vs Garland. Even in my effort to obtain solutions, I was ignored by all parties said to be a representative for 1 year and a half, and still no answer to date. My certified mail was also refused. I then had the challenge to submit my complaint to the District Court for an entry for judgement, Court rules state the press will be notified for all Summary judgment cases. That did not happen. I filed to campaign for President as an Independent party and the number of signature requirements were dramatically different and biased. I was met with lengthy case time and intentional clerical errors.

I have declared State of Loc Nation the Hyper Power to the United States Superpower. These wars would not have been won nor the position of America not be achieved without our forefathers' contribution. It is so written. I have submitted our Defacto/Dejure and all other documents needed. 1:24 cv 00479-RC

A Grateful Acknowledgment: The Impact of Christina Clement's Campaign Goals for the Loc Nationite: African American: Aboriginal Communities

Introduction:

In the realm of American politics, the impact of presidential campaigns often reverberates across various communities, shaping policies and influencing lives. This Act of Congress serves as an overdue relief for the community Christina Clement represents, recognizing the positive aspects of her campaign goals and their beneficial outcomes for the Loc Nationite: African American: Aboriginal Communities.

Acknowledging Economic Empowerment:

One notable aspect of Christina Clement's campaign is her emphasis on economic growth and job creation. The administration's commitment to fostering a robust economy will bring about tangible benefits for the Loc Nationite; African American; and Aboriginal Communities. This move will yield Historic low unemployment rates among the Loc Nationite; African American; and Aboriginal Communities demonstrating a substantial leap toward economic empowerment and increased financial stability for not just our community but all communities.

Criminal Justice Reform:

Christina Clement's dedication to criminal justice reform marks a significant departure from the status quo. The passage of the State of Loc Nation Act exemplifies a bipartisan effort to address issues plaguing the criminal justice system, particularly its disproportionate impact on Loc nationalities; Aboriginals and African Americans. The implementation of fairer sentencing policies and rehabilitation programs; such as "Fast and Pray" as well as "Educate and Leave" reflected a commitment to rectifying systemic injustices.

Opportunities in Education:

Presidential Candidate Christina Clement's advocacy for school choice and access to quality education resonated positively with the Loc Nationite; Aboriginal and African American communities. By prioritizing educational opportunities, the administration aimed to bridge gaps and empower the next generation with the tools and hands on learning necessary for success. This commitment aligned with the aspirations of many American families seeking improved educational prospects. Visiting nursing homes so the children can obtain elder advice, knowledge and wisdom. Enacting mental health courses, 1st year law, tech courses, and immediate drug reform. Be it enacted, music, culture, art, public speaking and debate back in school curriculum. Loc Nationite, Aboriginal and African American history and culture to also be taught with honor and nobility. We can not demand taxes to pay school costs and not teach all history.

Community Engagement and Empowerment:

The "Letters Patent" unveiled by HH Empress Queen Christina Clement's administration further underscored a commitment to the well-being of the Loc Nationite; African American; Aboriginal communities. This comprehensive initiative aimed to foster economic prosperity, educational opportunities, and improved healthcare, thereby contributing to overall community empowerment. Enacting all fast-food chains and any entity serving unhealthy food to the citizens must be taxed and fund the GAP Medical Insurance to cover citizens medical costs. All alcohol establishments must pay tax to fund the communities it serves; in community trust; always remaining a 10% holding and 10% towards the national debt. Boosting the economy of State of Loc Nation with the prayer for relief and remedy will also repair the national deficit and balance the economy for all communities.

Conclusion:

While political perspectives may vary, it is crucial to acknowledge and appreciate the positive impact of policies on different communities. President Christina Clement of State of Loc Nation's campaign goals, particularly those benefiting the Loc Nationite; Aboriginal and African American communities, have made a major imprint. Recognizing these efforts is not only a gesture of gratitude but also an invitation for continued dialogue and collaboration to address the challenges that persist. As we reflect on the past, let us strive for a future where political endeavors consistently uplift and empower all communities, fostering a more inclusive and prosperous nation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (1) the Obligated is authorized and directed to pay, out of any and all money for the payment of all relief and remedy for the 470 years of genocide and illegal kidnapping and theft of aboriginal land. Payment to be made to State of Loc Nation

Trust and Pro se litigant fees for the 5 year research, prep and expenses of the work done by President Candidate Christina Clement and all prayer for relief, redress, remedy, and restitution.

Legal Recognition

The United Nations has recognized the distinct identities and rights of Afro-descendant communities through the International Decade for People of African Descent (2015-2024), emphasizing the need for recognition, justice, and development. Furthermore, various nations have implemented legal frameworks to support the rights and autonomy of Afro-descendant communities:

Brazil's 1988 Constitution: Recognizes the rights of Quilombola communities, granting them collective land ownership and cultural preservation.

Colombia's Law 70 of 1993: Acknowledges the rights of Afro-Colombians to their collective territories and cultural heritage.

Ecuador's 2008 Constitution: Ensures the rights of Afro-Ecuadorians to maintain their cultural identity, traditions, and land.

Canada's Emancipation Day: Recognized federally since 2021, Emancipation Day marks the abolition of slavery in the British Empire, acknowledging the contributions and history of Afro-Canadians.

United Kingdom's Race Relations Act 1965 and Subsequent Amendments: These laws were among the first to address racial discrimination, setting a legal framework that acknowledged the rights and protections needed for Afro-descendants and other racial minorities.

Costa Rica's Constitutional Reforms: In 2015, Costa Rica amended its constitution to officially recognize the Afro-Costa Rican population and their cultural contributions.

Peru's Law No. 28761: Enacted in 2006, this law declares June 4th as the Day of Afro-Peruvian Culture, recognizing the contributions of Afro-Peruvians to the nation's history and culture.

Mexico's Constitutional Amendment: In 2019, Mexico amended its constitution to recognize Afro-Mexicans as a distinct ethnic group, granting them greater visibility and protection under the law.

Uruguay's Law No. 19122: Enacted in 2013, this law promotes the inclusion of Afro-Uruguayans in the workforce and mandates affirmative action measures to address historical disadvantages.

Dominican Republic's Recognition of Afro-Dominican Identity: Efforts to address and acknowledge the Afro-Dominican population have been ongoing, including cultural recognition and anti-discrimination measures.

Argentina's National Institute Against Discrimination, Xenophobia, and Racism (INADI): This institute works to promote equal rights and combat discrimination, including that faced by Afro-Argentines.

Venezuela's Law Against Racial Discrimination (2011): This law specifically aims to prevent and punish racial discrimination, with provisions to protect the rights of Afro-Venezuelans.

Bolivia's Constitutional Recognition: Bolivia's 2009 Constitution acknowledges Afro-Bolivians as a distinct group with rights to their cultural identity and collective territories.
