Clerk, U.S. District & Bankruptcy
Court for the District of Columbia

Dear Judge Rudolph Contreras,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to respectfully request your consideration and ruling on the pending motion in case 1:24-cv-00479-RC, which has been fully briefed and awaiting a decision for over 60 days. As stipulated by Section 4(G) of the individual practices in civil cases for the U.S. District Court, it is my duty to alert the court when a motion remains undecided beyond this timeframe.

The prolonged delay in the decision on this motion has significant implications for the plaintiff, whose right to a prompt and fair adjudication is a cornerstone of our judicial system. The administrative procedures of our courts are designed to ensure timely justice, and undue delays can inadvertently cause substantial prejudice to the parties involved.

The United States Constitution guarantees the right to a fair trial and due process under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. This foundational principle is reinforced by the Federal Judiciary Act and the All Writs Act, 28 U.S. Code § 1651, which empower courts to issue necessary or appropriate writs in aid of their respective jurisdictions. Additionally, the precedent set by Marbury v. Madison underscores the imperative that courts must ensure the enforcement of legal rights, emphasizing that "the very essence of civil liberty certainly consists in the right of every individual to claim the protection of the laws whenever he receives an injury."

In light of these legal standards and the potential adverse impact of further delays, I respectfully urge the court to expedite the ruling on the pending motion. The timely resolution of this matter is crucial to uphold the integrity of our judicial process and ensure that justice is both served and perceived to be served.

I trust in your commitment to justice and thank you for your attention to this important matter. I remain hopeful for a prompt and favorable decision.

Respectfully,

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Should the Court require any further information or documentation, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully submitted, Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Rev. Dr. Christina Clement, Presidential Candidate of the US 2024
