

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

---

CHRISTINA CLEMENT and

HH EMPRESS QUEEN CHRISTINA LOCS IS OUR ARTIFACT OF FAITH

Plaintiff,

v.

Attorney General Merrick Garland, in his capacity, et al

Defendant,

Civil No: 24-cv-00479-RC

Motion for Default Judgment Pursuant to Rule 55 of the District Court of Columbia

I, REV. DR. CHRISTINA CLEMENT, the plaintiff in the above-captioned case, hereby submit this Motion for Default Judgment pursuant to Rule 55 of the District Court of Columbia.

On various dates included in the Affidavit of Service, I filed a complaint against the defendant(s) in this matter. The defendant(s), despite being properly served with the complaint and summons, has failed to file an answer or otherwise respond to the allegations within the time prescribed by law. As of the date of this motion, the defendant has not made any appearance or communicated any intent to defend against the claims asserted in the complaint. See The second mailing to AG Garland was on 7/15/2024. (See ECF 40) The date now is 8/21/2024.

Rule 55 of the District Court of Columbia provides a clear procedure for obtaining a default judgment when a defendant fails to plead or otherwise defend an action. Pursuant to Rule 55(a), a party may request entry of default when the opposing party has failed to plead or otherwise defend as provided by the rules. Herein, the defendant has failed to plead or defend against the claims asserted in the complaint within the time provided by law since 2023 and to date.

Clerk, U.S. District & Bankruptcy
Court for the District of Columbia

Furthermore, Rule 55(b) allows the court to enter a default judgment against a party who has been properly served with the summons and complaint and has failed to plead or otherwise defend. The rule further states that, upon application by the plaintiff, supported by an affidavit showing the defendant's failure to appear or otherwise defend, the court may enter a default judgment.

I respectfully request that the court enter a default judgment against the defendant in this case, based on their failure to plead or otherwise defend against the allegations set forth in the complaint. I have attached an affidavit attesting to the defendant's failure to respond or appear in this matter, as required by Rule 55(b).

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the court enter a default judgment in my favor, granting the relief sought in the complaint, Bill of Cost and Settlement.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Rev. Dr. Christina Clement, Presidential Candidate of the US 2024
