Dear Mr. Cohen and my Nassau County Retiree Friends,

So one of the best experiences of campaigning last year for the New York State Senate, and this year for the Nassau County Legislature, has been meeting so many wonderful people.

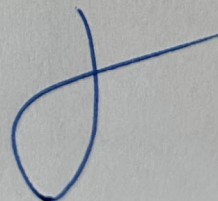

These include retired Nassau County Employees who alerted me to a very difficult situation regarding County Executive Bruce Blakeman. They explained Mr. Blakeman has reneged on the terms of previous contracts for Nassau County Retirees.

As the proud son of two New York City Employees who were served admirably by the City of New York in their retirement, I certainly understand how our County Retirees need Financial and Insurance Support. It was originally part of your contract.

Mr. Blakeman, don't renege! It's a sign of poor character.

I stand with all of you and expect when I win my campaign to become a Nassau County Legislature, I will be a voice for all of you.

Sincerely,
