

TRAINING BASED ON REAL EXPERIENCE

Meet Corey Lowery, the found of 132 Canine Solutions. More than just a dog trainer, Corey is a dedicated husband, a father of three, and a prior Law Enforcement Officer with over a decade of experience in K9 training and handling.

A PASSION BORN FROM EXPERIENCE

Corey's passion for dogs ignited in October 2017 following a life-altering event. During his recovery, his loyal companion, Gauge, provided emotional support. This profound experience inspired Corey to dedicate his life to helping others discover the incredible bond and therapeutic benefits that dogs offer. He deeply understands the human-animal bond and its potential for healing and growth.

Driven by this newfound purpose, Corey immersed himself in the study of dog behavior. He sought to understand the root causes of unwanted behaviors and develop effective, humane training strategies that foster a deeper connection between dogs and their owners.

EXPERTISE AND DEDICATION

Corey's expertise extends beyond pet dog training. He has a proven track record of successfully training police K9 teams, equipping them with the skills and knowledge necessary for critical law enforcement operations. Now, he is focused on sharing his knowledge and experience with you, teaching the value and understanding of dog behavior to create fulfilling relationships.
