

Partner Agency Referral Form

Turnaround West Midlands support sex workers living and working in Coventry. We work with our clients to safeguard them from the harms associated with the sex industry and help them make positive changes to their lives. These changes could include, reducing or exiting sex work, accessing stable housing, reducing substance misuse, accessing benefits and education, training or alternative employment.

If you think someone you are working with would benefit from some additional support, please complete the short referral form below and send via e-mail to : victoria@turnaroundwestmidlands.co.uk
