Please join us on April 12th, 2022 at Noonan's Event Center in Aurora, for the Chapter 6 Meeting and Social, commencing at 6pm with a dinner and a presentation from Mr. Koller regarding valuation of personal property, equipment and machinery.

David Koller
Managing Director
Cushman & Wakefield

Speaker Spotlight David Koller

Mr. Koller is the national practice lead for machinery & equipment valuation and the co-lead for the government practice, too. He has extensive industry experience valuing equipment utilized in: agriculture, asphalt and concrete, automotive, banks, broadcast and communications, chemicals, data centers, energy, entertainment, food production, foundries, general manufacturing, healthcare, hospitality, injection molding, Internet infrastructure, life sciences, medical device, metal working, packaging, paper, petroleum, pharmaceutical, plastics, restaurants, steel service, and telecommunications.

He has been active in the appraisal industry since 1998, and specializes in the allocation of purchase price, insurance valuation, fresh start accounting, lease and collateral evaluation, litigation support, and property tax analysis. Mr. Koller began his career focusing in appraisal, end of lease transactions, and asset management for equipment leasing and financing institutions.
