

Email: Debrajd@strategicsiteselection.com

Language spoken: English, Bengali, Hindi, Marathi, Urdu and Punjabi

From kickstarting his hospitality career overseas to driving growth across three continents, Debraj Dutta brings a truly global lens to every opportunity he touches. With hands-on experience across the UK, India, and Canada, he has cultivated a career built on strong partnerships, market insight, and a people-first approach to client success.

Debraj's extensive background in hospitality—from working at the Radisson Blu in London to the Fairmont Chateau Lake Louise and the Howard Johnson (formerly Ramada)—gives him a unique edge. He understands the industry from both the buyer's and seller's perspectives, making him a strategic connector who bridges needs with solutions seamlessly.

What truly sets Debraj apart is his authenticity. He leads with trust, builds with intention, and believes that real conversations lay the groundwork for extraordinary results. Clients and colleagues alike describe him as someone who listens intently, thinks creatively, and always comes to the table ready to help.

Beyond the business world, Debraj is passionate about cooking and music. Whether experimenting with new recipes or playing guitar, he brings the same thoughtful, collaborative spirit to his hobbies as he does to his work—uniting people through shared experiences. One of the most meaningful compliments he's received is, "You make people feel like they matter." It perfectly captures the values that shape who he is, both personally and professionally.