Client Reviews

February 2024

"I cannot say enough good things about how your team was able to support me with the planning of this event. I am extremely busy at this time of the year, and planning our annual sales meeting is always very stressful with the added work. The Strategic Site Selection team was able to take on all the heavy lifting with quoting multiple options and negotiating the final contract. We came in under budget, without any compromise on the overall experience. The Pillar and Post was the perfect location choice for our team. The rooms were very nice, the food was incredible, and the facility was warm and inviting. The meeting space was the perfect size for our team and very well equipped. The Inn staff were attentive and very easy to work with. This was such a great experience, and I am so pleased. I can not wait to start the planning for our next event with you and the Strategic Site Selection team".

Thanks

“

I wanted to thank you for the efforts your team put forward at our East Meets West event. They are total professionals, very enjoyable to work with, and I know I can speak for Mukti when I say, "thank you all so much!". I take comfort knowing Sandbox is a resource available to NAEMA should we become resource challenged again. You guys really did a great job for us!
