Our Story

On the Rise Bar-B-Que & Catering started after our passion for authentic barbecue was becoming hard to find locally and the owner David Gerhart loved serving others amazing food that warms the soul! David has partnered with a fellow BBQ enthusiast and foodie, Aaron Wilson to bring this dream alive. Aaron and David share a kindred spirit for barbecue and the desire to foster a community of possibility and growth.

The passion poured into every bite of our signature smoked meats and sides will make you feel the love each team member has for their talent, craft, and community. Since 2020, our staff has served the community through public and private events. Everyone is welcome at our table. With our mission to serve others, we utilize our delicious food as our vehicle to give back to causes that align with our vision and beliefs. Thank you for your continued support, which has allowed us to give back to many worthy local groups and organizations that serve our community.
