As we replace the everyday with everything you want. As our white-sand beaches and turquoise waters connect you to relaxation while reconnecting you with family, friends or that special someone.

Whether it's your first time or one of many, visiting Gulf Shores and Orange Beach is a tradition in the making. New visitors come to love us, while generations come back for more.

Gulf Shores and Orange Beach will always be known for welcoming beaches, family fun and fresh seafood. But we're also proud to show off what's new in dining, attractions, shopping and experiences. No matter when you visit, it's always a good time in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach.

Don't miss it!

Know Before You Go

YOUR FIRST STOP ALONG THE JOURNEY TO COASTAL ALABAMA?
HINT: IT'S NOT THE BEACH.

It is our own personal welcome, and it's waiting at our Welcome Centers. With convenient locations in both Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, our centers are stocked with everything you'll need to navigate this beachy paradise, from maps, brochures and flyers to visitor guides and coupon books, not to mention restrooms and water stations.

Meanwhile, sparkling outdoor water features make great settings for selfies and group photos. At the Gulf Shores Welcome Center, your images are enhanced by sculpted dolphins leaping across the fountain's bubbling waters.

Our centers were designed with you in mind. Coastal-inspired artwork and sculpture—created by local artists and reflecting the blues and greens of the Gulf—complement comfy, casual chairs where you can relax while reviewing brochures or waiting for companions. For those with sensory issues, both Welcome Centers offer headphones and fidget spinners, as well as quiet places to rest and reboot.

On hand to offer advice and answer questions is a staff of friendly, knowledgeable vacation specialists who can point the way toward your best experiences on the Gulf. Get a head start by texting them your questions, or by engaging the chat bot on our website and finding us on social media.

WAYS TO CONNECT

Our vacation specialists would like nothing better than to meet you personally, but you can get a jump on your intel by texting them at 800-745-SAND, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on weekends. You'll also enjoy personalized cyber attention from the chat bot on our website, GulfShores.com, which is standing by to take your questions. Or find us on social, including TikTok (@visitalabamabeaches), for some high-energy musical clips highlighting our beaches, shops, restaurants and attractions.

H₂OH!

On the water is the way to go in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. Motorboat or sail your way on the largest gulf in the world, paddle serene inland waterways or enjoy total immersion in the waves with swimming, snorkeling and diving.

Boating is a Pleasure

Once that boat goes into the water, it's a different world. Leave dry land, and your cares, behind as you skim the waves toward the horizon or inland toward the Intracoastal Canal and bays. There are rental boats for every water adventure style in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, from pontoons to sailboats and thrilling Jet Skis.

Head for the deepest water on a fishing charter or stay close to shore to encounter playful dolphins. If your style tends toward chilling in the warmth with a tropical drink in hand, our tiki bar boats and hammock boats will gladly take the wheel while you relax on the waves.

If you BYOBoat, you'll find multiple launch points along with a host of marinas to accommodate and service your vessel, not to mention captains available for half and full days, freeing you up to relax and watch the waves go by.

MEALTIME IS NO REASON TO ABANDON YOUR BOAT.

DOLPHIN DAYS They swim beside your boat. They jump across your wake. They may even click or whistle at you. They're bottlenose dolphins—the most common species in the Gulf—and you'll see them when you go on dolphin cruises throughout Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. Dolphin cruising makes a great family outing. Young kids will thrill at the frolicking dolphins, while older kids and adults will appreciate the educational narration from boat captains.

PADDLE ON Picture-perfect vistas and animal encounters wait for you in the cypress swamps and freshwater lakes of the Coastal Alabama Back Bay Blueway, whose winding waterways surround Gulf Shores, Orange Beach and Fort Morgan. Four distinct trails highlight different aquatic regions, all with launches and parking. Canoe, kayak and SUP rentals are plentiful, including clear, glowing kayaks for nighttime adventures.

RENTAL CENTRAL If you're looking for watercraft rentals, launch points for fishing charters and sightseeing cruises, or services and dockage for your own boat, the marinas in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach are totally shipshape. Fuel up, fix up and stock up on snacks, bait and tackle for a day on the water, then come back to on-site restaurants and entertainment (check individual marinas).

IT'S A DATE

Romantic sunset cruises, nighttime kayaking and even cat boats built for two... beach and water activities in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach speak the language of love. Let our blog kindle some ideas.

WHAT LIES BENEATH Beneath the waves in Coastal Alabama is the largest artificial reef system in the U.S., created from decommissioned ships, tanks, bridges, man-made structures and other equipment now serving as home sweet home to an underwater world of creatures. Whether you're a seasoned diver or a complete novice, local dive operators can help you head down under with equipment rentals and dive lessons. Closer to shore, experience the underwater view as you snorkel.

OFFSHORE BOATING SAFETY

Whether you've been boating for years or are just getting your feet wet, please put safety first whenever you are boating along the Alabama Gulf Coast.

1. Follow Your Rental Company's Recommendations

Most companies have knowledgeable staff on-site who can give you a quick course in boating safety, so listen closely and follow all your rental company's recommendations while on the water.

2. Don't Overlook Life Jackets

By law, all boats must carry a U.S. Coast Guard-approved life vest for every person on board. Passengers under the age of eight must always wear a life jacket, but it's best for everyone on board to do the same.

3. Map Your Marinas

You should always fill up before heading out, but it's equally important to map your nearby marinas to be sure you know where to head in an emergency.

4. Watch the Weather

Be sure to check the weather before you go boating and stay at the dock if a storm is approaching. Gulf waters can go from calm to chaotic in a matter of seconds with pop-up storms.

5. Don't Pack on Passengers

Most boats have a capacity plate affixed to the hull that displays the maximum load limit and number of passengers, so be sure to find and follow it.

6. Don't Boat and Booze

It's illegal to operate a boat while under the influence of alcohol, and even first-time offenders can face steep penalties.

7. Catch a Crash Course

If possible, take a boating safety course before you cast off. A variety of fast and friendly online courses cover everything from navigation tips to emergency situations and more.

8. Keep an Emergency Kit

THE BEST BEACH VACATION IS A SAFE ONE!

Gulf waters can be very dangerous. Surf conditions can overwhelm even the best swimmer. We want to ensure the vacation memories you take home are happy ones. Please take time to review the following information ahead of your visit and while you are here.

CHECK WEATHER AND SURF CONDITIONS DAILY

Text "ALBEACHES" to "888777" to sign up for daily surf conditions text alerts. Text "STOP" to opt out of notifications upon your departure.

- Gulf Shores: 251-968-SURF
- Orange Beach: 251-981-SURF
- Online: VisitALBeaches.com/Safety

KNOW YOUR LIMITATIONS

- Learn to swim; non-swimmers should stay out of the water
- Don't overestimate your swimming ability
- Don't rely on inner tubes, floats or other inflatable toys
- Use Coast Guard-approved life jackets
- Designate a water-watcher and supervise children closely
- Never swim alone

KNOW AND HEED THE BEACH WARNING FLAGS

Yellow: Moderate surf and/or currents

Purple: Dangerous marine life

Red: High surf and/or strong currents

Double Red: Water closed to the public

SWIM NEAR A LIFEGUARD

- Lifeguards are stationed seasonally at all public beaches in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach (March through September)
- Currently, no lifeguard protection is available in the Fort Morgan area

LEARN HOW TO ESCAPE A RIP CURRENT

Rip currents are powerful currents of water moving away from shore. They can sweep even the strongest swimmer away from shore.

- If caught in a rip current, remain calm
- Escape the current by swimming parallel to the shoreline
- When free of the current, swim at an angle—away from the current—toward shore
- Float or tread water if unable to escape by swimming
- If unable to reach shore, draw attention to yourself by facing the shore and calling or waving for help
- See our important rip current video: VisitALBeaches.com/Safety

KNOW WHAT TO DO IF SOMEONE ELSE IS IN DANGER

- First, CALL 9-1-1
- Seek help from a lifeguard; if no lifeguard is present, yell instructions on how to escape the current
- Throw the victim something that floats
- Don't attempt to perform a rescue as you could also get caught in the current

PARK AND GO

Award-winning Gulf State Park takes the beach and makes it even better with a nature center, freshwater swimming and paddling, a butterfly garden and more than 28 miles of hiking and biking trails.

The park's Fishing and Education Pier includes a retail store, shaded seating and wheelchair-accessible sightseeing and fishing spots. Learn more about the nature of the park with daily educational programs conducted by park naturalists.

Gulf State Park Pavilion offers air-conditioned restrooms, private showers and plenty of shade. Learn more about its amenities and features, plus those at other public beach access points at GulfShores.com/things-to-do/beaches.

TRAIL WAYS

From Gulf State Park's 28-mile Hugh S. Branyon Backcountry Trail—composed of 15 different trails through nine ecosystems—to the six-mile Fort Morgan Trail, you'll find trails galore for hiking, biking, Segway riding and strolling, with complete special-needs accessibility to match anyone's pace or requirements.

Didn't bring your bike? Gulf State Park has a bike-sharing program allowing visitors to use one of 50 bicycles free of charge, up to three hours and only within the Park, with a nominal charge for longer.

Set your sights. The Alabama Coastal Birding Trail features six loops and more than 50 sites.

CLASS ACTION

Gulf State Park may be about fun in the sun but also keeps you in the loop about its natural and cultural heritage, both explored at the park's state-of-the-art Learning Campus. Sustainably designed and operated, the campus includes indoor and outdoor classrooms, a laboratory, and even dining and accommodations.

Also part of the Park experience is a beachfront Interpretive Center, built from indigenous materials and highlighting coastal habitats. There's a Nature Center, too, located inside the campground area—showcasing wildlife in the Gulf Coast region. Meanwhile, stay tuned for the 2024 opening of the Gulf Coast Eco Center near Gulf State Park, featuring Jean-Michel Cousteau's Ambassadors of the Environment Program (already under way).

GETTING FRESH

the closest of its kind to the salty Gulf and offers boat ramps, kayak rentals, fishing and trail access, along with family-friendly amenities like a playground and picnic area. It's also dog-friendly, welcoming pups to their own dog park.

SAFE HARBOR

A sanctuary for native flora and fauna, Bon Secour National Wildlife Refuge lives up to its name—French for “safe harbor”—by sheltering some of Alabama's last remaining undisturbed coastal barrier habitat as well as the wildlife inhabiting its pine-oak woodlands. Visitors enjoy trail walks and quiet strolls among the dunes, not to mention world-class birding opportunities.

SANDY SERENITY

In addition to their beauty, the white-sand beaches of Gulf Shores and Orange Beach have a therapeutic quality discovered by yoga buffs and anyone taking a long walk along the shore. Join them.

A BIRD'S-EYE VIEW

It's not only visitors who love Gulf Shores and Orange Beach; birds love it here, too. At any given moment, you might see raptors like eagles or osprey, along with countless shorebirds and pelicans. In spring and fall, Coastal Alabama is an important stop for migrating species, while in winter, we welcome "snowbirds" to descend on our sands.

Bird lovers gather together at the annual Alabama Coastal Birdfest each fall. For more info, check out our birding blog.

ENJOY OUR BEACHES

With more than a dozen beach access points in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, you can enjoy miles of pristine white quartz sand washed by blue-green Gulf waters.

There will be no lifeguards on duty on public beaches from October through February. During this time, beach patrol and response will be limited. Always check the beach flags and surf conditions before entering the water, and never swim alone.

Help keep Alabama's beaches pristine by practicing responsible tourism and following beach rules and regulations.

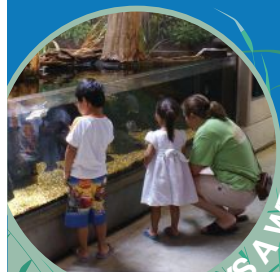

Parking kiosks are now in place at most beaches. For those looking for wheelchair-accessible beach access points, there are three beach mats located at Gulf Place and one located at Cotton Bayou.

FEAST

YOUR EYES ON THIS

With a location on the Gulf, seafood is often the order of the day in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. But there's much more to tempt your taste buds here, from savory steaks to veggie delights. Dress up or down, indoors or out, bring the kids or get a romantic table for two. Your style is our pleasure.

FRESH FROM THE GULF

Variety is the spice of our coastal cuisine, from seafood and steak to burgers and barbecue, with international and veggie options also in the mouthwatering mix.

Seafood aficionados know fish isn't supposed to taste "fishy," and the freshest seafood doesn't.

Uncompromising freshness is what you're going to get in our seafood restaurants. That, and the creative preparation and presentations of our chefs.

Shrimp, oysters, crab, flounder, snapper and grouper—they all make the short trip from local waters right onto local menus and are the most delicious sea specialties you've ever tasted. Served with fries or risotto, sautéed, blackened, bronzed or grilled—the choice is up to your appetite.

There are po'boys with crunchy fried shrimp overflowing their toasted buns. Seafood towers of crab, Gulf shrimp and lobster tail served with every imaginable sauce. Pan-seared scallops glazed with sherry and crawfish tails prepared with a Cajun kick. Along with all that, a "must-try" for visitors is Southern-style shrimp and grits, the grits fragrant with smoked cheddar and the shrimp bathed in rich Creole tomato gravy.

Take fresh to the next level by having a local restaurant cook your catch. And, of course, every eatery also offers seafood prepared with your child's palate in mind, including that perennial request, fish and chips.

INSIGHTS

Cocktail Hour

The words “Mexican restaurant” might bring icy margaritas to mind—just one of many great cocktail choices to accompany your meal or to sip by the beach. Indulgent bushwackers are a local tradition, while creative craft cocktails are the latest trend at area bars and clubs.

The Sweet Spot

We hope all your dinners end with dessert in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. But don't forget to pop in at one of our many ice cream and sweet shops for cones, rolled ice cream, creamy shakes and handmade chocolates.

BEEFING IT UP

What's surf without a little turf? Our thoughts exactly. Meat lovers, rejoice, because it's always steak season in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. Restaurants and steakhouses here serve hand-cut USDA prime-grade aged beef tenderloin, with classic potato dishes as well as creative sides like wild mushroom hash with blue cheese and truffle oil. Meanwhile, people flip over burgers of every size and style in local eateries, from the all-American Angus double patty with lettuce, tomato and pickles to gourmet burgers topped with things like peanut butter bacon jam, creamy Carolina aioli, brie cheese, and mushroom demi-glace.

BEST IN BARBECUE

You smell it before you taste it—that unmistakable sweet, smoky aroma of good barbecue. Barbecue is a delicious tradition in the South, and in southernmost Alabama, it's essential. Pull up a chair and put on a bib for saucy, tender ribs, brisket, pork, wings and anything else the chef feels like throwing in the smoker, including sausage and turkey.

GLOBAL FARE

For cuisine with an international flair, you'll find filling Italian specialties like homemade lasagna and manicotti, but look for the casual beachy influences—pizza and oyster joints, Italian-style bagel sandwiches and dishes like the “Good Vibrations” veggie pizza. Mexican restaurants are plentiful here as well, while on the lighter side, fresh and authentic sushi is a staple menu item in many eateries.

For some, the culinary fun of a beach vacation is diving into as much fresh seafood as possible. For others, vacations are guilt-free and meant for ooey-goey cheeseburgers, decadent desserts and boozy milkshakes. For both camps, we've plotted eight amazing food trails on our website. From gumbo to bread pudding, oysters to bushwackers, follow along or mix and match.

LOVE IT LIKE A LOCAL

From Southern-fried favorites to pizza and po'boys, check out 12 places where the locals go for the best food and drink in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach.

THE DINING IS FINE

Whether it's date night, a special occasion—or if you're just in the mood to dress up and enjoy a night on the town—these restaurants fit the bill deliciously.

APPETITE FOR THE OUTDOORS

Dining alfresco, whether with a beach or canal view, is magical here on the Alabama coast. The views at these restaurants are as good as the food.

Saying "I Do" at the Beach

Romance is in the air in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, carried in on every Gulf breeze.

Our beautiful white-sand beaches and turquoise waters make the perfect setting for laid-back coastal weddings. Our local businesses are ready to help complete the experience. From bakeries and restaurants to photographers and florists, you can plan your dream walk down the aisle. Or look to our local wedding planners for guidance. And don't forget about the lodging for yourself and your guests.

We're delighted to be part of your happily ever after.

GulfShores.com/plan/weddings

FUN IN THE SUN AND SHADE

Put the beach on pause to give yourself and your family time to play in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. Our amazing variety of things to do spans the great outdoors—including great fishing and golf—indoor games and attractions, animal encounters and historical treasures.

These are a few of our favorite things (to do).

THE INSIDERS

If you're looking for more than tan lines on your vacation or just taking advantage of a rainy day, there are indoor adventures galore in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. Get rid of stress and take it out on an innocent wooden board during axe throwing. It's like darts, except with axes and purpose-built spaces for safety.

Then it's man vs. machine at arcades featuring state-of-the-art consoles and interactive games like laser tag and Bazooka ball. Virtual reality simulators transport you to new worlds and mind-bending environments.

The action is jumping at an indoor trampoline park, also featuring dodgeball, a 30-foot rock-climbing wall, and a ninja obstacle course. If sinking putts is more your speed, try indoor mini-golf, including a course with animatronic dinosaurs. Or collaborate with friends and family to solve riddles and find a way out of our escape rooms.

Don't let the word "museum" make the kids lose interest – our selfie museum will keep them (and you) cool on social media with plenty of different immersive, attention-getting backgrounds.

CREATURE FEATURES

Turn your visit to Coastal Alabama into an animal safari at the award-winning Alabama Gulf Coast Zoo, set on 25 acres and home to 199 species—including eight that are endangered—as well as unforgettable animal encounters and demonstrations.

Native birds and wildlife are the focus at Gulf State Park's Nature Center, which offers guided nature walks, pier walks and educational programs featuring owls, turtles, alligators, snakes and more. Meanwhile, the park's nine ecosystems are explored via interactive exhibits at the Interpretive Center.

Don't miss the official reptile of the South at Alligator Alley, home to more than 600 gators in their preferred environment—the swamp. An elevated boardwalk and viewing platform keep you at a safe distance.

FRIENDLY COMPETITION

Let your competitive spirit loose and face the speed, curves and spins of go-kart racing. Venues in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach feature various levels for different ages, including kiddie karts and rookie tracks, as well as multi-level courses.

Or see who can get a hole-in-one first at our challenging but whimsically themed mini-golf courses featuring everything from pirates to an erupting volcano.

Then head to the shore and Sand Castle University, teaching all ages and skill levels the unique art of sandcastle building.

MAKING A SPLASH

All of Gulf Shores and Orange Beach is a buoyant water world, but 20 acres of pure fun are set aside at Waterville USA, with thrilling slides like the six-lane Dune Racer and the Flowrider, where riders can stand-up surf or bodyboard.

Scattered throughout area parks and playgrounds are refreshing splash pads, spraying jets of water that kids love running through.

COOL AND UNUSUAL

The tried and true keeps people coming back to Gulf Shores and Orange Beach year after year. But there are some off-the-beaten-path treasures you might want to try.

Life-size dinosaurs, anyone?

GO FISH

As the saying goes, any day spent fishing is a good day. And good news! The fish are biting all year long on the Alabama Gulf Coast, including inshore options like the waters of Mobile Bay and Little Lagoon.

The signature fish of the Gulf, red snapper, is protected during the off-season, making this a sought-after prize in summer, so if snapper is the goal, be sure to book your charter early. Those angling for big game will be heading out to deeper waters in search of species such as yellowfin tuna, mahi mahi, wahoo, sailfish and marlin. It might even be a multi-day effort, but experienced captains can help you find the most rewarding spots.

Speaking of which, marinas with boat rentals and fishing charters line the coastline in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. Book a full or half day (or longer) just for your group or share with others. First-timers are always welcome. Your day on the waves, challenging the denizens of the deep, will be unforgettable.

GOLF SWINGS ON THE GULF

Beautifully inventive and technically challenging, the golf courses in Coastal Alabama were designed by some of the greats of the game—including the state's only Arnold Palmer Signature Design Courses—while nature created the gorgeous surroundings you'll enjoy when you tee off here.

Whether golf is part of your vacation or all of it, you'll find a range of options, from 18-hole championship courses to executive courses and driving ranges. Expert instructors with PGA and/or LPGA experience are on hand to help you perfect a shot or maybe get started for the first time. There are learning programs for every level.

Our courses are a convenient distance from each other as well as area lodging. Ask about stay-and-play packages catering to every budget and number of players, with special packages available for business outings or the ultimate guys' weekend. Visit CoastalAlabamaGolf.com/packages for more information.

Golfing on the Alabama Gulf Coast

With 15 courses to play, all an easy drive from the beach, you can enjoy a round or two on your next family vacation. Or plan a dedicated golf trip to experience as many rounds as you can. Travel writer and golf enthusiast Chris Boothman shares tips in these blogs.

5 REASONS TO PLAY GOLF IN THE FALL

Chris really loves fall golf in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach for the cooler temps and the great deals available from local courses. He's particularly fond of ending a Craft Farms round with a beautiful autumn sunset.

DRAWN TO THE COAST

So many things about Gulf Shores and Orange Beach will surprise and delight you, and here's one more: It's a lively center for the arts.

Immerse yourself in the local art scene at the Coastal Arts Center of Orange Beach, whose multi-studio campus showcases works by Gulf Coast artists while giving visitors a chance to get hands-on at an on-site clay studio along with Alabama's premier hot glass blowing shop.

Artistic engagement is also the goal at the Gulf Coast Arts Alliance in Gulf Shores, which represents more than 50 artists in its gallery and gift shop. The Alliance also hosts several art markets throughout the year.

All the world's a stage to the South Baldwin Community Theatre, debuting a host of genres every year, including musicals, young artist productions and Shakespearean plays. Local talent shines during dance and theater performances at the Orange Beach Performing Arts Center.

WE'RE HISTORY

Behind the modern face of the charming vacation duo of Gulf Shores and Orange Beach is a fascinating history spanning the island's earliest days through the antebellum and Civil War eras—remembered at Fort Morgan—and the development of its fishing industry.

The region's fishing heritage is recalled at the Orange Beach History Museum, along with the area's rich Native American history. Heading north, it's all aboard for fun at the Foley Railroad Museum and Model Train Exhibit. Or go for early healthcare oddities at the Holmes Medical Museum. Look for heritage homes throughout the Gulf Coast area, each telling the story of the early families who lived there. From Mobile to points east, the region's military history comes alive at USS Alabama Battleship Memorial Park on Mobile Bay, while nearby Pensacola is home to the Pensacola Lighthouse and the awe-inspiring National Naval Aviation Museum as well as the renowned Blue Angels, based at NAS Pensacola.

Museums highlighting the uniqueness of the Gulf region include the Gulf Coast Exploreum Science Center and GulfQuest/National Maritime Museum of the Gulf of Mexico, both in Mobile, and the Alabama Aquarium on Dauphin Island.

RAIN, RAIN, IT'S OKAY

Part of the great indoors in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, artistic and cultural venues will enhance your appreciation for Coastal Alabama while also providing welcome diversions during inclement weather. Visit our blog for rainy day ideas.

CHEAP AND FREE THINGS TO DO

FUN ON A BUDGET

On any vacation, it doesn't hurt to save here and there so you can really splurge later. But no matter how you're budgeting, we want you to spend time, not necessarily money, having a great time here.

In addition to being family-friendly, Gulf Shores and Orange Beach are budget-friendly. Take a look at what you can do at low or no cost.

CHEAP(ER) THRILLS

Mini-golf offers maximum excitement as groups engage in a little friendly competition at about $5-$12 per person. Colorful themes and on-site snack bars and arcades offer a full day or night of fun at affordable prices. Or head over to The Wharf entertainment and shopping district in Orange Beach, where Ferris wheel rides are just $8 a person, and free live music is frequent.

If you're fishing for a bargain, skip the charter boats and drop your line at the Gulf State Park Fishing and Education Pier, where fees for fishing permits and equipment are nominal, and a snack window keeps dining costs down.

Follow in the footsteps of history for just $8 per adult and $5 for kids ages 6-18 at Fort Morgan, which has presided over Mobile Bay since 1834 and was active during four wars: the Civil War, Spanish-American War, World War I and World War II.

FREE FOR ALL

The best things in life are free, and that's certainly true in the beach destination of Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, where white sands and turquoise waters come free of charge, and abundant sunshine and glorious sunsets are thrown in at no extra charge.

The beautiful Gulf State Park can be enjoyed with a bike-share program offering free rentals for those who want to cycle along 28 miles of paved trails through lush natural landscapes. Also guided nature, beach and pier walks.

Explore local art and history at no cost, starting at the Coastal Arts Center, where you can browse the work of local artists or watch glass-blowing and pottery demonstrations. Meanwhile, admission is free at two museums showcasing local history: the Orange Beach History Museum and the Gulf Shores Museum.

STAY & MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME

STAY YOUR WAY

A variety of lodging options are at your service when you visit Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, from vacation rentals and hotels to campgrounds and RV parks. Unlike iffy booking sites, direct booking supports our local lodging businesses while giving you more personal attention. Ask about pets—they're welcome at plenty of places—and make sure you book early to get your top pick. Enjoy your stay!

CHOICE LODGING

Pick your preference when you visit Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. With their multi-room layouts, kitchens and laundry facilities, vacation rentals like beach homes and condos are perfect for families or friends traveling together, or anyone planning a longer stay and needing more space.

Hotels and resorts in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach range from budget brands to moderate all-suite properties and more upscale choices, with amenities ranging from complimentary breakfasts and free Wi-Fi to extensive on-site leisure options, including barbecue areas, pools, hot tubs and fitness centers.

You may also opt for the grace and charm of a B&B or surround yourself with nature at cabins and campgrounds throughout the area, including local parks.

While no pets are allowed on the beaches, many accommodations do welcome dogs. Please confirm when booking your stay.

OFF-SEASON IS ON TARGET

With apologies to the Northeast and Midwest, we rarely see temperatures dip below 40 degrees during the winter in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. Our fall weather is basically a comfy continuation of summer, while spring is warm and wonderful.

So why not head south when your fall and winter temperatures are doing the same? Off-season rates are lower while availability is higher, golf courses and attractions are less crowded, and waiting for a restaurant table is so last summer. An added bonus are the many events scheduled in fall and winter, from food fests to art exhibits and live local music.

IS WAITING

BE DIRECT WHEN BOOKING

Direct booking is your best bet when making reservations in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach. We're old-school here when it comes to relationships. We appreciate them and reward them with extra attention and service. Before you even arrive, we consider ourselves a partner in your vacation, and we'll be there to assist should any issues arise. You're simply not going to get that with an anonymous booking engine.

We love our natural beauty here in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach.
And we know you do as well. Please join us in protecting our beaches and wildlife while you are here.

LEAVE ONLY FOOTPRINTS

Do Not Walk on Sand Dunes

Sand dunes act as barriers to protect against high waves and storm surges and are a vital part of the natural habitat.

Recycling

Recycle and use reusable products.

Remove All Belongings From the Beach Each Day

Remove all belongings by sunset each day. Any items left before sunrise or after sunset will be discarded by beach patrol.

Keep Pets Off The Beach

While pets are welcome at many places in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach, they are prohibited from our beaches.

Do Not Dig Large Holes in Sand

If you dig a hole, fill it before you leave.

SHARE THE BEACH

Do Not Disturb Sea Turtles or Nests

If you encounter a sea turtle nest, keep your distance and don't bother it.

Do Not Disturb Marine Wildlife

It's important to realize that human contact can cause trauma and disrupts their natural behaviors.

Avoid Using Bright Lights at Night

Avoid flashlights or flash photography at night, as the light can disorient turtles. Stop by our Welcome Centers to get stickers to cover your flashlight.

Getting Here

Whether you arrive by  or even  , getting here and getting around in Gulf Shores and Orange Beach is easy.

With convenient airport options in Pensacola, Mobile and Gulf Shores, you can fly in direct from many locations or with connections from pretty much anywhere.

For a drive in, you'll most likely be traveling on Interstate 65 or 10. I-65 brings visitors from the north to our white-sand beaches. I-10 delivers those traveling from the east and west.

Once you arrive in Baldwin County, Highway 59 and Foley Beach Express will both bring you south across the Intracoastal Canal. And then you're here!

Toll Bridge

The Foley Beach Express includes a toll gate at the Intracoastal Canal. Visitors can pay with each crossing, or for longer stays, consider an extended pass for savings and convenience.

Mobile Bay Ferry

The western point of the Fort Morgan peninsula and the eastern point of Dauphin Island are serviced by HMS Ferries. The schedule is available at mobilebayferry.com.

It's Time To Reconnect

A getaway from the hustle and bustle to The Lodge at Gulf State Park reconnects you with your loved ones. As a family, you can discover not only our 6,150-acre State Park, but also our two-and-a-half miles of sugar white sand and emerald green waters on Alabama's Gulf Coast. Enjoy a meal from one of our four on-site dining outlets, and when you return to your rooms, you'll appreciate the elevated comfort and Southern hospitality this full-service hotel has to offer.

Come see why people take a break from busy life and head to the place Where Connection Comes Naturally™.
