MICHELLE UETZ

DIRECTOR & PROVIDER, M.ED.
CERTIFIED PARENT PEER SPECIALIST

LIVED EXPERIENCE

I lost my sister to suicide. She had struggled with bipolar, borderline personality disorder, depression, and anxiety. She was also a survivor of domestic violence that left her partially paralyzed in 2014.

My husband and I took guardianship of my cousin's girls from the Appalachia area in 2016. We quickly learned that we were not as equipped as we thought to manage their trauma and mental health needs. We experienced the shame, blame, and isolation that parents often experience when they have children with complex behaviors and needs.
