Be Part of the Music for Years to Come

WHY GIVE?

Founded in 1957, the Rockingham Choral Society is dedicated to excellence in choral performance and to enriching the cultural life of our community. Remembering the Rockingham Choral Society in your will, trust, or estate planning, including life insurance or retirement accounts—is a meaningful way to ensure that the chorus continues to share inspiring music, foster community, and provide singers of all backgrounds the opportunity to perform for generations to come.

HOW TO GIVE

There are many ways to make a planned gift to the Rockingham Choral Society, including:

- Bequests stated in your will or trust
- Retirement plans by naming the Rockingham Choral Society as a beneficiary
- Life insurance policies naming the Rockingham Choral Society as a beneficiary

Please consult your financial advisor or attorney to determine what type of planned gift is right for you.
