

Westie Sounds

West Highland White Terrier Club of Puget Sound — Spring 2022

President's Message

From Jeannette Melchior

Ready! Set! It's a Go! The rescheduled "I Love Westies Party" is coming up on April 9th. At last, we can move forward and get together with our wonderful Westies and catch up with our Westie friends. Sadly, the Celtic Kennel at the Scottish Highland Games in Enumclaw will not be held this year. This event starts organizing in January and by this late date it just cannot be done. We were hoping for this event in which the general public gets to visit and meet our wonderful breed along with all our other Celtic cousins, but Covid and its variants have ruined several fairs and holiday gatherings as the timelines for organizing could not be met. As possibilities develop and we are able to put activities together, we will. If you have any suggestions, let us know.

With so many of us spending time in front of the TV this past year have you noticed how many times a Westie will pop up on the screen? I was surprised. Of course, the Caesar commercials are a given. I've noticed Westies in different places: news, British films, crowds of folks – and poof! I see a Westie head, tail or a retreating rear and you know it's a Westie. Just an observation, but really have you unexpectedly seen them too?

The WHWTCOPS Designated Specialty will be held at the 2023 Winter dog show next year in Puyallup. We will dedicate this show to Sharon Newsom in the show's catalog and at our booth.

Looking forward to visiting with you and seeing all those wonderful Westies in April.

Jeannette

In Memoriam

Sharon Newsom

February 17, 1944 - March 2, 2022

I first met Sharon at Sandy Davis's home where she was picking up her new male pup, Ronan. I had come over to pick up my new boy, McDougal, from the same litter. This was in 2010. What fun in comparing and cooing over our new baby Westies. Later we would put in many days and hours at Sandy Davis's, learning to hand strip for a show coat, working and training these boys to go in the ring, and attending classes for showing. The road trips, arriving and preparing for a show, then at the end of the day settling the dogs and getting ready for the next day. Exhausting work, but what fun and lovely memories.

Sharon's boy finished, and thus began her kennel of Kyleakin. During all this time Sharon was a member of the WHWTCOPS. First volunteering and joining the Board as a Director, then moving on to Secretary of the club, where she served until 2021. Sharon assisted with the plans of the many educational seminars, walks, and fun events that make up the calendar year while keeping up with the Secretarial duties of the club.

If you met or remember Sharon from an event or as a breeder of Westies, you were instantly welcomed and charmed. But for myself and a few others, Sharon was a close friend, a friend that we were lucky enough to have as part of our lives.

Sharon's Celebration of Life gathering will be on May 22, from 3-5 pm held at Ivar's Salmon House in Seattle. A formal announcement will follow as details become firm.

Westie Grooming: Hand Stripping Resources

Grooming show dogs requires hand-stripping, and for most pet owners it seems like a daunting task. If you are interested in learning how to do hand stripping, there are several excellent videos and books available online.

An internet search for “how to do hand stripping for terriers” returns a healthy list of resources, some free and others for purchase.

Online videos can be especially helpful, and one suggested videographer is Celso Mollo, professional photographer and Westie fancier located in Ontario, Canada. You can view and subscribe to his YouTube instructional videos at:

VINTAGE WESTIE BOOKS by Cyndee Lockwood

	Our Friend the West Highland Edited by Rowland Johns, First Edition 1935, Second Edition 1947. A great little book just packed with historical information about the breed. From the very origin of the breed, the character, buying of puppies, grooming and show, kenneling and even dog law. Just fascinating if you are a Westie lover.
	The West Highland White Terrier Barbara Hands "Boz", First Edition 1977, Great Britain. Barbara Hands is an accomplished Westie breeder and a superb Westie artist. This gem of a book, although small, contains more information about grooming and care than you will ever need. The pictures are fabulous and again show you what a Westie should* look like. [From Cyndee: Please note the picture. In my opinion, this is how a Westie should look. There is a move by many to make Westie heads look like dandelions (round like a Bichon) which is rather unnatural, does not show the ears well or the bone of the head. Westie heads are beautiful and should show their eyes, ears, short snout, and personality.]
	Terriers of Scotland & Ireland Bryan Cummin, Ph.D. First Edition 2003. Nifty book about all the Scottish/Irish Terriers. If you are a Westie lover, you really should familiarize yourself with all their relatives. Read a little about a lot of dogs and then go to a dog show and really enjoy what you have read about. All these books are from my personal collection, and if you look on the internet or in used book stores you may be able to find them.

COLLECTIBLE WESTIE SCULPTURES by Cyndee Lockwood

The Westie Duo is by Guiseppe Armani and titled: "Westies," #732S, and sells for $295 new. I found mine on eBay for considerably less. Shop around if you like this sort of thing. The piece is 7" L x 5-1/2" H x 2-1/2" W; base is 7-1/2" L by 5" W. There are new pieces in the market place, however, I do not know if they are still in production.

The large Westie is from Intrada of Italy. It is heavy porcelain. The dog is 15" Tall x 11-1/2" Long x 5-1/2" Wide. You can find them from time to time on the internet (eBay, Esty, etc.). I found mine at an auction or you can go directly to intradaitaly.com and buy one. The cost is $165. Still very much in production.
