

Motion Sickness:

Signs of Motion Sickness:

- Inactivity, listlessness or uneasiness
- Yawning
- Excessive drooling
- Smacking or licking lips
- Whining
- The ultimate - vomiting

Remedies for Motion Sickness:

- Fresh air
- Looking forward towards the bow of the boat
- Limited food before traveling
- Anti-nausea drugs like dramamine can be given to your pup. Check with your veterinarian for recommended dosage
- Antihistamines such as Benadryl work for motion sickness
- Prescription medications are available from your veterinarian
- Organic calming pills or oils may also help your paw mate

We encourage you to do your research to find the best remedy for your paw mate. †

(Please note that the club does not promote any products or receive any type of compensation from third parties)
