The Plot of our Theme

the 1942 Movie Classic "Casablanca":

In December 1941, American expatriate Rick Blaine owns an upscale nightclub and gambling den in Casablanca. "Rick's Café Américain" attracts a varied clientele, including Vichy French and German officials, refugees desperate to reach the still-neutral United States, and those who prey on them. Although Rick professes to be neutral in all matters, he ran guns to Ethiopia during its war with Italy and fought on the Loyalist side in the Spanish Civil War.

Petty crook Ugarte boasts to Rick of "letters of transit" obtained by murdering two German couriers. The papers allow the bearers to travel freely around German-controlled Europe and to neutral Portugal and are priceless to the refugees stranded in Casablanca. Ugarte plans to sell them at the club, and asks Rick to hold them. Before he can meet his contact, Ugarte is arrested by the local police under the command of Captain Louis Renault, the unabashedly corrupt Vichy prefect of police. Ugarte dies in custody without revealing that he entrusted the letters to Rick.

Then the reason for Rick's bitterness — former lover Ilsa Lund — enters his establishment. Spotting Rick's friend and house pianist, Sam, Ilsa asks him to play "As Time Goes By." Rick storms over, furious that Sam disobeyed his order never to perform that song, and is stunned to see Ilsa. She is accompanied by her husband, Victor Laszlo, a renowned fugitive Czech Resistance leader. They need the letters to escape to America to continue his work. German Major Strasser has come to Casablanca to see that Laszlo fails.

When Laszlo makes inquiries, Ferrari, a major underworld figure and Rick's friendly business rival, divulges his suspicion that Rick has the letters. Privately, Rick refuses to sell at any price, telling Laszlo to ask his wife the reason. They are interrupted when Strasser leads a group of officers in singing "Die Wacht am Rhein" ("The Watch on the Rhine"). Laszlo orders the house band to play "La Marseillaise". When the band looks to Rick, he nods his head. Laszlo starts singing, alone at first, then patriotic fervor grips the crowd and everyone joins in, drowning out the Germans. Strasser has Renault close the club.

Ilsa confronts Rick in the deserted café. When he refuses to give her the letters, she threatens him with a gun, but then confesses that she still loves him. She explains that when they met and fell in love in Paris in 1940, she believed her husband had been killed attempting to escape from a concentration camp. While preparing to flee with Rick from the imminent fall of the city to the German army, she learned Laszlo was alive and in hiding. She left Rick without explanation to nurse her sick husband. Rick's bitterness dissolves. He agrees to help, letting her believe she will stay with him when Laszlo leaves. When Laszlo unexpectedly shows up, having narrowly escaped a police raid on a Resistance meeting, Rick has waiter Carl spirit Ilsa away. Laszlo, aware of Rick's love for Ilsa, tries to persuade him to use the letters to take her to safety.

When the police arrest Laszlo on a minor, trumped-up charge, Rick persuades Renault to release him by promising to set him up for a much more serious crime: possession of the letters. To allay Renault's suspicions, Rick explains that he and Ilsa will be leaving for America.

When Renault tries to arrest Laszlo as arranged, Rick forces him at gunpoint to assist in their escape. At the last moment, Rick makes Ilsa board the plane to Lisbon with Laszlo, telling her that she would regret it if she stayed — "Maybe not today, maybe not tomorrow, but soon and for the rest of your life." Strasser, tipped off by Renault, drives up alone. Rick shoots him when he tries to intervene. When policemen arrive, Renault pauses, then orders them to "round up the usual suspects." He suggests to Rick that they join the Free French in Brazzaville. As they walk away into the fog, Rick says,

Rick: "Louis, I think this is the beginning of a beautiful friendship".

Rosé & Blanc de Noir's

Rosé is a type of wine made from red wine grapes, produced in a similar manner to red wine, but with reduced time fermenting with grape skins. This reduced skin contact gives rosé a pink hue and lighter flavour than that of red wine.

Darling Cellars - De-Alcoholised - Rosé – (Darling – West Coast)	295
Great light salmon pink colour with ripe strawberries and sweet candyfloss on the nose following through to a balanced pallet with a lingering finish. Low in calories and vegan friendly.
Lourensford River Garden - Rosé – (Somerset West)	90 / 240
Flavours of sun-ripened strawberries and cotton candy. 50% Pinot Noir 50% Mourvèdre producing a fruity wine.
Haute Cabrière - Pinot Noir - Rosé – (Franschhoek)	95 / 250
Generous mouthfeel with a soft finish. Elegant, dry rosé with aromas of strawberries and rose petals.
Neethlingshof - Pinotage - Dry Rosé – (Stellenbosch)	265
Crisp, fresh dry wine with lively acidity with a flavour profile of strawberry, red plum, nectarine and a hint of candy floss on the palate.
Mulderbosch - Cabernet Sauvignon - Rosé – (Stellenbosch)	280
Subtle rose petal aromatics and a crisp mineral note that holds it all together nicely. Sweet-fruited Cabernet flavours and early picked natural acidity make for an intense palate that refreshes with each sip.
De Wetshof Lilya - Rosé – (Roberston)	290
Classic Cabernet Franc flavours of soft floral, spicy, redberry fruit. The floral aroma leads to a freshness on the palate showing notes of red berries, stone-fruit and plums, with a lingering undertone of light spice and honeycomb.
Waterford - Rose Mary – (Stellenbosch)	345
5 varietal blend of Shiraz, Merlot, Tempranillo, Sangiovese and Malbec. A lovely, dry and light rosé, low in alcohol.
Elgin Vintners Belle Amie - Merlot - Rosé – (Elgin)	395
Attractive pale salmon pink, elegant Merlot Rosé. Fresh strawberries, pomegranate, and summer red cherries on the nose will entice you to sip and further.

Chenin Blanc

Chenin Blanc is a white wine grape variety native to France's Loire Valley. The grape is notable for its versatility: it can be made into a wide variety of wine styles, including still and sparkling wines, and from bone dry to lusciously sweet. It's also the most grown grape variety in South Africa.

Stellenrust – (Franschhoek)	90 / 240
A beautiful fruit shows strong lime and some tropical fruit on the nose with a mineral palate of grapefruit and pear.
Kleine Zalze - Cellar Selection Bush Wine – (Stellenbosch)	265
Tropical and stone fruit flavours supported by a burst of citrus on the palate. Well integrated with amazing texture.
Môrelig - Wightman & Sons – (Swartland)	285
Natural chenin from old vines, aged 9 months in oak. Cut apple, orange and dried apricot with some potpourri and spice in the background. Broad on the palate with a savoury finish.
Badenhorst - Secateurs – (Swartland)	110 / 295
The aromas are rich with honey, orange blossom and white stone fruit notes. Generous on the palate, continuing with ripe citrus flavours, very fresh, with a hint of honey.
Cederberg – (Clanwilliam - Cederberg)	305
The palate offers soft, accessible acidity with a mouth-coating texture that mirrors the aromatics, creating a gentle 'halo effect' from the first encounter to the lingering clean finish.
Great Heart – (Swartland)	345
The palate has a full mouthfeel, typical of the Swartland, and this is balanced by a vibrant acidity and some pithy character. The finish is fresh and mineral.
Nederburg - Heritage Heroes "The Anchorman" – (Paarl)	495
Lively, rich and layered wine full of character. With apricots and oranges, flowers, raisins and spice.
Simonsig Langbult Steen - The Malan Family Collection – (Stellenbosch)	515
Old heritage vineyard – On the nose you pick up complex aromas of orange blossom, melon, dried apricot, and ginger spice. The first thing you notice on the palate is the tangy acidity that carries the flavours of white pear, lime and green apple. The wine has a beautiful minerality, but not without a light creamy texture from the lees contact in barrel.

Chardonnay

Chardonnay wines exhibit an aroma that reminds one of ripe grapes, particularly when young. They can be associated with the smell of figs or apples. A mature Chardonnay releases a butterscotch nose which will be confirmed on the palate.

Lourensford River Garden – (Somerset West) 95 / 240
Unwooded, lovely, dried peach and pineapple flavours with hints of melon and orange blossom on the nose.

Brampton – (Groot Drakenstein) 250
Unoked. Think Iron Maiden in a velvet glove. This wine packs a powerful fruit punch with pear, apple and winter melon, and an edge of zesty citrus – all lined with a creamy, complex mouthfeel.

Zonnebloem – (Stellenbosch) 255
Clear with hints of straw. Base of citrus with a burst of tangerine and lime. Elegant minerality with subtle vanilla oak spice and a lean, refreshing lime aftertaste. Lightly wooded.

Tokara – (Stellenbosch) 120 / 315
Fresh peach and marzipan with lightly toasted brioche, entry on the palate is vibrant with grapefruit and quince.

Jordan – (Stellenbosch) 375
A totally unique unoked offering that is defined partly by extended lees contact that develops mouthfeel and nuance in the wine. Aromas of freshly grated lemon zest and citrus orchard that finishes with flavours of apricot puree and lime sorbet.

Simonsig Cape Fox – (Stellenbosch) 395
Wonderfully expressive aromas of shade morals, lemon, pomelo and pink grapefruit, rounded off by other fruity nuances that contribute to the ageing in the wooden barrel.

De Wetshof Bon Vallon – (Robertson) 495
An unwooded wine, Bon Vallon has a brisk and clean freshness leading into a wide spectrum of classic flavours including citrus, wild flowers and grilled nuts, with a nuanced minerality on the aftertaste.

Joubert Tradauw – (Stellenbosch) 570
This wine is elegant and feminine with fynbos florals. Hints of toasted almonds, honey, and vanilla. Lively and full mouth Chardonnay fruit complemented by citrus burst on finish. 12 Months matured in Burgundy Barrels.

Meerlust – (Stellenbosch) 695
Complex, appealing nose with pear, citrus and floral notes developing into lemon cream, oatmeal, and marzipan richness. On the palate the wine is full-bodied & generous, but still sleek and balanced by crisp acidity.

Merlot

Excellent varietal wines are made from Merlot, which tend to be soft and full-bodied with their own character. Due to the softening and mellowing qualities it is the ideal variety to blend with Cabernet Sauvignon.

Durbanville Hills Premium – (Durbanville) 90 / 240
Medium to full-bodied wine with sweet fruits on palate, rounded off with silky tannins and a full mouth feel that has a prolonged after taste.

Lourensford River Garden Classique – (Somerset West) 250
Ripe, concentrated aromas of cherries, mulberries and plums with a hint of cigar box greet you on the nose.

Zonnebloem – (Stellenbosch) 295
An elegant medium- to full-bodied wine with delicate red fruit and well-integrated wood flavours. Perfectly balanced with accessible tannins.

Robert Alexander – (Stellenbosch) 115 / 335
Cherry garnet shine, very bright and juicy, with clean easy feel, pleasant fruit, and ripe finish.

Diemersdal – (Durbanville) 355
Beautiful ripe blackberry and dried fruit aromas along with spicy undertones. Hints of cedar wood, mint and spice flavours follow through on the palate.

Doolhof - Single Vineyard – (Wellington) 535
Full bodied and complex, aromas of blackberries, cassis, and ripe plums with whiffs of cedar. The palate is layered with plush fruit, dark chocolate and supported by firm tannins.

Hartenberg – (Stellenbosch) 580
Red fruit, dried plum and cranberries on the nose with hints of mint and dried herbs. Elegant palate with silky tannins and an elegant long finish.

These wines are highly coloured (Black Grapes) rich in flavour and tannins, Cabernet can be hard and unyielding in its youth, but in time develops a bouquet of cedar wood and blackcurrant.

Brampton – (Groot Drakenstein) 110 / 295
Deep defined flavours and incredible structure. Layers of red cherry, mulberry and blackcurrant are backed up ripe plum and cocoa on the nose, and luscious dark chocolate notes.

Anura – (Simonsberg / Paarl) 325
Plenty of dark fruit, plums, and black currant flavour characteristics. The oak contributes a spicy, toasty, cigar box character to the wines mid palate and finish. Supple, easily accessible tannins give this wine structure.

Warwick The First Lady – (Stellenbosch) 115 / 325
Deep dark fruits dominate with blackberry compote and black plum complemented with spicy aromatics of clove and cinnamon and a lovely hint of dried herb.

Meerhof – (Rheebokfontein) 345
Luscious aromas of ripe blackcurrant, plums and hints of dark mint chocolate. Double Gold Michelangelo.

Cederberg – (Clanwilliam) 550
High altitude Cabernet vineyards that have a longer ripening period give rise to this phenomenal wine. Loads of blackcurrants with cedar wood undertones on the nose with a hint of smokiness and tobacco leaf, creating a complex wine. Good integration of oak with a velvety finish on the palate. A prime example of a well-crafted South African Cabernet Sauvignon.

Cavalli – (Helderberg Region of Stellenbosch) 645
Notes of dark chocolate, fruit compote and black forest cake are followed by plum, cedar and vanilla on the palate. The wine is showing a fresh, elegant mid-palate with a robust tannin and elegant finish. 95 Points in Wine magazine.

Dalla Cia - Classico – (Stellenbosch) 665
Classico has an intense ruby colour and a gentle bouquet of sweet blueberry, cassis, cherry and a hint of spiced cedar-wood. On the palate it delivers a well-structured and velvety mouth feel with a soft, elegant, lingering aftertaste.

Thelema – (Helshoogte Pass) 695
Complex and stylish, with aromas of ripe blackcurrant, dark chocolate, and pencil shavings. This wine is bone dry yet exhibits a lovely sweet fruit character on the palate, with a lovely long finish.

The Pinot Noir grape is originated in the Burgundy (France) and has been one of the two classic grapes for Champagne (with Chardonnay). Good Pinot Noir is finely scented with sweet cherry, and becoming organic, damp autumn leaves.

Paul Cluver "Village" – (Elgin Valley) 375
Beautiful aromas of red fruits intermingle with roasted spices followed by a delicious, elegant silky palate of poached ripe plums resulting in a medium-bodied wine with soft edges.

Lourensford "Dome" – (Somerset West) 390
Aromas of fresh, ripe cherries with an undertone of well-used leather greet you on the nose. On the palate the wine has a silken texture and gamey complexity.

Haute Cabrière "Reserve" – (Franschhoek) 525
Enjoy red berries and cedar wood on the nose, with hints of truffle, sour cherries and spice on the palate.

Newton Johnson "Walker Bay" – (Hemel en Aarde) 545
Radiant red fruit of ripe cherries broadening into deeper blueberry and currants, perked up with rich baking spices. The palate is structured with fine, salivating tannins balanced with plump and silky red fruit flavour.

Elgin Vintners – (Elgin) 595
Plush aromas of red cherries, strawberries, some fine herbal notes and a hint of tobacco on the nose. Fruit forward, generous red cherries and a touch of earthiness follows on the palate. This wine reveals a complex and well-rounded mouthfeel with a persistent, lingering, and smooth finish. 5 star!

Red Blends

Winemakers blend grapes because it allows them, in a sense, to design a wine. A little Merlot can help soften Cabernet's tannins; a touch of Syrah can give some oomph to Pinot. In many regions, blending is traditional.

House Wine - Dry Red – (Stellenbosch) 80 / 205
Cabernet Sauvignon / Merlot blend by Nico van der Merwe

Lourensford River Garden - Cabernet / Merlot – (Somerset West) 235
A deep, dark red wine with blackcurrant & red berry flavours which include hints of roasted coffee bean & tobacco leaf. The palate is bold and refreshing with dark chocolate & fruitcake nuances and an earthy, spicy elegance on the finish.

Saxenburg Guinea Fowl – (Stellenbosch) 100 / 255
Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec, Cabernet Franc, Merlot. A deep, dark red wine abundance of dark fruit aromas like blackcurrant, plums, and crushed blueberries, supported by whiffs of freshly roasted coffee beans and dark chocolate. The palate is beautifully weighted, with a dense but finely grained tannin structure.

Delucius Simelia – (Voor Groenberg / Wellington) 305
Merlot 80%, Cabernet Sauvignon 20%. A well-balanced blend with fine structure and lingering after taste. The wine is characteristic of soft fruits with gentle, velvety tannins. Only 6500 bottles produced.

Hartenberg - Cabernet / Shiraz – (Stellenbosch) 120 / 335
An alluring blend of wild herbs and spices on the nose with hints of freshly picked dark fruits and berries on the palate, ending in a savoury finish. Ripe, soft tannins balance well with the lingering finish.

Montpellier Spyseniersberg "blue" – (Tulbagh) 345
Merlot, Cabernet, Petit Verdot blend, this full-bodied plum red wine abounds with red fruits, plum and rose petals. It is well balanced in both tannin and acidity adding a firm yet elegant mouth feel.

Cederberg - Merlot / Shiraz – (Cederberg) 345
A fantastic blend of 70% Merlot and 30% Shiraz. Sweet plums and blackcurrants from the merlot and cherries and spice from the shiraz. A wine that is very accessible and smooth with fruity flavours lingering on the palate.

Remhoogte Chronicle - Cape Blend – (Simonsberg) 395
Blackcurrent, cherries, anise, and white pepper. Juicy with broad, soft tannins and a bright acidity that brings freshness and length. A Syrah, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon & Pinotage blend.

Red Blends Premium Selection

Cavalli "Warlord" - Bordeaux Blend – (Helderberg Region of Stellenbosch) 670
Been crowned the best Bordeaux blend in South Africa at the Prescient Awards. A blend of Cabernet, Malbec and Petit Verdot, compelling aromatics of red and black berries, herbs, pencil shavings, vanilla and oak spice. The palate is medium bodied with long bright fruit and elegant tannins.

Lourensford Chrysalis – (Somerset West) 695
Aromas of concentrated ripe blackcurrants, blueberry fruit and cherries, olives, violets, tobacco leaf, cedar wood and a touch of Cape fynbos greet you on the nose. Big and bold, this wine has a dense palate which is structured yet explosive, bursting with upfront berry fruit flavours.

Boschendal "Black Angus" – (Franschhoek) 745
The Black Angus is named in homage to the cattle, and has a 66% Shiraz base, rounded off by Petit Verdot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. It's smooth and rich leading to sumptuous ripe mulberry, black cherry and cassis flavours etched with black pepper and oak spice on the palate. It is a taste immersion worth savouring.

Dalla Cia "Giorgio" – (Stellenbosch) 855
A masterful Bordeaux Style Blend, with hints of blueberries, cherries, violets, tobacco leaf and spiced cedar-wood bouquet. The mouthfeel is opulent with a generous lingering aftertaste.

Mas Nicolas – (Stellenbosch) 895
Nico v.d. Merwe's Flagship. Cabernet Sauvignon / Shiraz Blend. Classy with black cherry fruit and deeply veined tannins. consistently a 5 Star wine!
