The Plot of our Theme

“the 1942 Movie Classic “Casablanca”:

In December 1941, American expatriate Rick Blaine owns an upscale nightclub and gambling den in Casablanca. "Rick's Café Américain" attracts a varied clientele, including Vichy French and German officials, refugees desperate to reach the still-neutral United States, and those who prey on them. Although Rick professes to be neutral in all matters, he ran guns to Ethiopia during its war with Italy and fought on the Loyalist side in the Spanish Civil War.

Petty crook Ugarte boasts to Rick of "letters of transit" obtained by murdering two German couriers. The papers allow the bearers to travel freely around German-controlled Europe and to neutral Portugal and are priceless to the refugees stranded in Casablanca. Ugarte plans to sell them at the club, and asks Rick to hold them. Before he can meet his contact, Ugarte is arrested by the local police under the command of Captain Louis Renault, the unabashedly corrupt Vichy prefect of police. Ugarte dies in custody without revealing that he entrusted the letters to Rick.

Then the reason for Rick's bitterness—former lover Ilsa Lund—enters his establishment. Spotting Rick's friend and house pianist, Sam, Ilsa asks him to play "As Time Goes By." Rick storms over, furious that Sam disobeyed his order never to perform that song, and is stunned to see Ilsa. She is accompanied by her husband, Victor Laszlo, a renowned fugitive Czech Resistance leader. They need the letters to escape to America to continue his work. German Major Strasser has come to Casablanca to see that Laszlo fails.

When Laszlo makes inquiries, Ferrari, a major underworld figure and Rick's friendly business rival, divulges his suspicion that Rick has the letters. Privately, Rick refuses to sell at any price, telling Laszlo to ask his wife the reason. They are interrupted when Strasser leads a group of officers in singing "Die Wacht am Rhein" ("The Watch on the Rhine"). Laszlo orders the house band to play "La Marseillaise". When the band looks to Rick, he nods his head. Laszlo starts singing, alone at first, then patriotic fervour grips the crowd and everyone joins in, drowning out the Germans. Strasser has Renault close the club.

Ilsa confronts Rick in the deserted café. When he refuses to give her the letters, she threatens him with a gun, but then confesses that she still loves him. She explains that when they met and fell in love in Paris in 1940, she believed her husband had been killed attempting to escape from a concentration camp. While preparing to flee with Rick from the imminent fall of the city to the German army, she learned Laszlo was alive and in hiding. She left Rick without explanation to nurse her sick husband. Rick's bitterness dissolves. He agrees to help, letting her believe she will stay with him when Laszlo leaves. When Laszlo unexpectedly shows up, having narrowly escaped a police raid on a Resistance meeting, Rick has waiter Carl spirit Ilsa away. Laszlo, aware of Rick's love for Ilsa, tries to persuade him to use the letters to take her to safety.

When the police arrest Laszlo on a minor, trumped-up charge, Rick persuades Renault to release him by promising to set him up for a much more serious crime: possession of the letters. To allay Renault's suspicions, Rick explains that he and Ilsa will be leaving for America.

When Renault tries to arrest Laszlo as arranged, Rick forces him at gunpoint to assist in their escape. At the last moment, Rick makes Ilsa board the plane to Lisbon with Laszlo, telling her that she would regret it if she stayed—"Maybe not today, maybe not tomorrow, but soon and for the rest of your life." Strasser, tipped off by Renault, drives up alone. Rick shoots him when he tries to intervene. When policemen arrive, Renault pauses, then orders them to "round up the usual suspects." He suggests to Rick that they join the Free French in Brazzaville. As they walk away into the fog, Rick says,

Rick: "Louis, I think this is the beginning of a beautiful friendship".

Bubbly & Champagne

CC = Cap Classique - This is the method prescribed in the production of Champagne in which the all - important second fermentation takes place in the bottle.

Chenin Blanc

Chenin Blanc is a white wine grape variety native to France's Loire Valley. The grape is notable for its versatility: it can be made into a wide variety of wine styles, including still and sparkling wines, and from bone dry to lusciously sweet. Its also the most grown grape variety in South Africa.

Stellenrust – (Franschhoek)	85 / 240
A beautiful fruit shows strong lime and some tropical fruit on the nose with a mineral palate of grapefruit and pear.
Kleine Zalze - Cellar Selection Bush Wine – (Stellenbosch)	265
Tropical and stone fruit flavours supported by a burst of citrus on the palate. Well integrated with amazing texture.
Mörelig - Wightman &amp; Sons – (Swartland)	285
Natural chenin from old vines, aged 9 months in oak. Cut apple, orange and dried apricot with some potpourri and spice in the background. Broad on the palate with a savoury finish.
Badenhorst - Secateurs – (Swartland)	105 / 295
The aromas are rich with honey, orange blossom and white stone fruit notes. Generous on the palate, continuing with ripe citrus flavours, very fresh, with a hint of honey.
Cederberg – (Clanwilliam - Cederberg)	305
The palate offers soft, accessible acidity with a mouth-coating texture that mirrors the aromatics, creating a gentle 'halo effect' from the first encounter to the lingering clean finish
Great Heart – (Swartland)	345
The palate has a full mouthfeel, typical of the Swartland, and this is balanced by a vibrant acidity and some pithy character. The finish is fresh and minerally
Nederburg - Heritage Heroes "The Anchorman" – (Paarl)	495
Lively, rich and layered wine full of character. With apricots and oranges, flowers, raisins and spice.
Simonsig Langbult Steen - The Malan Family Collection – (Stellenbosch)	515
Old heritage vineyard - On the nose you pick up complex aromas of orange blossom, melon, dried apricot, and ginger spice. The first thing you notice on the palate is the tangy acidity that carries the flavours of white pear, lime and green apple. The wine has a beautiful minerality, but not without a light creamy texture from the lees contact in barrel.

White Varieties and Blends

House Wine - Dry White – (Stellenbosch) Sauvignon Blanc/Chenin Blanc by Nico van der Merwe	70 / 195
Buitenverwachting - Buiten Blanc – (Constantia) 85% Sauvignon Blanc, 10% Chenin Blanc, 5% Semillon, A Cape favourite, very flavourful blend	230
Pierre Jourdan – Tranquille – Classique – (Franschhoek) 60% Pinot Noir; 40% Chardonnay. The Pinot Noir portion of the blend lends our Tranquille the beautiful salmon colour. Leopard's Leap Culnaria Pinot Noir / Chardonnay – (Franschhoek) Well-defined structure, inviting bursts of pomegranate, fresh red berries and a lingering grapefruit palate.	325
Creation – Viognier (Hemel-en-Aarde) Joyful and vivacious with pertinent peach smuggling up to the secret subtleties of ripe pear.	365
De Grendel - Viognier – (Durbanville) Rich, intense aromas and tastes of white flowers, ripe fleshy peaches, apricots and desiccated pineapple followed through on the palate with an undertow of soft, buttery oak barrel flavours.	385
Idiom - Viognier – (Sir Lowry's Pass, Helderberg) Opulent, barrel fermented Viognier with a complex melange of passionfruit, nougat, and vanilla. This medium to full-bodied wine has an elegant, creamy mid palate followed by a lingering sensation of lime cordial and lavender.	395

Sauvignon Blanc

Sauvignon Blanc is a dry, crisp wine with aromas reminiscent of spices, straw, fresh cut lawn black currant or even gooseberries.

Lourensford River Garden – (Somerset West) Tropical fruit flavours of litchi, passion fruit, guava, and kiwifruit and a creamy finish on the pallet, makes this a delightful and balanced everyday wine	85 / 240
Durbanville Hills – (Durbanville) Full of tropical fruit, figs, lime, guava, and gooseberry and ends with a lingering freshness.	240
Vondeling – (Paarl) It Displays an aromatic kaleidoscope rich with perfumed peach blossom, white pear, passion fruit and lime. These wonderful aromas prevail on the palate with added guava, pineapple, potpourri, and a hint of nettle.	260
Diemersdal – (Durbanville) The distinctive aromas support a wonderfully balanced palate, presenting purity of ripe fruit, coupled with a lingering harmonious finish.	270
Hermanuspietersfontein Kaalvoet Meisie – (Hemel en Aarde) Epitomising the Soul of Sondagskloof. She kisses the earth with her feet. Known for her natural freshness and mouthfeel, she offers European minerality with nuances of fresh fynbos spice and green apple.	335
Neil Ellis Groenekloof – (Darling) Predominant flavours are those of tropical fruit with herb overtones, with a long flavoursome finish	345
Springfield Life from Stone – (Robertson) This is very much a food wine. The minerality is balanced with fruitiness and notes of red pepper and granadilla can be found on the nose and palate.	355
La Motte Pierneef – (Franschhoek) Aromas of citrus and passion fruit, green pepper and gooseberry. Finishes with a mineral-like quality.	380

Chardonnay

Chardonnay wines exhibit an aroma that reminds one of ripe grapes, particularly when young. They can be associated with the smell of figs or apples. A mature Chardonnay releases a butterscotch nose which will be confirmed on the palate.

Lourensford River Garden – (Somerset West)	90 / 240
Unwooded, lovely, dried peach and pineapple flavours with hints of melon and orange blossom on the nose
Brampton – (Groot Drakenstein)	250
Unoaked. Think Iron Maiden in a velvet glove. This wine packs a powerful fruit punch with pear, apple and winter melon, and an edge of zesty citrus – all lined with a creamy, complex mouthfeel.
Zonnebloem – (Stellenbosch)	255
Clear with hints of straw. Base of citrus with a burst of tangerine and lime. Elegant minerality with subtle vanilla oak spice and a lean, refreshing lime aftertaste. Lightly wooded.
Tokara – (Stellenbosch)	110 / 315
Fresh peach and marzipan with lightly toasted brioche, entry on the palate is vibrant with grapefruit and quince.
Jordan – (Stellenbosch)	375
A totally unique unoaked offering that is defined partly by extended lees contact that develops mouthfeel and nuance in the wine. Aromas of freshly grated lemon zest and citrus orchard that finishes with flavours of apricot puree and lime sorbet.
Simonsig Cape Fox – (Stellenbosch)	395
Wonderfully expressive aromas of shade morals, lemon, pomelo and pink grapefruit, rounded off by other fruity nuances that contribute to the ageing in the wooden barrel.
De Wetshof Bon Vallon – (Robertson)	495
An unwooded wine, Bon Vallon has a brisk and clean freshness leading into a wide spectrum of classic flavours including citrus, wild flowers and grilled nuts, with a nuanced minerality on the aftertaste.
Joubert Tradauw – (Stellenbosch)	570
This wine is elegant and feminine with fynbos florals. Hints of toasted almonds, honey, and vanilla. Lively and full mouth Chardonnay fruit complemented by citrus burst on finish. 12 Months matured in Burgundy Barrels.
Meerlust – (Stellenbosch)	695
Complex, appealing nose with pear, citrus and floral notes developing into lemon cream, oatmeal, and marzipan richness. On the palate the wine is full-bodied & generous, but still sleek and balanced by crisp acidity.

Merlot

Excellent varietal wines are made from Merlot, which tend to be soft and full-bodied with their own character. Due to the softening and mellowing qualities it is the ideal variety to blend with Cabernet Sauvignon

Durbanville Hills Premium – (Durbanville)	85 / 240
Medium to full-bodied wine with sweet fruits on palate, rounded off with silky tannins and a full mouth feel that has a prolonged after taste.
