

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to Central Wyoming Senior Services, Inc., and we are committed to maintaining the privacy of your personally identifiable information. The following information outlines privacy information regarding your personal health information, as well as privacy as it relates to the website.

Collected Information - Our goal is to protect your information on the internet for use by our organization only. You can visit this site and find out about our organization and services without giving us any information about yourself.

Like many other commercial sites, our site(s) may utilize a standard technology called a "cookie" to collect information about how our site is used. Cookies were designed to help a website recognize a user's browser as a previous visitor and thus save and remember any preferences that may have been set while the user was browsing the site. A cookie cannot retrieve any other data from your hard drive, pass on a computer virus, or capture your email address.

Disclosure to Third Parties - If you do provide personal information for us to contact you, we will not release your information to any other organizations or businesses. We will safeguard, according to strict standards of security and confidentiality, any information you share with us.

If you voluntarily submit your name, address, telephone number or email address in the process of making a donation, this type of information is stored in a password-protected database which is kept confidential from third parties. If you have provided us with your name and contact information, Central Wyoming Senior Services may contact you in the future to share news and ask for your continuing support.

Opting-out - At any time while accessing our site(s), any user may "opt-out" of further email contact from us (while still allowing access to our site.) If you have any questions about Central Wyoming Senior Services, Inc. Internet Privacy Policy, please contact us at:
