Jennifer's Blog

I can't believe how quickly time is flying. One day it's 80 the next 65 but it seems like now we have settled into fall. Right now I'm fighting a battle with Onyx. I took him to the vet a couple of weeks ago for his yearly shots and wellness check. All his yearly bloodworks came back normal, but my little boy who has always been finicky is getting really finicky and losing weight and just not eating his dry stuff and he's never been a fan of moist. I'm the hovering mother who is hand feeding him treats that he shouldn't be eating just to get something into him other than delectables stews that he only half eats. In the past few minutes, as I sit here and type I've fed him a couple pieces of a new treat and one of his kibbles. At least he's eating something. I'm hoping it's just his sinus issues but as a worry-wort this is spazzing me out. Probably by the time you read this I'll have had him back to the vet. I really wish animals could talk! At least I know a lot of you animal parents understand what I'm saying!

As we get into the later months classes are going to slow down a little but we have a 201 starting on Saturday, November 16th @9am. If you want to learn how to take a block you see on the internet and do it yourself or a quilt. Chances are you can figure it out by drawing it out and using techniques you learned in 101. You will make at least two projects! Check out the two pictures of the projects!

Don't forget our Sit n Sews! Do you have unfinished projects? Do you need some help? Do you just want to hang out and socialize? These are all reasons to come to our sit n sews! They are only $5 per session. It's also would be great time to come learn and help make the dresses for our charity project! Remember they are anytime between the hours of 10am to 5pm. The holidays are fast approaching and I'm sure you still have gifts to make!

This month Sit N Sews are:

Friday, November 8th,

Tuesday, November 12th,

Thursday, November 21, and

Friday November 29th! (black Friday come spend the day with us vs with the crowds)

Upcoming Classes/Events:

"Kathy's Korner" - Join Kathy and other "Sewists" to create a monthly project. Every month there will be a new and exciting project(s) to do. What will they be? The class will be on most Wednesdays of the month (please check below and the calendar for exact dates!). You can come to one or all times to get your work done!
