- Instructional Focus 2021-22 – All students at P.S. 384 – Hunters Point Elementary will strengthen conceptual understanding and independence in academic settings by thinking critically and learning purposefully. In addition, these skills will support thoughtful social interactions with their peers. Across classrooms, there will be evidence of concrete learning targets, explicit instruction, opportunities for student choice, and feedback to students that supports reflection and growth.
 - Discussion: What are some areas to be addressed for next year’s Instructional Focus? How can we expand on what we are already doing?

Parent Perspective

- How has the pandemic affected interactions with students? – thoughtful, social interactions, independence
