- Chancellor's Priorities for 2026-27
  - Priority 1: Literacy/NYC Reads - All Students learn to read well, with an emphasis on culturally responsive, interdisciplinary literacy experiences, as the foundation for becoming academically prepared, effective communicators and reflective learners.
  - Priority 2: Math/NYC Solves - All students develop strong mathematical thinking and problem-solving skills through integrated curricula that connect math to real-world contexts and promote collaborative learning.
  - Priority 3: Safe and Inclusive Schools - All students are physically and emotionally safe, with every school proactively fostering an inclusive environment that supports belonging for every child.
  - Priority 4: College and Career Readiness - All students graduate college and career ready, demonstrating the competencies outlined in the NYS Portrait of a Graduate, including academic readiness, creativity, critical thinking, communication, reflection, and global awareness–prepared to learn, grow, innovate and contribute meaningfully to society–supported by rigorous resources. (NY Inspires)
  - Priority 5: Attendance/Chronically Present, Every Day Matters - All schools will employ targeted strategies to increase attendance, reduce chronic absenteeism, ensure seamless support for students at risk, and to address barriers faced by diverse communities.
  - Additional Priority: High Quality Inclusive and Accessible Learning for Students with Disabilities – All schools will address the development and implementation of legally compliant, student-centered IEPs; effective transition planning; equitable and unbiased referral practices; and the promotion of fairness and consistency in school discipline.
