THANK YOU 2025 YOUTH FAIR SPONSORS!

A very BIG thank you to each of our sponsors! Without your generous and faithful support, the Youth Fair of Rockwall would not continue to exist today. You are the "how" behind our "why"!

THANK YOU 2025 YOUTH FAIR BUYERS!

And last but certainly not least, we want to say a very heartfelt thank you to our buyers! You are the ones that bring long-held and future dreams to life! Your faithful generosity literally carries our youth years beyond their time in the show ring.

March 25 - March 28, 2026

GENERAL RULES

SHOW DATES: MARCH 25 - MARCH 28, 2026

1. The YFOR is open to all Rockwall ISD students and Rockwall County 4-H members who have not yet graduated with high school degrees or a GED. Specific competitions may require participants to be members in good standing of either FFA or 4-H. See specific rules for details.
2. Divisions of the Youth Fair will include:
 - Agricultural Mechanics Project Show
 - Livestock Show
 - Market Sale
3. The Show Superintendent reserves the right to oversee and change any class makeup to ensure uniformity of the show.
4. YFOR falls under Texas Law Chapter 87 and remedies code. A livestock show sponsor is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in a livestock show resulting from the inherent risks of livestock show activities.
5. Any exhibitor who shows a market animal in any other county market animal show will not be eligible for YFOR.
6. All entries must be shown by the exhibitor unless an emergency arises in which case the Show Superintendent will determine if another eligible youth can show the animal.
7. The Show Superintendent will have full and complete charge of all exhibits and all questions arising.
8. Rule Violation - Failure to comply with General Rules, Junior Livestock Rules, or Species Specific Rules will result in the following manner, with more serious infractions causing penalty escalation as determined by the Youth Fair of Rockwall

Board:

- First Offense: Verbal warning with written documentation will be issued to exhibitor, with parent/guardian and CEA or AST notified.
 - Second Offense: A participation suspension from the Rockwall Youth Fair as determined by the Youth Fair of Rockwall Board. Executive Committee will deliver the suspension decision to the exhibitor and parent/guardian.
9. All exhibitors will dress appropriately. For information or questions about this rule please contact local fair board.
 10. The decisions of the judge will be final.
 11. YFOR Board reserves the right to make any changes as deemed necessary.
 12. No dogs are allowed on site during the day of the show for the safety of the exhibitors and spectators.
 13. No entry fee will be refunded.
 14. Exhibitors eligible to sell projects will be allowed to sell only one project through the Youth Fair Sale.
 15. Once a project is entered into the Rockwall Youth Fair Auction, the project cannot be pulled.
 16. EVERY EXHIBITOR IS REQUIRED TO SELL A MINIMUM OF 10 RAFFLE TICKETS PRIOR TO WEDNESDAY 7:00PM AT MANDATORY EXHIBITOR MEETING, OR $100 WILL BE DEDUCTED FROM THE PREMIUMS AND/OR AUCTION SALES. NO PARTIAL CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN.

In 2026, all entries and entry fees will be processed and completed through the Showman app or website.

JUNIOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

Championship Buckles Sponsored by

Championship Buckles Manufactured by

1. See General Rules.
2. ELIGIBILITY FOR LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS: All exhibitors must be a member of the RISD FFA Chapter, or a member of Rockwall County 4-H. Exhibitors must not be older than a senior in high school. They must meet all club membership requirements and be in good standing to show their animals. Any exhibitor who shows a market animal in any other county market animal show will not be eligible for YFOR.
3. QUALITY COUNTS VERIFICATION will be required for all youth exhibiting livestock (market and/or breeding). The Quality Counts Verification Number must be included on the Show Entry Form. For more information about Quality Counts and the verification process, please consult your CEA/AST or visit <http://qualitycounts.tamu.edu>.
4. All livestock projects to be exhibited at YFOR must be housed and cared for in Rockwall County unless approved by the YFOR Board prior to YFOR validation.
5. All YFOR livestock participants will attend a mandatory livestock meeting on Wednesday night of show week. Meeting will be at 7:00 pm.
6. No market animals will be allowed to show in the breeding division, i.e. no market rabbit will be allowed to show in a market pen and then again as a breeding rabbit.
7. Showmanship - If there is only one entry for a specific species, there will be no showmanship contest. If there is only one exhibitor in a showmanship class due to age, the exhibitors of that species will be put into one showmanship class. Divisions for Showmanship are:
 - Juniors: 3rd – 5th Grade
 - Intermediates: 6th - 8th Grade
 - Seniors: 9th – 12th GradeExhibitors must show their own animal.
8. Sale participants must have their picture taken with the official photographer after the sale.
9. Add Ons will be accepted until 1 hour following the conclusion of the Sale. After that time, no Add Ons will be accepted. Add Ons must be made in person by the donor. Accepted forms of payment include cash, check, or money orders. No IOUs will be accepted. Payment must be made immediately following the sale with the sale secretary.
10. Unethically Fitted Livestock. Judges shall not award a prize to an unworthy exhibit. It is the intention of the YFOR that no premium or distinction of any kind shall be given any animal that is not deserving. Unethically fitted animals will be barred from exhibition. Humane treatment of animals must be exercised at all times by all exhibitors and their employees. Animals that have been given any form of intoxicating beverage, tranquilizer or other drug affecting mood or attitude prior to judging will be disqualified. Any product administered internally or used externally to alter the appearance or conformation of an animal for exhibition is prohibited and will be cause for disqualification. This includes but is not limited to stomach pumping, airing injections, bruising and balancing the udder by any means other than leaving naturally produced milk in any of the quarters. The use of graphite, dyes, hemp, false tail heads, glued on hair, or hair-like substances, or other similar substances externally and steroids, growth stimulants or artificial filling internally is prohibited. Exceptions to this will be granted for practices which are accepted by the breed association sanctioning an event. Judges are also requested to report to the YFOR show superintendent any animals upon which a surgical operation has been performed to improve their “show” appearance. If after examination by YFOR show superintendent, an animal is found to be in violation of any of the above, a) it will be barred from further exhibition, b) no awards will be made, c) stall and entry fees will not be refunded. The decision of the official YFOR show superintendent will be final. These rules will be strictly adhered to whether there is competition or not.

11. Exhibitor must have full ownership and possession of animal by validation.
12. Show day grooming: The exhibitor/exhibitor family and/or CEA/AST may assist other exhibitors/exhibitors' family in grooming the animal on show day as long as the exhibitor is actively involved in the grooming.
13. Exhibitors will provide their own equipment needed for show including but not exclusive to show sticks, show halters, brushes, combs, spray bottles, etc.
14. Exhibitors and parents will show good sportsmanship toward others while in the show ring and out.
15. Exhibitors will work cooperatively with County Extension Agent, Agriculture Science Teachers and YFOR Board members to help show run smoothly.
16. Horseplay will not be tolerated in the barn at the anytime.
17. All market livestock entries excluding broilers (steers, market and breeding hogs, lambs, goats, rabbits) will be required to weigh in on Wednesday evening of the show week from 5:00 pm - 6:30 pm. Weight cards and assistance will be provided by the YFOR Board and must be signed by the exhibitor and a parent or guardian.
18. Entry deadline on all projects will be no later than the third Wednesday in JANUARY. 7:00 pm. ENTRY FEES WILL BE $25.00 FOR ALL ENTRIES. LATE ENTRIES WILL BE CHARGED $250 PER ENTRY FROM JANUARY UNTIL SHOW DATE. All AG Mech Exhibitors on a Team Project must each pay the required entry fee.
19. The YFOR Board will not micro-police activities conducted by exhibitors and/or families as they are expected to uphold the standards of excellence of FFA and 4-H. The YFOR Board will not tolerate any blatant misuse or breaking of the rules. The YFOR Board reserves the right to determine any penalties against exhibitor and or family.

20. Judges' decisions are FINAL.

21. Entries are considered validated when they are tagged by a YFOR official. There will be no allowance for death or injury loss after the validation deadline. Validation does not enter the project for show.

22. Show officials may require an animal to be removed due to health concerns or exhibitor safety.
23. An exhibitor is allowed to show as many market entries as desired. Exhibitors will sell only one animal or project. Decision must be declared immediately at conclusion of market show prior to sale order being determined.
24. If an exhibitor wins Grand and Reserve, only one sells.
25. The YFOR Auction will sell all eligible entries of each species including but not exclusive to steers, broilers, hogs, lambs, meat goats, rabbits, and ag mechanics as determined by the respective judge.
26. All MARKET animals that go through the show ring are terminal. Any exhibitor that has multiple market animals eligible for the Sale must choose the project for the auction via the Disposition Form process, Rule #28. Any exhibitor that goes through this Sales process may put the additional animals on the Floor Truck for current market price payment or keep for personal processing. The market animals may be put on the processing truck at the normal personal expense.
27. Release of Market Animals, steers, hogs, lambs, goats, broilers, and rabbits, will require a Disposition Form indicating the intended disposition of the animal if it does not make the sale. The Disposition Form needs to be completely filled out and signed by the exhibitor and parent or guardian. The completed Disposition Form will be submitted to the YFOR Board. All Disposition Forms need to be received no later than 12:45 p.m. prior to auction.
28. An 8% sales commission of the total sale price will be subtracted from each lot in the auction. The funds will be used to provide pictures for the buyers, assist in advertising, and defray the cost of the YFOR.
29. Checks for participants in the sale will be written and issued upon receiving the monies from the buyers (usually late May). Once checks are issued, they are to be cashed within 2 weeks and will be void in 60 days. Checks not processed prior to the void date will be reissued for a $50.00 fee.
30. By your participation in the Youth Fair of Rockwall you are agreeing that any photo taken of you may be used for YFOR marketing purposes.
31. All large market animals must be validated to show in this show. Any exhibitor with a market animal validated for a major show prior to the county validation will only need to complete the county validation form with the required information. If state validation has not taken place, a county tag must be used for validation.

32. Protests: The Youth Fair of Rockwall, Inc. Board of Directors will have full and complete charge of exhibits and all questions arising in each division will be decided by a designated committee. A protest must be presented in writing with $250.00 non-refundable cash within one hour after completion of that specific show.
33. The show superintendent may disqualify any exhibitor with an animal that endangers the safety of others.
34. Liability. Each exhibitor, participant or other individual or entity participating in any aspect of YFOR, including without limitation, livestock and animal entrants, (collectively, "Fair Participants") including any of their heirs, dependents, assigns, agents or representatives in any capacity, hereby waves all rights and claims for damages, and do hereby agree to release, hold harmless and unconditionally indemnify the YFOR, and any officials, directors, officers, employees or volunteers, thereof, from and against all liability cost, expenses, claims and damages, even if caused by the alleged negligence or gross negligence of the YFOR, which the Fair Participant, or the YFOR may at any time suffer or sustain or become liable for the reason of any accidents, damages, injuries or incidents either to the person or property, or both, or the Fair Participant, or of any other parties, in any manner arising from such Participant's participation in any Fair event, or at any Fair premises which is in any way connected with the Fair of the YFOR, its officers, directors, members, agents, sponsors or employees, including damages allegedly arising from any interpretation or violation of rules, from the disqualification of any animal or entrant, from the loss of any sales proceed, premium or prize and/or from any alleged failure to provide adequate security. Fair Participant also recognizes that it will be solely responsible for any consequential or other loss, injury or damage to, or occasioned by, arising from, any horse or other livestock used by the Participant or present at the YFOR, including the preparation, duration and disbanding of said Fair and any parts thereof. Each Fair Participant further agrees to execute such releases or other writings or other documents which evidence Participant's acknowledgment and understanding of the foregoing release and indemnity, provided, however, the provisions hereof shall prevail in the event that a conflict or other inconsistency is discovered regarding the contents of the provision, and any release executed by a participant. Further, Fair Participant grants permission to the YFOR and their designee to use Fair Participant's image or likeness in connection with any broadcast or other reproduction of this event.
