

Relationships

Relationships can be tough. Relationships can be challenging but despite all that, relationships can be a beautiful thing. There is something special about connecting with others and developing healthy meaningful relationships. There are many key components to developing relationships. One may consider and determine what the purpose of the relationship is. Key character values such as honesty, straightforwardness, integrity, fairness and peace all contribute to healthy relationships. What about those times when tough situations arise in a relationship? Well, from my perspective this is a perfect time to let God rule. Everyday is a day to let love rule in every situation and circumstance. When you let love rule what you are really doing is letting God rule in the situation because God is love. Be patient and understanding with your brothers and sisters. If you see something that isn't right, refuse to gossip choose to pray instead. Always remember to chose prayer over gossip. Prayer changes everything! Jesus is Lord. Press pass the mess. Get through the test. Life is good.

1 Corinthians 13:4-8 Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails....
