

As you read the Bible,
do you ever struggle to see the forest
for the trees?

An aerial photograph showing a winding river or stream flowing through a vast, dense forest. The river is a light blue-grey color, contrasting with the deep green of the surrounding trees. The forest appears to be a mix of deciduous and coniferous trees, with varying shades of green. The river starts from the left, curves upwards, then downwards, and continues towards the right side of the frame. The overall scene is a serene, natural landscape.

1 Peter 1:1

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To God's elect, exiles scattered throughout the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia, who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through the sanctifying work of the Spirit, to be obedient to Jesus Christ and sprinkled with his blood:

Grace and peace be yours in abundance.

Praise to God for a Living Hope

<sup>1</sup>Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,<sup>2</sup> and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you,<sup>3</sup> who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time.<sup>4</sup> In all this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials.<sup>5</sup> These have come so that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed.<sup>6</sup> Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy,<sup>7</sup> for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

<sup>8</sup>Concerning this salvation, the prophets, who spoke of the grace that was to come to you, searched intently and with the greatest care,<sup>9</sup> trying to find out the time and circumstances to which the Spirit of Christ in them was pointing when he predicted the sufferings of the Messiah and the glories that would follow.<sup>10</sup> It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you, when they spoke of the things that have now been told you by those who have preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even angels long to look into these things.

<sup>11</sup>Therefore, with minds that are alert and fully sober, set your hope on the grace to be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed at his coming.<sup>12</sup> As obedient children, do not conform to the evil desires you had when you lived in ignorance.<sup>13</sup> But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do;<sup>14</sup> for it is written: "Be holy, because I am holy."<sup>15</sup>

<sup>16</sup>Since you call on a Father who judges each person's work impartially, live out your time as foreigners here in reverent fear.<sup>17</sup> For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your ancestors,<sup>18</sup> but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.<sup>19</sup> He was chosen before the creation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake.<sup>20</sup> Through him you believe in God, who raised him from the dead and glorified him, and so your faith and hope are in God.

<sup>21</sup>Now that you have purified yourselves by obeying the truth so that you have sincere love for each other, love one another deeply, from the heart.<sup>22</sup> For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God.<sup>23</sup> For, "All people are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall," but the word of the Lord endures forever."<sup>24</sup> And this is the word that was preached to you.

2 Therefore, rid yourselves of all malice and all deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and slander of every kind.<sup>2</sup> Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation,<sup>3</sup> now that you have tasted that the Lord is good.

<sup>4</sup>As you come to him, the living Stone—rejected by humans but chosen by God and precious to him—you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house<sup>5</sup> to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.<sup>6</sup> For in Scripture it says: "See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame."<sup>7</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Now to you who believe, this stone is precious. But to those who do not believe, "The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,"<sup>9</sup> and "A stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall."<sup>10</sup> They stumble because they disobey the message—which is also what they were destined for.

<sup>11</sup>But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.<sup>12</sup> Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

<sup>13</sup>"Dear friends, I urge you, as foreigners and exiles, to abstain from sinful desires, which wage war against your soul.<sup>14</sup> Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us.

<sup>15</sup>Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human authority: whether to the emperor, as the supreme authority,<sup>16</sup> or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right.<sup>17</sup> For it is God's will that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish people.<sup>18</sup> Live as free people, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as God's slaves.<sup>19</sup> Show proper respect to everyone, love the family of believers, fear God, honor the emperor.

<sup>20</sup>Slaves, in reverent fear of God submit yourselves to your masters, not only to those who are good and considerate, but also to those who are harsh.<sup>21</sup> For it is commendable if someone bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because they are conscious of God.<sup>22</sup> But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God.<sup>23</sup> To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

<sup>24</sup>He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.<sup>25</sup> When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly.<sup>26</sup> "He himself bore our sins" in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; "by his wounds you have been healed."<sup>27</sup> For "you were like sheep going astray," but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

3 Wives, in the same way submit yourselves to your own husbands so that, if any of them do not believe the word, they may be won over without words by the behavior of their wives,<sup>2</sup> when they see the purity and reverence of your lives.<sup>3</sup> Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as elaborate hairstyles and the wearing of gold jewelry or fine clothes.<sup>4</sup> Rather, it should be that of your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God's sight.<sup>5</sup> For this is the way the holy women of the past who put their hope in God used to adorn themselves. They submitted themselves to their own husbands, "like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him her lord." You are her daughters if you do what is right and do not give way to fear.

<sup>6</sup>Husbands, in the same way be considerate as you live with your wives, and treat them with respect as the weaker partner and as heirs with you of the gracious gift of life, so that nothing will hinder your prayers.

<sup>7</sup>Finally, all of you, be like-minded, be sympathetic, love one another, be compassionate and humble.<sup>8</sup> Do not repay evil with evil or insult with insult. On the contrary, repay evil with blessing, because to this you were called so that you may inherit a blessing.<sup>9</sup> For, "Whoever would love life and see good days must keep their tongue from evil and their lips from deceitful speech."<sup>10</sup> They must turn from evil and do good; they must seek peace and pursue it.<sup>11</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer, but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.<sup>12</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Who is going to harm you if you are eager to do good? But even if you should suffer for what is right, you are blessed. "Do not fear their threats"; do not be frightened.<sup>14</sup>

<sup>15</sup>But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect,<sup>16</sup> keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander.<sup>17</sup> For it is better, if it is God's will, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.<sup>18</sup> For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the body but made alive in the Spirit.<sup>19</sup> After being made alive,<sup>20</sup> he went and made proclamation to the imprisoned spirits—<sup>21</sup>to those who were disobedient long ago when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being built. In it only a few people, eight in all, were saved through water,<sup>22</sup> and this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a clear conscience toward God.<sup>23</sup> It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ,<sup>24</sup> who has gone into heaven and is at God's right hand—with angels, authorities and powers in submission to him.

4 Therefore, since Christ suffered in his body, arm yourselves also with the same attitude, because whoever suffers in the body is done with sin.<sup>2</sup> As a result, they do not live the rest of their earthly lives for evil human desires, but rather for the will of God.<sup>3</sup> For you have spent enough time in the past doing what pagans choose to do—living in debauchery, lust, drunkenness, orgies, carousing and detestable idolatry.<sup>4</sup> They are surprised that you do not join them in their reckless, wild living, and they heap abuse on you.<sup>5</sup> But they will have to give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.<sup>6</sup> For this is the reason the gospel was preached even to those who are now dead, so that they might be judged according to human standards in regard to the body, but live according to God in regard to the spirit.

1 Peter 5:14

"The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray.<sup>2</sup> Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins.<sup>3</sup> Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling.<sup>4</sup> Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.<sup>5</sup> If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>6</sup>"Dear friends, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that has come on you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you.<sup>7</sup> But rejoice inasmuch as you participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that you may be overjoyed when his glory is revealed.<sup>8</sup> If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you.<sup>9</sup> If you suffer, it should not be as a murderer or thief or any other kind of criminal, or even as a meddler.<sup>10</sup> However, if you suffer as a Christian, do not be ashamed, but praise God that you bear that name.<sup>11</sup> For it is time for judgment to begin with God's household; and if it begins with us, what will the outcome be for those who do not obey the gospel of God?<sup>12</sup> And, "If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinners?"

<sup>13</sup>So then, those who suffer according to God's will should commit themselves to their faithful Creator and continue to do good.

5 To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow elder and a witness of Christ's sufferings who also will share in the glory to be revealed.<sup>2</sup> Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, watching over them—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be: not pursuing dishonest gain, but eager to serve;<sup>3</sup> not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock.<sup>4</sup> And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>6</sup>In the same way, you who are younger, submit yourselves to your elders. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, "God opposes the proud but shows favor to the humble."<sup>7</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time.<sup>9</sup> Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

<sup>10</sup>Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.<sup>11</sup> Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings.

<sup>12</sup>And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.<sup>13</sup> To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

<sup>14</sup>With the help of Silas, whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging you and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

<sup>15</sup>She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you her greetings, and so does my son Mark.

<sup>16</sup>Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

To those who through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ have received a faith as precious as ours:
<sup>2</sup> Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

<sup>3</sup>His divine power has given us everything we need for a godly life through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. <sup>4</sup>Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

‘For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love. For if you possess these qualities in increasing measure, they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But whoever does not have them is nearsighted and blind, forgetting that they have been cleansed from their past sins.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, my brothers and sisters, make every effort to confirm your calling and election. For if you do these things, you will never stumble, and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>So I will always remind you of these things, even though you know them and are firmly established in the truth you now have. <sup>13</sup>I think it is right to refresh your memory as long as I live in the tent of this body, <sup>14</sup>because I know that I will soon put it aside, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me. <sup>15</sup>And I will make every effort to see that after my departure you will always be able to remember these things.

<sup>14</sup>For we did not follow cleverly devised stories when we told you about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ in power, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. <sup>15</sup>He received honor and glory from God the Father when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased." <sup>16</sup>We ourselves heard this voice that came from heaven when we were with him on the sacred mountain.

<sup>19</sup>We also have the prophetic message as something completely reliable, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.<sup>20</sup>Above all, you must understand that no prophecy of Scripture came about by the prophet's own interpretation of things.<sup>21</sup>For prophecy never had its origin in the human will; but prophets, though human, spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord who bought them—bringing swift destruction on themselves. Many will follow their depraved conduct and will bring the way of truth into disrepute. In their greed these teachers will exploit you with fabricated stories. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping.

"For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but sent them to hell,<sup>1</sup> putting them in chains of darkness<sup>2</sup> to be held for judgment,<sup>3</sup> if he did not spare the ancient world when he brought the flood on its ungodly people, but protected Noah, a preacher of righteousness, and seven others;<sup>4</sup> if he condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah by burning them to ashes, and made them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly;<sup>5</sup> and if he rescued Lot, a righteous man, who was distressed by the depraved conduct of the lawless<sup>6</sup> (for that righteous man, living among them day after day, was tormented in his righteous soul by the lawless deeds he saw and heard)<sup>7</sup>—if this is so, then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials and to hold the unrighteous for punishment on the day of judgment."<sup>8</sup> This is especially true of those who follow the corrupt desire of the flesh and despise authority.

Bold and arrogant, they are not afraid to heap abuse on celestial beings; "yet even angels, although they are stronger and more powerful, do not heap abuse on such beings when bringing judgment on them from the Lord." <sup>12</sup>But these people blaspheme in matters they do not understand. They are like unreasoning animals, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like animals they too will perish.

<sup>17</sup>They will be paid back with harm for the harm they have done. Their idea of pleasure is to carouse in broad daylight. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their pleasures while they feast with you! <sup>18</sup>With eyes full of adultery, they never stop sinning; they seduce the unstable; they are experts in greed—an accursed brood! <sup>19</sup>They have left the straight way and wandered off to follow the way of Balaam son of Bezer, who loved the wages of wickedness. <sup>20</sup>But he was rebuked for his wrongdoing by a donkey—an animal without speech—who spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet's madness.

<sup>21</sup>These people are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Blackest darkness is reserved for them. <sup>22</sup>For they mouth empty, boastful words and, by appealing to the lustful desires of the flesh, they entice people who are just escaping from those who live in error. <sup>23</sup>They promise them freedom, while they themselves are slaves of depravity—for people are slaves to whatever has mastered them. <sup>24</sup>And they have escaped the corruption of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and are again entangled in it and are overcome, they are worse off at the end than they were at the beginning. <sup>25</sup>It would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than to have known it and then to turn their backs on the sacred command that was passed on to them. <sup>26</sup>Of them the proverbs are true: "A dog returns to its vomit," and "a sow that is washed returns to her wallowing in the mud."

3 Dear friends, this is now my second letter to you. I have written both of them as reminders to stimulate you to wholesome thinking. I want you to recall the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and the command given by our Lord and Savior through your apostles.

<sup>2</sup>Above all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires. "They will say, 'Where is this 'coming' he promised? Ever since our ancestors died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation.'"

<sup>10</sup>But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word the heavens came into being and the earth was formed out of water and by water. <sup>11</sup>By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed. <sup>12</sup>By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

<sup>18</sup>But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: With the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like a day. <sup>19</sup>The Lord is not slow in keeping his promise, as some understand slowness. Instead he is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance.

<sup>10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything done in it will be laid bare.<sup>1</sup>

"Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives—as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming.<sup>1</sup> That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat.<sup>2</sup> But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells

“So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with him.” Bear in mind that our Lord’s passion means salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also wrote you with the wisdom that God gave him. “He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort, as they do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore, dear friends, since you have been forewarned, be on your guard so that you may not be carried away by the error of the lawless and fall from your secure position. <sup>18</sup>But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and forever! Amen.

Romans 1:1

1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God—the gospel he promised beforehand through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures regarding his Son, who as to his earthly life was a descendant of David, and who through the Spirit of holiness was appointed the Son of God in power by his resurrection from the dead: Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>1</sup>Through him we received grace and apostleship to call all the Gentiles to the obedience that comes from faith for his name's sake. <sup>2</sup>And you also are among those Gentiles who are called to belong to Jesus Christ.

To all in Rome who are loved by God and called to be his holy people: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup>First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being reported all over the world. <sup>4</sup>God, whom I serve in my spirit in preaching the gospel of his Son, is my witness how constantly I remember you <sup>5</sup>in my prayers at all times; and I pray that now at last by God's will the way may be opened for me to come to you.

<sup>6</sup>I long to see you so that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to make you strong—<sup>7</sup>that is, that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith. <sup>8</sup>I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that I planned many times to come to you (but have been prevented from doing so until now) in order that I might have a harvest among you, just as I have had among the other Gentiles.

<sup>9</sup>I am obligated both to Greeks and non-Greeks, both to the wise and the foolish. <sup>10</sup>That is why I am so eager to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.

<sup>11</sup>For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile. <sup>12</sup>For in the gospel the righteousness of God is revealed—a righteousness that is by faith from first to last,<sup>13</sup> just as it is written: "The righteous will live by faith."

<sup>14</sup>The wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all the godlessness and wickedness of people, who suppress the truth by their wickedness,<sup>15</sup> since what may be known about God is plain to them, because God has made it plain to them. <sup>16</sup>For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that people are without excuse.

<sup>17</sup>For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened. <sup>18</sup>Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools,<sup>19</sup> and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images made to look like a mortal human being and birds and animals and reptiles.

<sup>20</sup>Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another. <sup>21</sup>They exchanged the truth about God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is forever praised. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts. Even their women exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones. <sup>23</sup>In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.

<sup>24</sup>Furthermore, just as they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, so God gave them over to a depraved mind, so that they do what ought not to be done. <sup>25</sup>They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips, slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents;<sup>26</sup> they have no understanding, no fidelity, no love, no mercy. <sup>27</sup>Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practice them.

<sup>a1:13</sup> The Greek word for brothers and sisters (adelphoi) refers here to believers, both men and women, as part of God's family; also in 7:1, 4, 8; 12, 29; 10:11, 11:25, 12:1, 15:14, 30; 16:14, 17.

2 You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgment on someone else, for at whatever point you judge another, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgment do the same things. <sup>2</sup>Now we know that God's judgment against those who do such things is based on truth. <sup>3</sup>So when you, a mere human being, pass judgment on them and yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgment? <sup>4</sup>Or do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, forbearance and patience, not realizing that God's kindness is intended to lead you to repentance?

<sup>5</sup>But because of your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath against yourself for the day of God's wrath, when his righteous judgment will be revealed. <sup>6</sup>God will repay each person according to what they have done. <sup>7</sup>To those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honor and immortality, he will give eternal life. <sup>8</sup>But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow evil, there will be wrath and anger. <sup>9</sup>There will be trouble and distress for every human being who does evil: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile; <sup>10</sup>but glory, honor and peace for everyone who does good: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile. <sup>11</sup>For God does not show favoritism.

<sup>12</sup>All who sin apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who sin under the law will be judged by the law. <sup>13</sup>For it is not those who hear the law who are righteous in God's sight, but it is those who obey the law who will be declared righteous. <sup>14</sup>Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature things required by the law, they are a law for themselves, even though they do not have the law. <sup>15</sup>They show that the requirements of the law are written on their hearts, their consciences also bearing witness, and their thoughts sometimes accusing them and at other times even defending them. <sup>16</sup>This will take place on the day when God judges people's secrets through Jesus Christ, as my gospel declares.

<sup>17</sup>Now you, if you call yourself a Jew, if you rely on the law and boast in God, <sup>18</sup>if you know his will and approve of what is superior because you are instructed by the law; <sup>19</sup>if you are convinced that you are a guide for the blind, a light for those who are in the dark, <sup>20</sup>an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of little children, because you have in the law the embodiment of knowledge and truth—<sup>21</sup>you, then, who teach others, do you not teach yourself? <sup>22</sup>You who preach against stealing, do you steal? <sup>23</sup>You who say that people should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? <sup>24</sup>You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? <sup>25</sup>You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God by breaking the law? <sup>26</sup>As it is written: "God's name is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

<sup>27</sup>Circumcision has value if you observe the law, but if you break the law, you have become as though you had not been circumcised. <sup>28</sup>So then, if those who are not circumcised keep the law's requirements, will they not be regarded as though they were circumcised? <sup>29</sup>The one who is not circumcised physically and yet obeys the law will condemn you who, even though you have the written code and circumcision, are a lawbreaker.

<sup>30</sup>A person is not a Jew who is only outwardly, nor is circumcision merely outward and physical. <sup>31</sup>No, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a person's praise is not from other people, but from God.

3 What advantage, then, is there in being a Jew, or what value is there in circumcision?

<sup>1</sup>Much in every way! First of all, the Jews have been entrusted with the very words of God.

<sup>2</sup>What if some were unfaithful? Will their unfaithfulness nullify God's faithfulness?

<sup>3</sup>Not at all! Let God be true, and every human being a liar. As it is written:

<sup>4</sup>"So that you may be proved right when you speak and prevail when you judge."<sup>5</sup> But if our unrighteousness brings out God's righteousness more clearly, what shall we say? That God is unjust in bringing his wrath on us? (I am using a human argument.) Certainly not! If that were so, how could God judge the world? Someone might argue, "If my falsehood enhances God's truthfulness and so increases his glory, why am I still condemned as a sinner?" Why not say—as some slanderously claim that we say—"Let us do evil that good may result?" Their condemnation is just!

<sup>6</sup>What shall we conclude then? Do we have any advantage? Not at all! For we have already made the charge that Jews and Gentiles alike are all under the power of sin. <sup>7</sup>As it is written:

<sup>8</sup>"There is no one righteous, not even one; <sup>9</sup>there is no one who understands, there is no one who seeks God. <sup>10</sup>All have turned away, they have together become worthless; there is no one who does good, not even one."<sup>11</sup> Their throats are open graves; their tongues practice deceit. <sup>12</sup>The poison of vipers is on their lips.

<sup>16</sup>There is no fear of God before their eyes. <sup>17</sup>Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world held accountable to God. <sup>18</sup>Therefore no one will be declared righteous in God's sight by the works of the law; rather, through the law we become conscious of our sin.

<sup>19</sup>But now apart from the law the righteousness of God has been made known, to which the Law and the Prophets testify. <sup>20</sup>This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe. There is no difference between Jew and Gentile, <sup>21</sup>for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, <sup>22</sup>and all are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus. <sup>23</sup>God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of his blood—to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand unpunished—<sup>24</sup>he did it to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so as to be just and the one who justifies those who have faith in Jesus.

<sup>25</sup>Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. Because of what law? The law that requires works? No, because of the law that requires faith. <sup>26</sup>For we maintain that a person is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. <sup>27</sup>Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles too? Yes, of Gentiles too. <sup>28</sup>Since there is only one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through that same faith. <sup>29</sup>Do we, then, nullify the law by this faith? Not at all! Rather, we uphold the law.

4 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh, discovered in this matter? <sup>1</sup>If, in fact, Abraham was justified by works, he had something to boast about—but not before God. <sup>2</sup>What does Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness."

<sup>3</sup>Now to the one who works, wages are not credited as a gift but as an obligation. <sup>4</sup>However, to the one who does not work but trusts God who justifies the ungodly, their faith is credited as righteousness. <sup>5</sup>David says the same thing when he speaks of the blessedness of the one to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

<sup>6</sup>"Blessed are those whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered. <sup>7</sup>"Blessed is the one whose sin the Lord will never count against them."<sup>8</sup> Is this blessedness only for the circumcised, or also for the uncircumcised? We have been saying that Abraham's faith was credited to him as righteousness. <sup>9</sup>Under what circumstances was it credited? Was it after he was circumcised, or before? It was not after, but before! <sup>10</sup>And he received circumcision as a sign, a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. So then, he is the father of all who believe but have not been circumcised, in order that righteousness might be credited to them. <sup>11</sup>And he is then also the father of the circumcised who not only are circumcised but who also follow in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

<sup>12</sup>It was not through the law that Abraham and his offspring received the promise that he would be heir of the world, but through the righteousness that comes by faith. <sup>13</sup>For those who depend on the law are heirs, faith means nothing and the promise is worthless, <sup>14</sup>because the law brings wrath. And where there is no law there is no transgression.

<sup>1</sup>Therefore, the promise comes by faith, so that it may be by grace and may be guaranteed to all Abraham's offspring—not only to those who are of the law but also to those who have the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all. <sup>2</sup>As it is written: "I have made you a father of many nations." He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed—the God who gives life to the dead and calls into being things that were not.

<sup>3</sup>Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, "So shall your offspring be." <sup>4</sup>Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was also dead. <sup>5</sup>Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God. <sup>6</sup>Being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised. <sup>7</sup>This is why "it was credited to him as righteousness." <sup>8</sup>The words "it was credited to him" were written not for him alone, <sup>9</sup>but also for us, to whom God will credit righteousness—for us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. <sup>10</sup>He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

5 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God. <sup>2</sup>Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. <sup>3</sup>And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

<sup>4</sup>You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. <sup>5</sup>Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. <sup>6</sup>But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

<sup>7</sup>Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God's wrath through him! <sup>8</sup>For if, while we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life! <sup>9</sup>Not only is this so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

<sup>10</sup>Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all people, because all sinned—

<sup>11</sup>To be sure, sin was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not charged against anyone's account where there is no law. <sup>12</sup>Nevertheless, death reigned from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, even over those who did not sin by breaking a command, as did Adam, who is a pattern of the one to come.

<sup>13</sup>But the gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died by the trespass of the one man, Jesus Christ, overflow to the many! <sup>14</sup>Nor can the gift of God be compared with the result of one man's sin: The judgment followed one sin and brought condemnation, but the gift followed many trespasses and brought justification. <sup>15</sup>For if, by the trespass of the one man, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive God's abundant provision of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ!

<sup>16</sup>Consequently, just as one trespass resulted in condemnation for all people, so also one righteous act resulted in justification and life for all people. <sup>17</sup>For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the one man the many will be made righteous.

<sup>18</sup>The law was brought in so that the trespass might increase. But where sin increased, grace increased all the more, <sup>19</sup>so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Sin and Sanctification, chapters 6-8

Romans 6:1

6 What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning so that grace may increase? <sup>1</sup>By no means! We are those who have died to sin; how can we live in it any longer? <sup>2</sup>Or don't you know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? <sup>3</sup>We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

<sup>4</sup>For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly also be united with him in a resurrection like his. <sup>5</sup>For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body ruled by sin might be done away with,<sup>6</sup> that we should no longer be slaves to sin—because anyone who has died has been set free from sin.

<sup>7</sup>Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. <sup>8</sup>For we know that since Christ was raised from the dead, he cannot die again; death no longer has mastery over him. <sup>9</sup>The death he died, he died to sin once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God.

<sup>10</sup>In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus. <sup>11</sup>Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires. <sup>12</sup>Do not offer any part of yourself to sin as an instrument of wickedness, but rather offer yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life; and offer every part of yourself to him as an instrument of righteousness. <sup>13</sup>For sin shall no longer be your master, because you are not under the law, but under grace.

<sup>14</sup>What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? By no means! <sup>15</sup>Don't you know that when you offer yourselves to someone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey—whether you are slaves to sin, which leads to death, or to obedience, which leads to righteousness? <sup>16</sup>But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you have come to obey from your heart the pattern of teaching that has now claimed your allegiance. <sup>17</sup>You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

<sup>18</sup>I am using an example from everyday life because of your human limitations. Just as you used to offer yourselves as slaves to impurity and to ever-increasing wickedness, so now offer yourselves as slaves to righteousness leading to holiness. <sup>19</sup>When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the control of righteousness. <sup>20</sup>What benefit did you reap at that time from the things you are now ashamed of? Those things result in death! <sup>21</sup>But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the benefit you reap leads to holiness, and the result is eternal life. <sup>22</sup>For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Do you not know, brothers and sisters—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law has authority over someone only as long as that person lives? <sup>1</sup>For example, by law a married woman is bound to her husband as long as he is alive, but if her husband dies, she is released from the law that binds her to him. <sup>2</sup>So then, if she has sexual relations with another man while her husband is still alive, she is called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is released from that law and is not an adulteress if she marries another man.

<sup>3</sup>So, my brothers and sisters, you also died to the law through the body of Christ, that you might belong to another, to him who was raised from the dead, in order that we might bear fruit for God. <sup>4</sup>For when we were in the realm of the flesh,<sup>5</sup> the sinful passions aroused by the law were at work in us, so that we bore fruit for death. <sup>6</sup>But now, by dying to what once bound us, we have been released from the law so that we serve in the new way of the Spirit, and not in the old way of the written code.

<sup>7</sup>What shall we say, then? Is the law sinful? Certainly not! Nevertheless, I would not have known what sin was had it not been for the law. For I would not have known what coveting really was if the law had not said, "You shall not covet."<sup>8</sup> But sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, produced in me every kind of coveting. For apart from the law, sin was dead. <sup>9</sup>Once I was alive apart from the law; but when the commandment came, sin sprang to life and I died. <sup>10</sup>I found that the very commandment that was intended to bring life actually brought death. <sup>11</sup>For sin, seizing the opportunity afforded by the commandment, deceived me, and through the commandment put me to death. <sup>12</sup>So then, the law is holy, and the commandment is holy, righteous and good.

<sup>13</sup>Did that which is good, then, become death to me? By no means! Nevertheless, in order that sin might be recognized as sin, it used what is good to bring about my death, so that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

<sup>14</sup>We know that the law is spiritual, but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin. <sup>15</sup>I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do. <sup>16</sup>And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. <sup>17</sup>As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me. <sup>18</sup>For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature. <sup>19</sup>For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. <sup>20</sup>For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing. <sup>21</sup>Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>22</sup>So I find this law at work: Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. <sup>23</sup>For in my inner being I delight in God's law,<sup>24</sup> but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me. <sup>25</sup>"What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death?" <sup>26</sup>Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord!

<sup>27</sup>So then, I myself in my mind am a slave to God's law, but in my sinful nature<sup>28</sup> a slave to the law of sin.

8 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, <sup>1</sup>because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set you<sup>2</sup> free from the law of sin and death. <sup>2</sup>For what the law was powerless to do because it was weakened by the flesh,<sup>3</sup> God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh to be a sin offering.<sup>4</sup> And so he condemned sin in the flesh,<sup>5</sup> in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fully met in us, who do not live according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

<sup>6</sup>Those who live according to the flesh have their minds set on what the flesh desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires. <sup>7</sup>The mind governed by the flesh is death, but the mind governed by the Spirit is life and peace. <sup>8</sup>The mind governed by the flesh is hostile to God; it does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. <sup>9</sup>Those who are in the realm of the flesh cannot please God.

<sup>10</sup>You, however, are not in the realm of the flesh but are in the realm of the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, they do not belong to Christ. <sup>11</sup>But if Christ is in you, then even though your body is subject to death because of sin, the Spirit gives life<sup>12</sup> because of righteousness. <sup>13</sup>And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies because of his Spirit who lives in you.

<sup>14</sup>Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have an obligation—but it is not to the flesh, to live according to it. <sup>15</sup>For if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live.

<sup>16</sup>For those who are led by the Spirit of God are the children of God. <sup>17</sup>The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. <sup>18</sup>And by him we cry, "Abba," Father.

<sup>19</sup>The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God's children. <sup>20</sup>Now if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory.

<sup>21</sup>I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. <sup>22</sup>For the creation waits in eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. <sup>23</sup>For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope <sup>24</sup>that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God.

<sup>25</sup>We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. <sup>26</sup>Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption to sonship, the redemption of our bodies. <sup>27</sup>For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what they already have? <sup>28</sup>But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

<sup>29</sup>In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans. <sup>30</sup>And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for God's people in accordance with the will of God.

<sup>31</sup>And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. <sup>32</sup>For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. <sup>33</sup>And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

<sup>34</sup>What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>35</sup>He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? <sup>36</sup>Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. <sup>37</sup>Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. <sup>38</sup>Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? <sup>39</sup>As it is written:

"For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered."

<sup>40</sup>No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

<sup>41</sup>For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons,<sup>42</sup> neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,<sup>43</sup> neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Sovereignty, chapters 9-11

Romans 9:1

9 I speak the truth in Christ—I am not lying, my conscience confirms it through the Holy Spirit—I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my people, those of my own race, the people of Israel. Theirs is the adoption to sonship; theirs the divine glory, the covenants, the receiving of the law, the temple worship and the promises. Theirs are the patriarchs, and from them is traced the human ancestry of the Messiah, who is God over all, forever praised! Amen.

It is not as though God's word had failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel. Nor because they are his descendants are they all Abraham's children. On the contrary, it is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned.<sup>1</sup> In other words, it is not the children by physical descent who are God's children, but it is the children of the promise who are regarded as Abraham's offspring. For this was how the promise was stated: "At the appointed time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."<sup>2</sup>

Not only that, but Rebekah's children were conceived at the same time by our father Isaac. Yet, before the twins were born or had done anything good or bad—in order that God's purpose in election might stand: "not by works but by him who calls"—she was told, "The older will serve the younger."<sup>3</sup> Just as it is written: "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."<sup>4</sup>

"What then shall we say? Is God unjust? Not at all! For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."

It does not, therefore, depend on human desire or effort, but on God's mercy.<sup>5</sup> For Scripture says to Pharaoh: "I raised you up for this very purpose, that I might display my power in you and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."<sup>6</sup> Therefore God has mercy on whom he wants to have mercy, and he hardens whom he wants to harden.

"One of you will say to me: "Then why does God still blame us? For who is able to resist his will?" But who are you, a human being, to talk back to God? Shall what is formed say to the one who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"<sup>7</sup> Does not the potter have the right to make out of the same lump of clay some pottery for special purposes and some for common use?

What if God, although choosing to show his wrath and make his power known, bore with great patience the objects of his wrath—prepared for destruction?

What if he did this to make the riches of his glory known to the objects of his mercy, whom he prepared in advance for glory—even us, whom he also called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles?<sup>8</sup> As he says in Hosea:

"I will call them 'my people' who are not my people, and I will call her 'my loved one' who is not my loved one."<sup>9</sup>

And, "In the very place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they will be called 'children of the living God.'"<sup>10</sup>

Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: "Though the number of the Israelites be like the sand by the sea, only the remnant will be saved.<sup>11</sup> For the Lord will carry out his sentence on earth with speed and finality."<sup>12</sup> It is just as Isaiah said previously: "Unless the Lord Almighty had left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah."<sup>13</sup>

What then shall we say? That the Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have obtained it, a righteousness that is by faith; but the people of Israel, who pursued the law as the way of righteousness, have not attained their goal. Why not? Because they pursued it not by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the stumbling stone.<sup>14</sup> As it is written:

"See, I lay in Zion a stone that causes people to stumble and a rock that makes them fall, and the one who believes in him will never be put to shame."<sup>15</sup>

10 Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. For I can testify about them that they are zealous for God, but their zeal is not based on knowledge. Since they did not know the righteousness of God and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. Christ is the culmination of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

Moses writes this about the righteousness that is by the law: "The person who does these things will live by them."<sup>16</sup> But the righteousness that is by faith says: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) "or 'Who will descend into the deep?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the message concerning faith that we proclaim: "If you declare with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."<sup>17</sup> For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved.<sup>18</sup> As Scripture says, "Anyone who believes in him will never be put to shame."<sup>19</sup> For there is no difference between Jew and Gentile—the same Lord is Lord of all and richly blesses all who call on him, for, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."<sup>20</sup>

How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can anyone preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"<sup>21</sup>

But not all the Israelites accepted the good news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our message?"<sup>22</sup> Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word about Christ. But I ask: Did they not hear? Of course they did:

"Their voice has gone out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world."<sup>23</sup>

Again I ask: Did Israel not understand? First, Moses says, "I will make you envious by those who are not a nation. I will make you angry by a nation that has no understanding."<sup>24</sup> And Isaiah boldly says, "I was found by those who did not seek me; I revealed myself to those who did not ask for me."<sup>25</sup> But concerning Israel he says, "All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and obstinate people."

11 I ask them: Did God reject his people? By no means! I am an Israelite myself, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. God did not reject his people, whom he foreknew. Don't you know what Scripture says in the passage about Elijah—how he appealed to God against Israel? "Lord, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars; I am the only one left, and they are trying to kill me!"<sup>1</sup> And what was God's answer to him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand who have not bowed the knee to Baal."<sup>2</sup> So too, at the present time there is a remnant chosen by grace. And if by grace, then it cannot be based on works; if it were, grace would no longer be grace.

What then? What the people of Israel sought so earnestly they did not obtain. The elect among them did, but the others were hardened, as it is written:

"God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that could not see and ears that could not hear, to this very day."

And David says: "May their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them. May their eyes be darkened so they cannot see, and their backs be bent forever."

Again I ask: Did they stumble so as to fall beyond recovery? Not at all! Rather, because of their transgression, salvation has come to the Gentiles to make Israel envious.<sup>3</sup> But if their transgression means riches for the world, and their loss means riches for the Gentiles, how much greater riches will their full inclusion bring!

Romans 11:36

I am talking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I take pride in my ministry.<sup>4</sup> In the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to envy and save some of them.<sup>5</sup> For if their rejection brought reconciliation to the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?<sup>6</sup> If the part of the dough offered as firstfruits is holy, then the whole batch is holy; if the root is holy, so are the branches.

If some of the branches have been broken off, and you, though a wild olive shoot, have been grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing sap from the olive root, do not consider yourself to be superior to those other branches. If you do, consider this: You do not support the root, but the root supports you.<sup>7</sup> You will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I could be grafted in." Granted. But they were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but tremble.<sup>8</sup> For if God did not spare the natural branches, he will not spare you either.

Consider therefore the kindness and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off.<sup>9</sup> And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.<sup>10</sup> After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree!

I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be cancelled: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in,<sup>11</sup> and in this way<sup>12</sup> all Israel will be saved. As it is written: "The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob."<sup>13</sup> And this is<sup>14</sup> my covenant with them when I take away their sins.<sup>15</sup> As far as the gospel is concerned, they are enemies for your sake; but as far as election is concerned, they are loved on account of the patriarchs, for God's gifts and his call are irrevocable.

Just as you who were at one time disobedient to God have now received mercy as a result of their disobedience,<sup>16</sup> so they too have now become disobedient in order that they too may now receive mercy as a result of God's mercy to you.<sup>17</sup> For God has bound everyone over to disobedience so that he may have mercy on them all.

Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God!

How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out!<sup>18</sup> Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has seen his counsel?<sup>19</sup>

Who has ever given to God, that God should repay them?<sup>20</sup> For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be the glory forever! Amen.

Service of all believers, chapters 12-15

Romans 12:1

12 Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.

Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in love. Honor one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone. If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: "It is mine to avenge; I will repay," says the Lord. On the contrary: "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

13 Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God. Consequently, whoever rebels against the authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and those who do so will bring judgment on themselves. For rulers hold no terror for those who do right, but for those who do wrong. Do you want to be free from fear of the one in authority? Then do what is right and you will be commended. For the one in authority is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for rulers do not bear the sword for no reason. They are God's servants, agents of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer. Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only because of possible punishment but also as a matter of conscience.

This is also why you pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, who give their full time to governing. Give to everyone what you owe them: if you owe taxes, pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honor, then honor.

Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for whoever loves others has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet," and whatever other command there may be, are summed up in this one command:

"Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no harm to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

And do this, understanding the present time: The hour has already come for you to wake up from your slumber, because our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. The night is nearly over; the day is almost here. So let us put aside the deeds of darkness and put on the armor of light. Let us behave decently, as in the daytime, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and debauchery, not in dissension and jealousy. Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the flesh.

14 Accept the one whose faith is weak, without quarreling over disputable matters. One person's faith allows them to eat anything, but another, whose faith is weak, eats only vegetables. The one who eats everything must not treat with contempt the one who does not, and the one who does not eat everything must not judge the one who does, for God has accepted them. Who are you to judge someone else's servant? To their own master, servants stand or fall. And they will stand, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

One person considers one day more sacred than another; another considers every day alike. Each of them should be fully convinced in their own mind. Whoever regards one day as special does so to the Lord. Whoever eats meat does so to the Lord, for they give thanks to God; and whoever abstains does so to the Lord and gives thanks to God. For none of us lives for ourselves alone, and none of us dies for ourselves alone. If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. For this very reason, Christ died and returned to life so that he might be the Lord of both the dead and the living.

So, then, why do you judge your brother or sister? Or why do you treat them with contempt? For we will all stand before God's judgment seat. It is written: "As surely as I live," says the Lord, "every knee will bow before me; every tongue will acknowledge God." So then, each of us will give an account of ourselves to God.

Therefore let us stop passing judgment on one another. Instead, make up your mind not to put any stumbling block or obstacle in the way of a brother or sister. I am convinced, being fully persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean in itself. But if anyone regards something as unclean, then for that person it is unclean. If your brother or sister is distressed because of what you eat, you are no longer acting in love. Do not by your eating destroy someone for whom Christ died. Therefore do not let what you know is good be spoken of as evil. For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking, but of righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit, because anyone who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and receives human approval.

Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification. Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All food is clean, but it is wrong for a person to eat anything that causes someone else to stumble. It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or to do anything else that will cause your brother or sister to fall.

So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who does not condemn himself by what he approves. But whoever has doubts is condemned if they eat, because their eating is not from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

15 We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves. Each of us should please our neighbors for their good, to build them up. For even Christ did not please himself but, as it is written: "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me." For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.

May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the Jews' on behalf of God's truth, so that the promises made to the patriarchs might be confirmed and, moreover, that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written: "Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing the praises of your name." Again, it says,

"Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people." And again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; let all the peoples extol him."

And again, Isaiah says, "The Root of Jesse will spring up, one who will arise to rule over the nations; in him the Gentiles will hope."

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

I myself am convinced, my brothers and sisters, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with knowledge and competent to instruct one another. Yet I have written you quite boldly on some points to remind you of them again, because of the grace God gave me to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles. He gave me the

Salutations, chapter 16

16 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, a deacon<sup>1</sup> of the church in Cenchreae. I ask you to receive her in the Lord in a way worthy of his people and to give her any help she may need from you, for she has been the benefactor of many people, including me. Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to her.

Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my co-workers in Christ Jesus. They risked their lives for me. Not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them.

Greet also the church that meets at their house. Greet my dear friend Epeneus, who was the first convert to Christ in the province of Asia.

Greet Mary, who worked very hard for you. Greet Andronicus and Junia, my fellow Jews who have been in prison with me. They are outstanding among the apostles, and they were in Christ before I was.

Greet Amplias, my dear friend in the Lord. Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys. Greet Apelles, whose fidelity to Christ has stood the test. Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobolus. Greet Herodion, my fellow Jew. Greet those in the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord. Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, those women who work hard in the Lord. Greet my dear friend Persis, another woman who has worked very hard in the Lord. Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who has been a mother to me, too. Greet Asyncritus, Philegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermes and the other brothers and sisters with them.

Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas and all the Lord's people who are with them.

priestly duty of proclaiming the gospel of God, so that the Gentiles might become an offering acceptable to God, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

Therefore I glory in Christ Jesus in my service to God. I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me in leading the Gentiles to obey God by what I have said and done—"by the power of signs and wonders, through the power of the Spirit of God. So from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ. It has always been my ambition to preach the gospel where Christ was not known, so that I would not be building on someone else's foundation. Rather, as it is written: "Those who were not told about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand." This is why I have often been hindered from coming to you.

But now that there is no more place for me to work in these regions, and since I have been longing for many years to visit you, I plan to do so when I go to Spain. I hope to see you while passing through and to have you assist me on my journey there, after I have enjoyed your company for a while. Now, however, I am on my way to Jerusalem in the service of the Lord's people there. For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the Lord's people in Jerusalem. They were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings, they owe it to the Jews to share with them their material blessings. So after I have completed this task and have made sure that they have received this contribution, I will go to Spain and visit you on the way. I know that when I come to you, I will come in the full measure of the blessing of Christ.

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me. Pray that I may be kept safe from the unbelievers in Judea and that the contribution I take to Jerusalem may be favorably received by the Lord's people there, so that I may come to you with joy, by God's will, and in your company be refreshed. The God of peace be with you all. Amen.

All the churches of Christ send greetings.

I urge you, brothers and sisters, to watch out for those who cause divisions and put obstacles in your way that are contrary to the teaching you have learned. Keep away from them. For such people are not serving our Lord Christ, but their own appetites. By smooth talk and flattery they deceive the minds of naive people. Everyone has heard about your obedience, so I rejoice because of you; but I want you to be wise about what is good, and innocent about what is evil.

The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

Timothy, my co-worker, sends his greetings to you, as do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my fellow Jews.

Tertius, who wrote down this letter, greet you in the Lord. Gaius, whose hospitality I and the whole church here enjoy, sends you his greetings. Erastus, who is the city's director of public works, and our brother Quartus send you their greetings. [?]

Now to him who is able to establish you in accordance with my gospel, the message I proclaim about Jesus Christ, in keeping with the revelation of the mystery hidden for long ages past, but now revealed and made known through the prophetic writings by the command of the eternal God, so that all the Gentiles might come to the obedience that comes from faith—to the only wise God be glory forever through Jesus Christ! Amen.
