Welcome to Ladies & Gents, a consignment store for Men and Women.

$$$ 40% of selling price goes to consignor

Consignors are allowed 15 items per drop. All items need to be clean (not smoky or detergent smelly), damage free and not extremely wrinkled.

You agree as the consignor that we may set the price of an item to any amount we deem appropriate. We do thorough research on the products we sell, so you can be sure you're getting a fair price.

As a consignor of Ladies & Gents you agree that we may post pictures of your items online, in our physical location, or social media channels to encourage sales.

After we accept your items, they will be in the store for 8 weeks. We are not responsible for theft or damage.

You may choose whether to donate or retrieve after expiration.

After receiving item pick up email, the consignor has 14 days to pick up their items or else they will belong to Ladies & Gents LLC, No exception.

When the account is set up you will receive a welcome email.

When items are added to your account, an email with the listed items is automatically generated and sent to you.

Upon sale of the listed item, you will receive an email notification.

Consignors will be paid anytime during business hours with cash or check. 24 hour notice is required if your balance is over $100.00

It is the consignor's responsibility to collect their money from sales. The consignor sales portion will remain on the account as credit until collected.

Thank you for choosing to do business with Ladies & Gents LLC. We are looking forward to working with you. By signing you agree to the above terms:
