

Winter Time

by Sevan Minaskanian

LOGLINE

A heartfelt coming-of-age novel about first love, identity, and the emotional moments that shape who we become, Winter Time explores the power of connection and the lasting impact of kindness in the face of adversity.

SHORT SYNOPSIS

Winter Time follows a deeply emotional journey through young love and self-discovery, capturing the intensity of first relationships and the challenges of growing up. As the characters navigate vulnerability, trust, and personal identity, the story also sheds light on the effects of bullying and the importance of empathy during formative years.
