

MORNING PRAYER WHEN FASTING FOR BREAKTHROUGH

Jesus,

We force our flesh and our soul to submit to you. We require every rebellious thought word and action to come under the full authority of Christ. We call forward our spirit in full union with the Holy Spirit to come forward as the leading voice in our being today so that we can present to everything in heaven and earth as consecrated vessels hosting your presence, battling the kingdom of darkness with blessing our enemies and those who need mercy for we are requesting complete victory in these matters.

Every rock must break under the weight of your goodness. Every chain must dissolve in your refining fire.

Come and receive your glory in my life today Jesus!!!

Amen
