Dr. Pegi JODRY, Arkhaioa 2022 Jury President

Pittsburgh, PA - The Arkhaioa Film Festival is honored to announce Dr. Pegi Jodry to be the Arkhaioa 2022 Jury President as the festival celebrates its 10th anniversary.

Dr. Margaret (Pegi) Jodry is a Research Associate in the Department of Anthropology, Smithsonian Institution.

As a Field Director in the Paleoindian Program at the National Museum of Natural History for 35 years, she conducted archaeological and ethnological field research across North America and in Alaska, France, Siberia, and Kamchatka investigating human lifeways at the end of the last Ice Age.

Pegi works collaboratively with indigenous elders, documentary filmmakers, and interdisciplinary scientists to bring the past and present alive through stories that integrate scientific findings, traditional knowledge, and visual imagery.

Dr. Pegi Jodry recently served as an anthropological consultant for CBC documentary, "Ice Bridge: An Impossible Journey", 2019 Winner of Canadian Screen Award for Best History Documentary Program or Series, presented on The Nature of Things.

The Arkhaioa 2022 Jury will screen the films of the Arkhaioa Official Selection in September and will announce the Awards Winners at the festival Virtual Edition on Saturday October 15 at 5pm EST.

The Arkhaioa Cultural Heritage and Archaeology Events corporation is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization producing the Arkhaioa Film Festivals in South Carolina and in Pennsylvania, when possible. A Virtual Edition has been added to screen the films online.

The multi-day Arkhaioa Cultural Heritage and Archaeology Film Festival is an annual juried competition, part of Archaeology Month celebration. It is free, open to the public, and is an educational event showcasing the discovery of past cultures gained from ethnological or archaeological research, and illustrated through documentary films.

The Arkhaioa Film Festival is sponsored by the SC Institute of Archaeology and Anthropology (SCIAA) and the Department of Anthropology of the University of South Carolina, and the Greater Piedmont Chapter of The Explorers Club, in South Carolina, and in Pennsylvania by the Department of Anthropology of the University of Pittsburgh, and the Allegheny Chapter #1 of the Society for Pennsylvania Archaeology.
