2024 Arkhaioi Film Festival – Virtual Edition

Monday C

A Story of Bones

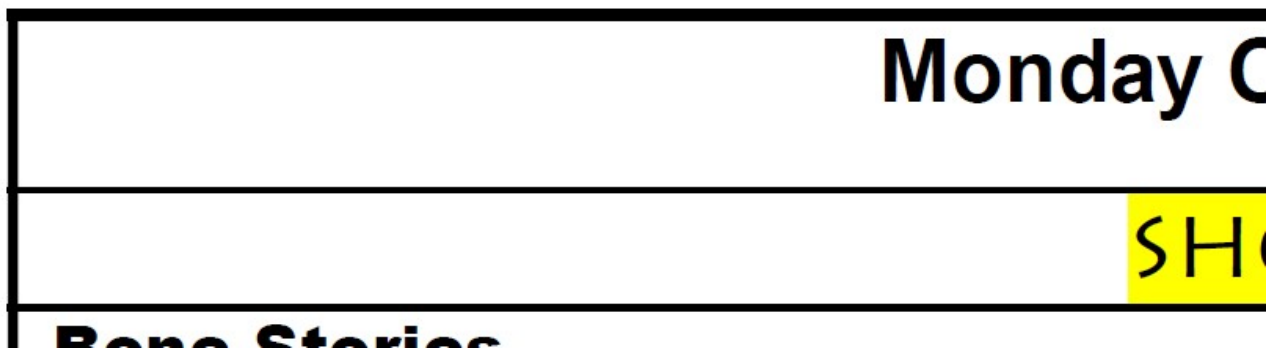

Directors Joseph Curran & Dominic Aubrey de Vere, (UK)

Ancient Sea Peoples of the North Atlantic

Director T.W. Timreck, (USA)

2024 Arkhaioi SHORT Films

The Arkhaioi SHORT Films competition presents future talents in filmmaking. Recognizing the important role short independent films have in the history of filmmaking, storytelling, and culture, Arkhaioi helps empower the next generation of artists and scientists attracted to telling the stories of our past in less than twenty minutes or so.

The Arkhaios Virtual Edition allows for all the films to be viewed at any time during the week of the festival, from Monday, October 14 @ 9 am through Sunday, October 20 till midnight.

Go to the Arkhaios website <https://arkhaiosfilmfestival.org/>, click the "Festival Access" button, or go to the Arkhaios festival site <https://arkhaiosfilmfestival2024.eventive.org/welcome> and enjoy the free festival at your leisure!

The Awards Winners will be announced online Saturday October 19, 2024, 5pm EST.

###

The multi-day Arkhaios Cultural Heritage and Archaeology Film Festival is an annual juried competition, part of Archaeology Month celebration. It is free, open to the public, and is an educational event showcasing the discovery of past cultures gained from ethnological or archaeological research, and illustrated through documentary films.

The Arkhaios Film Festival is sponsored by the SC Institute of Archaeology and Anthropology (SCIAA) and the Department of Anthropology of the University of South Carolina, and, in Pennsylvania, by the Department of Anthropology of the University of Pittsburgh, and the Allegheny Chapter #1 of the Society for Pennsylvania Archaeology.

The Arkhaios Cultural Heritage and Archaeology Events corporation is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization producing the Arkhaios Film Festivals in South Carolina and in Pennsylvania, when possible. A worldwide Virtual Edition has been added to screen the films online.
