

MMH Therapist Opportunity

Opportunity Overview

The MMH Therapist engages clients in facilitating change by assessing client needs and strengths; prioritizing plans of action; and facilitating individual, group & family therapy

Opportunity Details

Assess client needs & strengths, successes & challenges
Establish rapport & develop a therapeutic relationship with the client & client's support partners
Collaborate with clients to create a plan of action to support optimized functioning
Facilitate individual, family & group therapeutic opportunities using strengths-based interventions

Education & Experience

A human service Master's degree in Psychology, Criminal Justice, Nursing, Sociology, Social Work, Counseling, Teacher Education, Behavioral Health and Other Degrees as approved by the WV Board
1-Year Related Experience

Helpful Knowledge Areas

Human Development & Behavior
Behavioral/Emotional/Mental Issues & Treatment
Community Resources

Skill & Ability Areas

Healthy Interpersonal Relations & Communication
Success Partnering with Clients, Families & Community Support Partners
Ability to Support & Motivate Others for Change

MMH Provides

Competative Compensation
Intern/Licensure/Certification; Supervision & CEUs
Benefits including Paid Leave; Vision/Dental; Life Insurance; Retirement
Flexible Schedules; School, Office, Home & Telehealth Service Options
Bonus Incentives for Travel/Expenses & Minimal Paperwork
A relaxed & supportive collaborative team work environment as we believe we all need to be well & function at our best to support others—the work we do can be draining so we need to have fun & enjoy the journey along the way
We value our mental health, our families (including fur babies) and coffee, chocolate & cheese which we believe supports our mental health

Dependable team players with compassion are valued & invited to apply for consideration