

SONGS WITH SCARS. PLAYED LIKE WE MEAN IT.

Fozz are a seasoned, high-energy three-piece who take the usual covers setlist, kick it in the teeth and play songs that really matter to your audience. No faff. No fluff. Just live, ridiculously tight renditions of bangers your crowd forgot they loved and won't shut up about after.

There are very few bands I would give my personal seal of approval to. Fozz is definitely one of them.

THIS ISN'T WALLPAPER. THIS IS A BAND THAT FILLS THE ROOM AND KEEPS THE BAR BUSY.

Tony Lacy

Elliot Foskett

John Wilkes

Fozz have been writing, recording and gigging for over 25 years, crafting a live show that's tight, dynamic and built to hold a crowd. With sharp stagecraft and an instinctive feel for what gets an audience moving, they've become masters at turning casual listeners into loyal fans.

DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT

"We've had Fozz play at Togfest over and over again. Their on-stage energy and presence entertains the crowd and with so many die-hard music fans, that's saying something! Their originals are catchy, quirky and full of life experience. We love them."

-Ian Rowe, Togfest

"From the first song, it was clear that Fozz were very different from other bands who play here. The fantastic choice of songs kept on surprising everyone. I'd never seen so many people up and dancing so early in the night"

Paul, The Old Swan, Earls Barton

They've got the gear, the experience, the banter and the setlist to make your night, one of those nights. The kind where people dance, drink, shout the words back and ask when the band's back before the last note's even faded.

"Honestly, we weren't there to watch a band, just to have a few laughs, but when we heard the opening notes of 'Waterfall' by The Stone Roses it was like the whole pub just sprang to life. Fozz were great and I can't wait for them to come back again."
