

COFC—Monthly Meeting 1_26_22

AGENDA

Supper—Pork Fricassee w Field Peas/Salad by Bogo Thibodaux

Yearly Board—1 new entry. Will update at next Board Meeting

Meeting—call to order 7:10PM with pledge by Panky

Welcome new members—Lanny Malcolm and Meldon “T-Con” Lee

Treasurer Report—Roy Dubois absent. Balance $30,740

Membership—58 members renewed in 2022 plus 1 paid Honorary Member Barney Falgout

VP Report—Troy Dubois went over Calendar of Events for upcoming year

January—Yearly Board Tournament underway

February—St. Joseph Alter Tournament at Sacred Heart Church cancelled

March--Awards Day March 5th at Cut Off Youth Center

April—Spring Rodeo April 23rd

June—Grand Isle COFC Rodeo (possibly moved to alternate site)

Member Chris Callais explained Port Commission’s plan to build pavilion and dock at Fourchon

Space in/near Flotation Canal. COFC could use this facility after mid-July and annually.

October—Fall Rodeo

December—Worker’s Appreciation Supper

Discussion by Buck Rogers—Thomas Arceneaux asked if we could host a rodeo at the Larose Civic Center to donate fish to the Center. They lost all fish during Hurricane Ida.

Fishing Reports—Use care in travelling through marsh b/c of low water

--Clovelly passes have been refunded. Several members said they received refund.

--new LWF law: kill switch requirement for ALL boat operators

21 members attended meeting.

IRS won by Francis Bruce

48 members on GroupMe. Several members said they don't like GroupMe because it "kicks them off the group if they don't respond to messages" or "they are aggravated by the constant replies within the group".

Bogo offered to phone anyone who doesn't want GroupMe.

Blank applications for prospective new members available.

Discussion on parking issues at Tin Shed.

Next Board meeting—February 9th

Next General meeting—February 23rd (pending approval of Board)