

La Playa Trail Association and members of Point Loma Assembly invite you to sample more neighborhood history with the upcoming presentation:

The Rich Past of Point Loma Assembly Hall

Thursday, October 12, 2023 4:30 pm

3035 Talbot Street, Point Loma

Join authors/historians Kitty McDaniel, President, La Playa Trail Association, and Eric DuVall, President, Ocean Beach Historical Society for a look back at Point Loma's handsome Assembly Hall. Situated on a Point Loma hillside above San Diego Bay, the Assembly Hall has been an iconic structure since 1911 for public gatherings and performances. Come and enjoy its curious beginnings and some history of the clubhouse and its members.

October 12 4:30pm

November 28 5:30pm

And, don't miss LPTA's November's presentation by Linda Canada, author/historian who spent a year interviewing residents at senior communities and San Diego Historical Society members who had spent some of their World War II years living in San Diego. Come learn how families were affected by the uncertainties of wartime living, and how the children felt about their experiences.

World War II through the Eyes of San Diego Children and Teens
