

Living our Faith in a Complex World

CHRISTIAN NATIONALISM: WHAT IS IT? WHY SHOULD WE CARE?

July 15th at Fellowship Presbyterian Church beginning at 6:00 pm

Come join us for discussion about what is Christian nationalism and how it causes harm in our communities today. We will explore what we mean by Christian nationalism, where it shows up, and why it is problematic. We will also begin exploring what we can do to counter Christian nationalism when we see it, and what action steps can be taken.

Discussion will be led by Rev. Suzanne Parker Miller with Pastors for North Carolina Children

The Rev. Suzanne Parker Miller is founder and executive director of Pastors for NC Children based in Raleigh, NC. PNCC is a nonpartisan, independent, nonprofit 501(c)(3) ministry serving the state of North Carolina to mobilize faith communities to advocate for public schools. As part of that work, Suzanne has seen the harms that Christian Nationalism causes public schools and organizes with Christians Against Christian Nationalism in North Carolina. Suzanne is a Moravian minister, wife, and mom to two kids in the Wake County Public School System.

Following the presentation and discussion there will be ...
