Dear Friends and Family,

Earlier last week, I had the opportunity to spend some time in Nebraska at our family apartment. For those who have not been to Nebraska, I will say this to start—it is not flat. It is very rolling. And at the state park near our apartment, there is an oak tree that was a sapling in 1644. The Missouri River with its beauty rolls gently by as the state line between NE and Iowa and with South Dakota. The Lewis and Clark National Trail has several points of interest including a known campsite that is part of that same state park near our apartment. As far as we know, the explorers on that expedition looked at the same oak tree that still stands there today.

Katie is settling into her new position as assistant to the bishop, with her focus being on congregation renewal and helping congregation members discover their baptismal calling. And she is continuing to recover from her liver injury. And she gives thanks for all the prayers that have been coming along the way. As 2026 begins, my family will continue to be learning how to navigate new ways of being here and there, all the routes between, and focusing on healing.

As 2026 begins, I am also looking forward to continuing ministry here at First Lutheran. We have seen great impact on our community through our reputation as a welcoming congregation; we have opened our arms to new friends; we have ongoing relationships with the high school music department; and so much more to build on. Sure, we are navigating new routes of how to get from here to there in ministry. But that is just the fun of ministry. And one day, someone will be standing in our sanctuary saying, back in the day the greats who forged the way, they were baptized at this same font and they ate at this same table.

Liturgical Arts Workshop

The congregation council invites you to a Liturgical Arts Workshop on Wednesday, January 14th at 6 PM.

We will begin evaluating our worship banners and paraments. We will also review sacristy tasks for worship preparation (communion set-up and candle-care). And we will review our worship assistant roles (reader, communion assistant, and usher).

This workshop is open to the whole congregation.

Sunday School

Our Sunday school days will be the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month.

January dates will be: January 11 and January 25.

We will begin at 9:45. Sunday school students will join worship in time to share communion with their families.

Annual Meeting on January 25th

Following the worship service on January 25th, we will have our regular annual meeting. We will take the ratification vote for our revised constitution which was adopted on January 4th. We will elect our new council members, which will be a total of 6 elected members from the congregation. We will also adopt our 2026 annual budget.

We look forward to celebrating 2025 and preparing ourselves for ministry 2026 at our annual meeting.

Revised Congregation Constitution

We have adopted our revised constitution and will ratify it with the second vote on January 25th.

You may find a copy of the revised constitution on our website under the “Resources” tab. Click on the “Congregation Documents” tab to download a PDF. You may also call the church office and have a print copy mailed to you.

Key changes include:

- reducing the membership of the church council to 7 members, 6 elected from the congregation and the pastor.
- Eliminating term limits for those serving council and committees
- Eliminating the second annual meeting in May
- Including the Day Care By-Laws
- Incorporating the church
- And other revisions as required by the ELCA model constitution which don’t typically affect our day to day ministry

Thank you to the whole council, but especially to Chip Algren, who spent a lot of time preparing this document for our congregation.

Pardon our Dust

The bathroom project to renovate the women’s bathroom in the basement has begun. The project is expected to take a couple weeks for completion. During this time, there is a single-person bathroom off the narthex as well as bathrooms located in the office building. If you would like to make a donation to help offset the cost of this project, please feel free to mark your offering envelop and place it in the offering plate when attending worship or mail to the church office.

Thank You from the Day Care and Preschool

The staff and students of the Day Care and Preschool send their heartfelt thanks to the congregation for the generosity of the November Vision and Purpose which supported our center. Our students enjoyed receiving new games, toys, books, and educational materials that were all possible because of the gift we received from the congregation. We look forward to our day care and preschool ministry continuing its impact our community throughout the year in part because of the generosity of our congregation.

Scout Sunday and Pancake Supper

First Lutheran Church is the charter organization for two scouting units. Pack 3705 and Troop 4705. Both units serve families in Monmouth and the surrounding areas.

On Sunday, February 8th, we will celebrate Scout Sunday during worship. The Scouts will attend and assist with worship leadership roles, as well as demonstrate a flag ceremony.

On Tuesday, February 17th, from 5 PM to 6:30 PM the Troop will host a pancake supper fundraiser. The funds raised will support scouts attending summer camp. Summer camp can cost up to $425 to attend for a week. So all fundraising really does help the scouts offset that cost.

Epiphany

January 6 to February 15

The baptism of Jesus is a moment that each Gospel writer uses to help establish the identity of Jesus as God's Son, the beloved, who we are to follow. The story of his baptism is rather brief, though, in fact the writer John doesn't even record it, just the events in the days after it when John the Baptist points to Jesus and says, "Yep, it's him—he's the one."

The baptism we experience is a moment that helps establish our identity as a follower of Jesus. Our story is one sketched in our memory, a moment long ago when our parents brought us to the font and water was poured over our head and the promise of God was spoken, naming us as a Child of God who can never be cut off from God because of Jesus's death and resurrection.

This year as we remember Jesus' baptism, we recall our own baptism, and we get to ask ourselves—why do we follow Jesus? Is there something about following Jesus that is important in our life?

Whether we answer the question or not does not change God's promise in our life. We are secure. But it does matter to how we are living our life.

So, how do you answer the question "Why do I follow Jesus?"

Want to Add Your Name to our Worship Helper List?

You can — join us at our Jan 14th Liturgical Arts Workshop and learn more about the roles of reader, communion assistant, and usher. We are looking for help scheduling these roles, as well.

You can — email or call Pastor Jamie and ask to have your name added to the list.

Right now the schedule is made using a rotating list. When someone is scheduled and they cannot make, they are simply asked to notify Pastor Jamie and a replacement can be found. And folks in worship are always ready to step up if someone cannot attend that day.

Share your talents in worship .. Volunteer today!

“A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be soled, because they are no more.” — Matthew 2:18

One of stories that is a part of the Christmas narrative in Matthew’s gospel is the tragedy where Herod sends troops to kill the boys who are 2 years old or younger in and around Bethlehem. Herod sends the troops because he is afraid of a new king born as a rival. Herod authorizes this horror because of his paranoia and insecurity. We often do not read this story during the Advent or Christmas season because a story of such horror seems contrary to a beautiful tale of God’s Son born. We want the ideal beauty of a shining star, angels singing, shepherds holding baby lambs, and nice guys showing up with expensive gifts. We want to avoid the horror that God arriving is a threat against the empire ruling the day. It is a shame that we avoid this story, because by avoiding the horror found in scripture, we have taught ourselves to avoid talking about the horror of our daily world. We like nice narratives that the powers that be are okay and trustworthy. We want the idealism of a happy nation; and to point out injustice caused by our modern empires makes us uncomfortable. We need to stop avoiding the story of the slaughter of the innocents. We need to be reminded that the horrors of this world is exactly why Jesus was born. Jesus was not born for happy idealism. Jesus was born to point out that the empires of this world are unjust.

As our nation reels in the chaos of the federal agent killing Renee Good in Minneapolis, we are left with the choice to avoid talking about the story, much as we avoid the horror story of the slaughter of innocents; or, we have the opportunity to name the violence of our world and to point out when the empire powers of our world cause wailing and lamentation, much as Herod did in sending his troops to Bethlehem. There is nice way to avoid naming the obvious that state-sponsored extrajudicial violence is never justifiable. There is no idealism that can cover up the blatant abuse of power that is trying to make anything right about what happened.

As people of faith, we are called to confront the horror of the world with the same boldness of Jesus, who was born to stand against the Herods of his day by standing against the metaphorical Herods of our day. May we remember our vocation as people of faith, and not hide from our tragic world, but instead with the faith and hope found in Jesus call out injustice wherever it is found, and work towards a world where God’s vision of peace roots out empiric injustice and blossoms fully with God’s true justice. Peace, Pastor Jamie
