

Faith At Home

Sunday, April 19, 2nd Sunday of Easter

Remembrance of Baptism

A family practice

Get a small bowl of water.

Read one of these stories:

Genesis 9:8-17

Exodus 14:15-31

Luke 4:21-22

Romans 6:1-11

Dip your finger in the bowl, make the sign of the cross on each other's foreheads, and say, "Remember, you are a baptized Child of God."

The Apostles' Creed

Unified in our baptism, we confess our faith:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

Praying

A family practice

Have every member of the family write a prayer to God, naming one of the following themes:

Creation

Those who are sick

Those dealing with the fears of the pandemic

Those dealing with the loss of loved ones

Those serving in the military

Those serving in positions of leadership

Are there other concerns you need to name?

After you write these prayers share them aloud with one another.

The Lord's Prayer

Lord remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen

This Week In God's Word — 2nd Sunday of Easter

Hearing God's Word

Take time as a family to open the Bible and read these stories together. Take turns reading. Do not be afraid of words, like names, that you are unfamiliar with. Say it like you mean it.

The First Reading Acts 2:14a, 22-32

Peter gives testimony to the resurrection of Jesus, reminding everyone that even David knew that the Messiah would be raised.

The Psalm Psalm 16

The Second Reading 1 Peter 1:3-9

Written to a faith community struggling with oppression, Peter's letter reminds us of the power of faith, and the reward of salvation.

The Gospel John 20:19-31

On consecutive Sunday evenings, Jesus visits the disciples, offering them a gift of the Holy Spirit and a blessing of seeing the Risen Messiah

A time of blessing

When you have spent your time together, praying and listening to God's Word, take a moment to bless one another:

May the One who brought forth Jesus from the dead raise you to new life, fill you with hope, and turn your mourning into dancing.

Almighty God, Father, + Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you now and forever.

Amen.

Family Check-In Time

Tell one another your favorite joke?

What is your favorite comedy movie or TV show?

Watch it together

Insights from Scripture

The very first disciples did not know what to do with the knowledge that Jesus was raised from the dead. At least not that first night of the resurrection, nor even by a week later. Dazed, confused, and sheltered-in-place in Jerusalem, hiding from the authorities they fear are out to get them, the disciples receive a visit from the Risen Messiah. During that visit, he offers them the gift of the Holy Spirit, which will guide them as they move forward. During that same visit, Jesus sends them with a mission. We begin to see the fruits of this visit on the day of Pentecost, the Acts story, which shows us how much Peter has grown in confidence over these 50 days. Being a disciple doesn't mean you are automatically ready to stand up and give powerhouse sermons like Peter. Being a disciple means learning to grow in faith.

How have you grown in your faith? Talk about what types of faith-moments/encounters with God/the Risen Jesus have led to growth and confidence in your faith? How are you still learning about faith in the Risen Messiah today?

Remembering Jesus when we eat

On Sunday, when you gather as a family for a meal, it can be appropriate to remember Jesus as you eat. This is not a replacement of Holy Communion, but telling the story reminds us that Jesus is with the whole Church, even as we are not gathered at the altar in our sanctuary.

Read these verses, say your dinner prayer, then eat in the joy of the Lord's presence.

St. Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 11:23-26, "For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes."