

Faith At Home

Sunday, April 26, 3rd Sunday of Easter

Remembrance of Baptism

A family practice

Get a small bowl of water.

Read one of these stories:

Genesis 9:8-17

Exodus 14:15-31

Luke 4:21-22

Romans 6:1-11

Dip your finger in the bowl, make the sign of the cross on each other's foreheads, and say, "Remember, you are a baptized Child of God."

The Apostles' Creed

Unified in our baptism, we confess our faith:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary,

Suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

Praying

A family practice

Have every member of the family write a prayer to God, naming one of the following themes:

Creation

Those who are sick

Those dealing with the fears of the pandemic

Those dealing with the loss of loved ones

Those serving in the military

Those serving in positions of leadership

Are there other concerns you need to name?

After you write these prayers share them aloud with one another.

The Lord's Prayer

Lord remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen

This Week In God's Word — 2nd Sunday of Easter

Hearing God's Word

Take time as a family to open the Bible and read these stories together. Take turns reading. Do not be afraid of words, like names, that you are unfamiliar with. Say it like you mean it.

The First Reading Acts 2:14a, 36-41

Peter gives testimony to the promise that is for all who the Lord calls.

The Psalm Psalm 116

The Second Reading 1 Peter 1:17-23

The blood of Christ is the ransom for all whom God judges.

The Gospel Luke 24:13-35

Walking home from Jerusalem, 2 disciples encounter the Risen Jesus, though they are not aware of it until they break bread with him in their home.

A time of blessing

When you have spent your time together, praying and listening to God's Word, take a moment to bless one another:

May the One who brought forth Jesus from the dead raise you to new life, fill you with hope, and turn your mourning into dancing.

Almighty God, Father, + Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you now and forever.

Amen.

Family Check-In Time

Talk about your favorite place to go walking.

What has been the best thing you experienced while walking?

Insights from Scripture

As the Passover celebration ended in Jerusalem, the fervor of Jesus' death had not settled, but people had to return to their normal lives. Two disciples walking home were still troubled by all they experienced, and when a stranger joined them they couldn't help but engage the stranger about their story and listen as he explained that all that had happened was according to scripture. The disciples were not aware that this stranger was actually the Risen Jesus until they broke bread together at their home.

Sometimes we do not realize how Jesus is with us. Walking beside us, enduring what we are enduring, celebrating what we celebrate. Sometimes it takes the breaking of the bread for us to see that Jesus is with us. Sometimes, Jesus has other ways of revealing himself.

Talk about times when you felt Jesus with you? How did you know it was Jesus? What are things we can do to help us recognize Jesus walking alongside of us today?

Remembering Jesus when we eat

On Sunday, when you gather as a family for a meal, it can be appropriate to remember Jesus as you eat. This is not a replacement of Holy Communion, but telling the story reminds us that Jesus is with the whole Church, even as we are not gathered at the altar in our sanctuary.

Read these verses, say your dinner prayer, then eat in the joy of the Lord's presence.

St. Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 11:23-26, "For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.' In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.' For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes."
