Today's Readings

Consider bringing your own Bible, marked with these passages, to follow along with the readings in worship

Joshua 3:1-17

The nation of Israel crosses the Jordan River to enter the promised land. The river stops flowing while the Ark of the Covenant is held in the river channel.

Psalm 30

Romans 6:1-11

St. Paul reminds us of the promise connected to baptism, that we have died and have risen and are free from sin.

Matthew 3:1-17

As John's ministry of baptism takes place at the Jordan River, Jesus comes to wash his life and orient his life to the will of God the Father, who speaks and declares Jesus as his Son.

Living the Creed

This is an activity to do during the week. Take pictures and send them to Pastor Jamie. Pictures will be shared in the following Sunday worship slides.

Prepare for Sunday, July 12—the Transfiguration of Jesus.

Find a picture that depicts Jesus represented from a different culture. Make a sign with that picture and the words “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” from Matthew 17:5.

Print it off and take a photo of you holding the picture.

Please keep in your prayers:
