

Cold Shot

Cold Shot is a Colorado based Stevie Ray Vaughan and Double Trouble tribute band and more. By request, they expanded to play other artists music and some originals. They perform with no tricks up their sleeves; just searing glissandos on the guitar performing with the intensity of rock and the deep feeling of the blues. Danny J, follow's Stevie's advice by tuning low, playing hard and flooring it.

The Band

Danny J. guitar and vocals. Danny started playing at the age of 10 while living in the Chicago area. Later, after moving to Alabama he honed his chops playing southern rock and blues. He heard SRV in 1983 and has been a student ever since. Danny has performed in England, Alaska, Texas and several other states.

Bass is held down by our own Terry Grulke. Terry hails from Green Bay and has been playing music since the 5th grade. He's played with several bands in the WI, IL, and MI area and recently with a Johnny Cash tribute band. He is now laying down the low end for Cold Shot.

Drums are kept solid by Karl Morrison. Karl has been playing with numerous bands within the Denver music scene for a few decades and now he is keeping time playing the Texas Shuffle.

Bill Rich laying down both rhythm and solos on keys. Also from Texas originally, Bill started as a classical pianist but wanted to have more fun and he started playing Jerry Lee Lewis style of keys. He has played in bands in El Paso, San Diego, and of course Denver.
