

PALM SPRINGS THE MUSICAL

Born to Sparkle

Our story begins with a Narrator, Bella da Ball, a 7-foot-tall drag queen famous throughout Palm Springs for her outlandish style and flair for fashion. She appears throughout the show, taking us on a “magical-musical-mystery-tour” in her bedazzled costumes, perfectly coiffed wigs, and excessive high heels.

Set in present day, PALM SPRINGS THE MUSICAL features two talented and passionate women, JR and El. JR, short for Jewel Robbins, is a beautiful, buxom redhead with the flair of a 40's pin-up girl. The public adores her as a singer, songwriter and actress on both stage and screen. Her best friend, El Tanner, is a sexy, striking Armenian, with bohemian gypsy style. She's a major player in the entertainment world and an award winning producer, director and writer of stage and screen.

Having achieved successful careers in the entertainment business, they leave their stressful lives in Hollywood. Following a deathbed promise to Diane, JR's Mom, the girls commit to pursuing her dream of recreating The Fabulous Follies. They begin their adventure by being welcomed into a multicultural, all-inclusive melting pot of life styles in the heart of the Coachella Valley – Palm Springs. Along their journey they befriend a diverse cast of colorful characters, a virtual kaleidoscope of personalities, who join them on their quest to bring back The Follies.

Some twist and turns that ensue are:

- Diane, now a playful and wise spirit guide, appears in other worldly form, to assure the ultimate outcome of the girls' promise.
- A series of devastating losses that bring JR to a life-changing realization.
- A sizzling romance between El and Sonny Larson, an extremely powerful Tribal Chairman.
- The revelation that El's torturous ties with her villainous stepfather, Vic Richards, is based on a long history of ruinous lies.
- Together EL, JR and their new-found friends expose Vic's tyrannical reign at the Senior Living Facility...putting an end to his dark and deceitful deeds, and bringing him to justice.

With the help of their new community family and newly-liberated seniors, JR and El are empowered to produce an award winning recreation of the Fabulous Follies. Our story ends with a show-stopping, musical extravaganza, featuring the entire cast ...who were all Born to Sparkle!!
