Compliance Mock Audits

- WRG will conduct a mock audit of the required program elements that mimics a CMS audit.
- Mock Audit Types:
 - ACO Compliance Program
 - Governance
 - CEHRT Requirements
 - Written Arrangements
 - Voluntary Alignment
 - Beneficiary Notifications
 - ACO Roster Management
 - Participant & Preferred Provider Contracting & Notifications Process
 - Benefit Enhancement & Beneficiary Engagement Incentives
- WRG provides a report that the ACO can use to close existing gaps in processes, leverage as documentation for CMS, and implement corrective actions.

Compliance Program Readiness Review

- The Readiness Review will identify gaps in activities and ensure documentation is sufficient to meet minimum regulatory requirements.
- The review will focus on the following:
 - Compliance with Regulatory Requirements to ensure the compliance program is sufficient to meet the minimum regulatory requirements outlined in the Shared Savings Program or ACO REACH Model Participation Agreement.
 - Audit Preparedness to ensure the ACO is currently documenting the compliance elements sufficiently to pass a Compliance Program Audit.
 - Practical Implementation to ensure effective implementation of the elements that are documented in the ACO's Compliance Program.

Mock Audit & Readiness Review Phases

- Phase 1 Initial Documentation Request: WRG provides an Initial Document Request.
- Phase 2 Clarification: WRG reviews provided documentation and schedules a call with the ACO to confirm understanding of processes where gaps appear to exist, or documentation is unclear.
- Phase 3 Secondary Information Request: WRG develops a Secondary Information Request to identify whether specified processes have been implemented and documentation is sufficient.
- Phase 4 Findings Report: WRG provides a report that includes the requirement, summary of documentation, finding (e.g., audit risk, compliant, noncompliant), and recommendations or best practice guidance.

TRAINING & REPORTING

MAKE COMPLIANCE TRAINING LESS PAINFUL

ACO Compliance Training

- Your ACO should be providing Compliance Training for all individuals providing functions or services related to ACO activities.
- Training should be completed annually and upon hire and/or contracting for those new to the ACO.
- WRG developed this product to help organizations feel less pain when rolling out the required training (because compliance training can never truly be pain-free).

WRG Online Training

- Easy-Access: Individuals visit www.wrgtraining.com and enter the ACO username/password to access anytime from anywhere
- Self-Study: Individuals read content at their leisure
- User Attestation: Individuals don't waste time on quizzes, but attest to completion & understanding of training module content
- Frequent Updates: Content is updated often to reflect changes in regulation and new guidance from CMS

How Training Works

- Each ACO receives a single username and password with template instructions to distribute to all ACO-related individuals.
- Once an individual has viewed the training module, they are prompted to complete and submit an attestation. This action confirms that they have read and understand the materials covered by the training module.
- WRG provides the ACO Compliance Officer and/or Leadership access to an Admin page with separate login credentials which allows them to pull attestation completion reports on demand.
- This service will not include data analysis of provider or staff training rosters or direct communication with individuals who are overdue or submitted incomplete attestations. Training gaps must be identified by the ACO.

- The reports are transmitted to the designated individual(s) within the ACO for investigation and follow-up.
- Reports are re-routed within the ACO if the designated individual is implicated in a report.
