Red Rooster, Black Rooster

This is a song of the Spanish Civil war. The black rooster is Franco and the red rooster is the people who fight against his oppression.

When the black rooster crows,
It's because the day has ended,
If the red rooster crowed,
Another would crow too.

Oh! If I'm lying,
Then let the sound of my song
Be erased by the wind.
Oh! Such disenchantment,
If only the wind would erase
What I'm singing.

They found each other in the sand,
The two roosters face to face.
The black rooster was big,
But the red rooster was brave.

They looked at each other face to face,
And the black rooster attacked first.
The red rooster is brave,
But the black rooster is treacherous.

Black rooster, black rooster,
Black rooster, I'm warning you:
A red rooster doesn't give up,
Only when it's already dead.

LAST TIME (all groups in unison)

D A Bm F#m G D Em7 A D

Love, love, love. All we need is love, love love. All we need is love.

Performance Instructions: (or make up your own)

- 1) Divide canon singers into 2 to 4 groups. Teach an additional group (ex. audience/congregation) the mantra.
- 2) Canon singers sing first three lines in unison; inviting Mantra Group to join in on line ③.
- 3) As Mantra Group repeats, start the canon. (Group 1 begins at ①. At ②, Group 2 begins at beginning, etc.)
- 4) Repeat canon as desired. Then repeat mantra until all groups have finished the canon.
- 5) Last Time is when all groups are in unison on the mantra.

Performance Suggestion:

- For an accompanied version, try singing this with Pachelbel's Canon in D.

* from the Liber Usualis (Latin): "where there is charity and love"

Abbie writes: "This song is dedicated to the victims, and survivors, of hate crimes everywhere, and specifically for those at the Pulse nightclub in Orlando on June 12, 2016. Love is often the bravest thing we do. May love prevail."
