

How does the Foundation help?

The Mandan Public Schools Foundation for Education raises money and provides funds for:

Student Scholarships

- Assist high school graduates with college tuition costs.
- Fund high school, middle school and elementary students for programs, camps, educational opportunities, travel experiences, etc.

Grants for School Employees and Students

- Provide enhancement opportunities to school employees for professional development.
- Help finance educational projects designed for students.

Funding to Meet Student Needs

- Finance the fundamental needs of students in the Mandan School District, like food programs, school supplies, and project expenses.

About the Foundation

Formed in 2010, the Mandan Public Schools Foundation for Education is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization governed by an independent board of directors made up of Mandan alumni, current and former educators, and local business leaders.

The board manages donations into an endowment fund from alumni, businesses, service clubs, families, current and former district employees, and supporters of education. Donations to the Foundation are deductible to the extent of IRS regulations.

What do grant recipients say about the Foundation?

"It's difficult for some students to achieve and focus on learning when basic needs are missing. The Foundation has provided funds to assist in supplying low-income students with essential items, such as gym shoes, eye glasses, and winter clothing."

—Laura Just, Social Worker,
Mandan Public Schools

"Thank you for your generous donation towards the purchase of Guided Readers from Abrams. The new guided reading books are so engaging and the kids are learning about such a wide variety of topics. The students are enjoying the new books and are very grateful for your generosity."

—Kris Vogel and the staff, Fort Lincoln

"Thank you for the North Dakota puzzle. It's an awesome learning tool and a fun activity."

—4th grade student,
Roosevelt Elementary School
