ALL OUR MOTHERS

Our country celebrates Mother's Day today. A particular flower is associated with Mother's Day—the carnation.

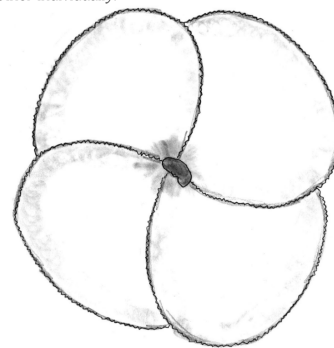

Anna Jarvis is the woman who had the idea for a day to honor mothers. Anna's mother died in 1905 after spending her life working to improve the lives of other people. Anna loved and admired her mother, so after her mother died, Anna worked to establish a day in her honor to honor all mothers. In May of 1907, Anna gave a talk at her church in Grafton, West Virginia, and handed out five hundred carnations to the mothers in attendance. The next year that church held a special Mother's Day service. By 1909, forty-six states held special services to honor mothers. In 1914 President Woodrow Wilson officially designated the second Sunday in May as Mother's Day. For 104 years people in the United States have continued to honor mothers on that day.

Anna Jarvis never wanted this day to be one for expensive presents, flowers, or candy. She wanted it to remain simple—a day to remember our mothers and stepmothers, living or dead, with our good thoughts and prayers. Anna declared the carnation the official flower of the day and the singular, "Mother's Day," as the correct spelling. She wanted attention to be paid to each mother individually.

How appropriate to celebrate Mother's Day during the Easter season! The day is a chance to honor our mothers and other women who are like mothers to us. We should also remember Mary, our heavenly mother. A mother's love reminds us of God's love, both of which give us life and help us grow.

Make some paper carnations like this one for your mother, stepmother, or other mother figure. Fill the petals with some words of your own and share them on this special day with the women you love and who love you.

The health of our parishioners is very important to us, and with the guidance of the Archdiocese of San Antonio, we are taking several measures to slow the spread of COVID-19 in this community. We are humbly asking our parishioners to visit our parish website www.saintleoschurch.net to set up your online giving for your weekly or monthly tithes. We also accept envelopes during our office hours 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Monday-Friday. Thank you to all our parishioners for your donations.
